AMALGAMATED SILVER

New York, Nov. 23.—Following a quiet though somewhat feverish opening of the stock market today there developed in the first hour an outburst of selling orders in the securities of Amal. Copper which sent that stock down to 87 1/2. The sharp slump in Amal. adversely affected other issues.

Reports that the proposed merger of copper properties would have to be abandoned because of the federal court decision in the Standard Oil case, were said to be responsible for the sudden decline in the market. A rally followed the extreme points of the decline.

NEW YORK FINANCIAL BUREAU

New York, Nov. 23.—There may be further irregularity on a reduced scale today. We believe in seeking buying opportunities during any recessions in low priced stocks of worth. The closing of the market developments do not indicate that anything like a bear market has been started but rather has the general market situation been benefited by the unsettled element and there is evidence of a much larger shortage outstanding.

Carefully reviewing the final digest of news on the Standard Oil decision which maintains the position of dominant continental factor, we believe it will be found that our statement yesterday that the matter will be but temporary influence, is correct and that the decline is not as settling in reality as the final decision. The latest advice as to the English budget shows that what was expected has happened and the matter will probably die out a market factor until next January.

Money conditions continue to show improvement and this is the real factor notwithstanding its temporary relegation to the background. The various assurances from important men of the financial district yesterday shows where the powerful interests behind the market stand and we believe it will be found that this law and legislative business will work out very satisfactorily in this nation of a commercial people.

Press comment seems to be a little uncertain as to immediate moves but market attitude appears to be regaining some confidence.

Hay increase dividend to 5 per cent.

MORNING COTTON LETTER

New York, Nov. 23.—There were items in yesterday's news tending to indicate the intensity of the approaching struggle between very strong opposing interests in the cotton market. People with plenty of money and with a thorough knowledge of

EARTH CAVES IN, RESCUE OF MINERS IS BLOCKED

Before This There Seemed Hope of Getting More Men Out Alive—One of Those Rescued Dies

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 23.—Fire in the second gallery of the St. Paul mine resulted today in the death of one of the miners who had been rescued from the mine. The passage is so badly blocked, that it will be impossible for many days to get an entrance. Meanwhile men now alive may starve.

After experiencing all the terrors of the mine imprisonment and the joy of being brought to the surface alive, David Holofeh, one of the twenty survivors rescued Saturday, died today of general exhaustion.

Cherry, Ill., Nov. 23.—Cherry rested for a brief period early today before beginning the task of rescuing the miners who were trapped in the mine. The rescue work is being carried on by the bodies from the 500 foot level of the St. Paul mine.

At midnight miners had forced their way into the third vein preparing the way for a rush of their comrades to the same vein today. They declared the air in the vein stagnant but capable of sustaining life.

Robert McFadden and Barney Dougherty, two youths, had scarcely emerged from the shaft, when tidings were spread that the fire in the second vein had broken out anew. Rescue work was halted while

Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Lingley, 25 Victoria street, are the guests of their friends at the wedding of their daughter, Roberta A., who died this morning. The ceremony will be at Westfield on Wednesday morning.

The most extraordinary case of dress material, suitings and coats is now taking place at A. J. Dykeman & Co. The entire lot is marked one price and some of the goods at this price are only one-quarter of the regular price.

John B. Belding and bride arrived today from Northfield, Mass., after a tour of America. They are the guests of their sister, Mrs. F. W. Edlister, Haymarket square. Mr. and Mrs. Belding are in the city for a few days before leaving for their home in Sicamous, British Columbia.

Rev. J. Austin Huntley, of Brooklyn, N. Y., will probably supply the pulpit in the German street Baptist church on Sunday next. He is pastor of a large church in Brooklyn. It may be that his name will come before the trustees in connection with the pastorate.

Mr. and Mrs. William Meehan of Model Farm, celebrated their 35th wedding anniversary at their home there last evening. About 100 gathered at the house for the occasion, a very pleasant party was given. Mr. Meehan, who is an I. C. R. seafarer, has lived the greater part of his life at Model Farm.

In St. Luke's church last night in connection with the 14th anniversary celebration, a story, called in the decoration of the tables was donated by R. P. Hamm, of Hann Bros, and was remarked to be the finest specimen of its kind seen in many years. It was so large that 140 candles were placed upon it for lighting purposes.

The annual concert of the St. John High School will be held in the assembly hall on Friday evening next. The programme will be given by local talent and a most enjoyable entertainment is promised. Among those contributing to the programme will be Miss Genevieve Head who will make her first appearance; John A. Kelly, Miss Travers, Mrs. Scovill and Robert Seely.

The jury empaneled by Coroner Berryman to inquire into the death of Miss Sarah Taylor, who died in the hospital on Sunday from burns, received some time ago, last evening viewed the body, and an adjournment was made until Monday, December 6. The jury composed of S. T. Golding, (foreman), W. V. Hatfield, Bartholomew Holt, H. M. Hampton, Edward Watson, Sidney Gies and John Fitzgerald. Constable F. J. McBratney is in attendance.

Dr. Eliza Ritchie is one of the most talented ladies in Halifax, and her lecture tomorrow evening under the auspices of the St. John Art Club should prove interesting to all who wish to learn something of the subject. It is "Four Italian Paintings of the Renaissance." The lecture will be given in the large room adjoining the studio, 140 Union street.

No word has yet been received of Herbert W. Read, the young civil engineer, who left Montreal on Nov. 3 to go to his home in Bathurst. A telephone message from Bathurst this morning stated that he was not believed there and that he was traveling on a C. P. R. pass, as he had never been known to travel that way, and had no claim in any way to warrant his expecting a pass.

The home of Mrs. Joseph Cosman, Marsh road, was the scene of a pleasant event last evening, when about twenty-five of her friends surprised her and presented her with a party lamp on the occasion of her birthday. The presentation was made by Mr. Graham and Mr. McKeay, and Mrs. Sullivan contributed to the entertainment. Supper was served about midnight. The gathering dispersed with the singing of the national anthem.
