THE DOCKERS' STRIKE SPREAD-ING.

A dispatch from Hamburg says that the strike is increasing, and that the number of men who have quit work is 12,000. Wm. Aylot, a valet, charged with criminal libel by Earl Russell, was resumed. Lady Scott, who was in court at an early hour, was smartly dressed, and wore a long sable mantle. When she entered the prisoner's dock, her maid ostentatiously handed her a bottle of smelling salts. The court was densely crowded, more interest apparently being taken than upon any of the previous days of taking testimony. The examination of Earl Rus-sell was continued, the first feature of the day's proceedings being questions put to the witness regarding his rela-tions with a Chinese servant. During these interrogations the earl admitted that he had spent £1,000 in employing detectives to watch his wife. The cross-examination of Earl Russell also brought up the letter from Lady X-," which figured in the previous suit. This missive was read in court. It developed that the author was Lady Cardigan, and showed that it was she who told the story of Earl Russell and the Chinaman. Earl Russell's evidence was, in the main, an emphatic denial of the statements made by the male defendants. The London, Nov. 27.-The Thanksgiving Cinner of the American Society in London was given last night in the great hall of the Hotel Cecil. About three hundred guests were present, including Sir Frank Lockup the game through the wood, Solicitor-General; H. M. Stan-Luncheon was served in a ley, M.P., Sir Richard Webster and Consul-General Collins. Ambassador Bayard had been invited, but he, having gone to Windsor to visit the Queen, a letter of regret was read from him. The reading of the letter was ovely tailor-made costume of petunia greeted with cheers. A telegram of patriotic felicitations was sent to Mr. Bayard. It also contained best wishes for his health and god-speed for "the land we all love." Later a reply was received from Windsor, acknowledging the receipt of the telegram and adding: "All who love the United Princess Charles of Denmark States and Great Britain will join in mutual congratulations over the peaceful relations which crown the anniversary of gratitude for the numberless blessings that surround the English-speaking peoples." Sir Frank Lockwood, in proposing the health of President Cleveland, referred to his hospitable reception in the United States, on the occasion of his recent visit. He said his personal contact with President Cleveland had convinced him that he was a straightforward, honest, independent, and nobly courageous man.
