EXPLAINING DEFEAT. Chairman Elliot Danforth, of the New York Democratic State Committee, said: "The result shows that a large portion of the Democrats have leserted their party and voted for Mc-Kinley. The State committee had no financial means with which to make a thorough and complete canvass of the State. It has been our aim to conduct an honorable, manly fight, with the limited resources at our com-mand. While the result in the State is disappointing to the friends and advocates of Mr. Bryan and the cause he represented, I feel confident that the principles of true Democracy will ultimately prevail. The Detroit Free Press says: "Michi gan has vindicated herself by recording such a Republican victory as constitutes a stunning rebuke to the advocates of repudiation and national dishonor. It is apparent from the returns thus far received that the Popo cratic prophets failed utterly to measure the consequences of an educational campaign and under-estimated the intelligence of our citizenship. Immediately following the political propaganda of Chicago's freak convention ere was an aggressive silver element in this State, and it possessed a numerical strength that was a menace to the best interests of the entire country. Had the election occurred immediately after Bryan's nomination he would have received many a vote that election of every Republican Congresswas yesterday recorded against him. But the voters of Michigan had time

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 4.-The morning sun smiled as it rose today upon the scene of yesterday's political carnage and the Republicans of the United States who had gone home late last night exhilarated with the certainty of victory, smiled back upon the sun as if its golden rays were an omen of the dawn of prosperity. All through the hours of darkness the wires had been busy with tidings from the far west, bringing some straw, it is true, for the Bryan bundle, but not enough to swell it to the dimensions of the McKinley sheaf, and it was clearly evident that not enough "doubtful" States could be counted in the Bryan column to substantiate the Democratic claims. Doubt still remained on the result in a few of the 45 States, but whichever way they had gone would not affect the rock-ribbed result. It may require an official count in Nebraska, for instance to pick out the winners. Kansas was very dilatory in making returns. Washington also was backward. But the following table will be found approximately correct, as viewed by this morning's light: FOR McKINLEY. Maine-40,000 plurality. New Hampshire-25,000 pluralit Vermont-35,000 plurality. Rhode Island-13,000 plurality.
