—Ridgeway Dominion: Mr. Kelly, cigar manufacturer, of London, was in town Tuesday, and in company of Mr. D. Simpson, called at this office. Mr. Kelly showed some fine samples of tobacco in the leaf, and explained the difference in that suitable for the manufacture of cigars and that required for cigar wrappers. The latter was very fine and silky, of the Connecticut variety. He is anxious to have the farmers grow tobacco suitable for cigars, and thought the sandy loam of Howard the right soil for it. He says the market is unlimited, and it would command a higher price than that paid for the coarser plug varieties. The farmers of this section are evidently but in the commencement of the possibilities of tobacco culture, and the more knowledge they acquire upon the subject the better.

FIRE WAGON AND STREET CAR COLLIDED.
About 6:30 o'clock last evening the fire department was called out to attend a blaze in the drying room of Green's broom works, near the corner of Albert and Richmond streets. The damage was not more than $10 or $15. On the trip to the fire the hook and ladder truck collided with a street car, and the firemen had a narrow escape from being thrown off. No blame could be attached to anyone. The firemen came west on Dufferin avenue, and the street car north on Richmond street. At the corner the fireman of a north-bound car held his car to let the fire-

CONCERT AT CHALMERS'
Provided by the Knox Church Choir—An Excellent Programme.

It was a musical treat that the choir of Knox Church, South London, had prepared to give at Chalmers' Presbyterian Church last evening, and a good-sized audience were present to enjoy it. If applause and encores are any indication of appreciation, then everybody must have been thoroughly satisfied. Rev. Mr. Moffat introduced the programme, which was carried out in its entirety, as follows:

Te Deum (from Mendelssohn's Elijah).....Dudley Buck
Knox Church Choir.
Reading.....Miss Annie McArthur.
"A Winter's Story".....Watson
"Concertante" (Violin duet).....Bohmann
"Forever With Thee".....Jex Brothers.
"My Lady's Bower".....Gounod
"O God, Our Help".....Brown
Solo and chorus.....O. For the Wings of a Dove".....Miss Leys and Knox Church Choir.
Cornet Solo—"My Love".....Miss Leys and Knox Church Choir.
Reading—"Passing of Peter".....Testi
"Resurrection".....Mr. K. J.
Violin solo.....Miss Martin.
"Down on the Hills".....Sullivan
Misses Leys and Knox Church Choir.
"Ora Pro Nobis".....Picolomini
"Spring Song".....Mendelssohn
"God Save the Queen."

The soloists were all encased without stint. Misses Leys and Martin were favorites, and their duet, "Ora Pro Nobis," was a gem. Miss McArthur was very amusing in her dialect readings, while Mr. Alexander might have been reciting yet, if his stock-in-memory had not run short. Jex Brothers and St. George gave an instrumental flavor to the programme, which was much appreciated. Mr. F. L. Evans, the energetic organist and choirmaster of Knox Church, was responsible for the success of the programme, and received much praise for his efforts.

After the concert the trustees entertained the choir and their friends to luncheon, when the hearty thanks of the board were also extended to the soloists for their kindness.

High School Debentures an Imperative Expenditure.
Board of Education Recommended to Make Another Appeal to the Council—New Normal School Will Not Affect the Attendance at Other Schools.

The refusal of the city council to grant debentures for the building of a new school on the collegiate grounds was discussed fully by No. 2 committee of the board of education last night. The trustees were unanimous in their opinion that the school was an imperative necessity. Some members of the council were criticised for being so ready to grant the request for the north end school and at the same time strongly opposing the high school grant.

Probably with a slight compromise in view, the chairman asked if four rooms would be enough in the new building. Mr. Merchant said four class rooms would be sufficient, but there ought to be a teacher's room as well.

The architect said the plainest kind of a four-roomed school would cost $6,000 or $7,000. To fix the attic as suggested would practically be throwing away money. It would be unsuitable owing to the heat and also because of the danger in case of fire, he said.

The basement which is at present in use was strongly condemned on account of its dampness. The possibility of the attendance being lessened by the establishment of the new school was suggested, and it was said by one of the members that he had definite information from the minister of education that there would be no model school in connection with the London normal school, would be conducted as at Ottawa when the normal was first built there. The public school classes will not be affected, and the attendance will not be affected either at the collegiate institute or any of the public schools.

On motion of Mr. McLean, it was decided to make another appeal to the city council to grant the high school debentures. In the event of a second refusal, several of the trustees are in favor of submitting the question to the people. In the meantime the estimates will not be increased.

Tenders will be called for the cleaning of closets at the several schools. An agreement will be prepared for the lease of Albert Hall, West London, in which the kindergarten is now accommodated.

Trustee Hamilton, speaking of the West London kindergarten, recently opened, said the attendance averaged about 25. The furnishings were splendid and the class was progressing finely.

The chairman reported that Mr. Geo. Roughley put in the highest bid for the cottage on the Colborne street south property and was granted the cottage. His figure was $55, and the lowest price offered was $50.

Those present were: Dr. English (chairman), Messrs. McLean, Ziegler, Martyn, Evans, Hamilton, Gillespie, Weldon and Wilkins, Secretary McElderman and Architect Matthews.
