MITCHELL, Ont. Q.—What are the rules regarding registration in June? Is it only citizens who have to register, or is it everybody over 16 years of age? Is an American, 19 years old, in this draft?

A.—You have evidently confused the national registration under which all persons over 16 of all nationalities must register for national service, and the registration under the military service act which calls upon unmarried British subjects of 19 and 20 years of age to register for military service.

The American would go to the registration booths for national registration, but he would not need to mail his name to the registrar under the M. S. A.
