

SPLENDID PROGRAM BY HIGH ALUMNAE

Evening With Chaucer is Much Enjoyed—Those Taking Part

The High School Alumnae at its meeting in the Natural History Society rooms last night greatly enjoyed a very interesting program on Chaucer that had been prepared by Miss Florence Cummings. Miss Dorothy Sinclair, president, was in the chair and the meeting was well attended. Miss Jessie Jamieson gave an excellent paper on the life of Chaucer and Miss Cummings gave a very fine sketch of the Canterbury Tales.

Miss Isabel Jamieson read some portions from the Tales and after Miss Cummings had read a modern version of the prologue to Canterbury Tales Miss Molly Lingley read the prologue in the original which sounded very little like the English language of today.

Miss Cummings then gave a very interesting account of the town of Canterbury which she had visited recently. She also showed a number of very fine photographs of Canterbury and its spots of historic interest.

TEA SUCCESSFUL

Ladies' Association of Church of England Institute Conduct Event

The Ladies' Association of the Church of England Institute held their annual tea and sale of home cooking yesterday afternoon, and in spite of the inclemency of the weather the affair was an unqualified success. Mrs. Norman N. Gregory was general convenor. The tea room presented a cosy appearance with a profusion of spring flowers for decoration. The tea table, which was presided over by Mrs. Russell Sturdee and Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong, was artistically arranged with a large urn in the center, containing pink tulips, daffodils and pussy willows. Silver candlesticks with pink and yellow tapers added much to the charming effect. Tea was served at small tables which were grouped about the serving table and each had daffodils and pussy willows for a central decoration. The patrons were received by Mrs. W. I. Fenton, president, and Mrs. James McAvity. Mrs. G. D. Peat and Mrs. J. Lee Day replenished, and assisting with the delicious refreshments were Mrs. Rawlings, Miss Elizabeth Armstrong, Miss Margaret Tilley, Miss Elizabeth Stead, Miss Lois Lord, Miss Eleanor Day, Miss Eleanor Angus, Miss Elise Gilbert, Miss E. Colston, Miss Dorothy Rankin and Miss Clement Penton. The sandwich committee was made up of the following:

PHONE PEOPLE HAVE A 'FRIENDS' NIGHT'

Service First Club Enjoys Pleasing Affair in Company's Hall

"Friends' Night" was duly observed at the very delightful dance given by the Service First Club of the New Brunswick Telephone Company employees in the company's hall, Chipman Hill, last night and a company of about 160 spent a very pleasant evening in dancing and social enjoyment. A three-piece orchestra furnished an excellent dance program and there were many very attractive novelties to add to the evening's gaiety. Delicious refreshments were served. All of the arrangements for the entertainment were admirably made and everybody had a good time.

British Domestic Coming To Moncton

Special to The Times-Star: MONCTON, April 9.—Adj. Parsons of the Salvation Army Boys' Home, Bydes street, in conversation with a Times-Star representative last night said that a party of nine domestics would arrive at Halifax on Sunday. He added that there were a large number of applications on hand for domestic help and that all would be placed.

Program for Y. W. C. A. Shows Interesting Indian Facts

Stories, Scenes, Tableaux and Music All Combine in Finely Presented Entertainment in Aid of Association's Funds—Dr. Macintosh Gives Address

A GRAPHIC and admirably presented program of stories, scenes, tableaux and music combined with the interesting narration of facts concerning the Indians of this country was given before a delighted audience in the Y. W. C. A. hall in King street east last night in aid of the association funds. Dr. William Macintosh, curator of the Natural History Society museum, and noted authority in Indian lore, had supervised the staging of the scenes and tableaux and the compiling of the program, and he gave the explanatory addresses. Gramophone records gave the Indian music exactly. The committee of the Y. W. C. A. consisted of Mrs. Clinton Brown, convenor, Mrs. L. DeV. Chipman, Mrs. Donaldson Hunt, Mrs. J. Herbert Crockett, Mrs. W. C. Cross, Mrs. George Polley and Mrs. T. H. Somerville. The stage directors were Miss E. Poore and Miss Edna Hunt. The sale of candy during the evening was in charge of Mrs. Donaldson Hunt.

THOSE IN PROGRAM

Those who took part in the program besides Dr. Macintosh were the Misses Myra Fowler, Greta Fowler, Edna Sage, Helen Belding, Ethel Thompson, Mary Harrison, Helen Frith, Mary Gray, Lucy Robichaud, Nellie Robichaud, Melidaly, Alice Chisholm, Dorothy Mc-
