AND BY THE CONJOINT EXAMINING BOARDS IN LONDON AND EDINBURGH.

The Winter Session of 1888-9 will begin on Monday, the 1st day of October next, and will continue for six months. The opening lecture of the course will be delivered at 4 o'clock p.m., on that day, in the large Lecture Theatre of the College. The regular work of the College begins on the following day. It is hoped that, in view of their own interests, students will, as far as practicable, be present at the opening lecture, so as to lose none of the early teaching in the several branches.

The Faculty record with pleasure the constantly increasing prosperity of the Medical College; the past session having been the most successful in its history.

From its inception "STABILITY AND EFFICIENCY, with PRACTICAL TEACHING IN EVERY BRANCH," has been the motto and the basis on which this College has been, and will continue to be, conducted. No thing injures medical institutions more than the making of organic changes, which tend to weaken and paralyze the energies of teachers — to bewilder students, and to shake public confidence. Happily without
