SPRINGHILL HERE FOR SEMI-FINALS THIS WEEK END OR NEXT

LLOYD STIRLING SETS A RECORD WITH NO-HIT, ONE-RUN CONTEST AS WATERWORKS WIN 1925 TITLE

Young Local Boy Makes Baseball History as Bathurst Goes Down to 14 to 1 Defeat. Corrigan's Hitting Was a Feature

SPRINGHILL, 1925 Nova Scotia pennant winners, will clash with the Saint John Watermen, New Brunswick title holders, in a five-game series for the semi-finals of the Maritime championship, opening here either Friday of this week or next. A home-and-home series of two games each will be played, and if the locals win the toss, the Nova Scotia winners will play here on Friday night and Saturday afternoon, with the remaining games in Springhill next week-end. Should the Watermen lose the toss, the order will be reversed. N. C. Ralston, president of the N. S. Amateur Baseball Association, was in the city Saturday and arrangements for the games are being completed with him and Secretary Marshall today by W. E. Stirling, N. B. vice-president of the M. P. B. Definite word is expected any time.

SPLENDID PERFORMANCE.
Baffling course, deceptive drops and a fast straight one that carried enough smoke to warrant calling out the fire department, carried Lloyd Stirling to a no-hit performance in the first game of the series. The 1925 provincial champion and the right to meet Nova Scotia in the Maritime semi-finals, with one man safely away in the ninth and the crowd applauding Stirling for his brilliant performance throughout the game, the lifelong ambition of every twister seemed in a fair way to be coming. The youngster's way, but Fate in the person of Lawlor, one of the classicists shortstops seen here in many a day, stepped in and robbed the local boy of a perfect pitching performance, and enabled Bathurst to escape a well-deserved coat of whitewash. From the spectators' viewpoint, it was a dull game to watch, but all no-hit games are dull. It was also a poor exhibition of championship ball, the locals having no less than six errors, Stirling and Johnny Corrigan driving the home runs. Corrigan's great work at the bat, in which he got four hits right in a row, was a big feature. Bathurst, the much-touted Bathurst, was driven from the mound in the fifth by a full-lunge hit.

DETAILS OF PLAY.
Opening the game, McKenna drove a long foul fly that Murray Stirling gathered in after a great run. Cripps' hot grounder was handled in big league style by Doherty. Lawlor walked, but Jamieson grounded out. The locals drew first blood in their half, when Gorman had been retired, Finnegan unassisted, Sparks drove out a long double. He stole third while Corrigan was fanning. Manager Snodgrass, in the game for

First School Rugby Game Is Scheduled Here For Oct. 10

Along The Sport Trail

By JOHN J. DUNLOP.

THE EXPECTED happened as far as results went on Saturday on the East End grounds but what the several thousands did not plan on seeing was a no-hit game, the first of the season in senior circles and one of these rare ones in the history of baseball here. Ray Hanson has a no-hit, no-run game to his credit and Freddie Dicks last year pitched a no-hit, no-run game against the Clippers. But a no-hit game with a provincial championship at stake never has been done before and young Lloyd Stirling deserves all the fine bouquets being handed him. As a pitching prospect of considerable promise, this boy is one of the best in years. This is the first year he has stacked up against senior company and he chased both "Bunker" Murphy and "Tack" Dalton hard for the pitching honors. In the crucial series against the Baptists, Stirling really showed he was no flash in the pan by turning in two important victories inside a few days. Saint John will watch his work closely in the series with Springhill as much will depend on him.

T. E. W., "Skating Fan." In reply to your query, would say that the city championship skating races were not held last winter under the auspices of the Saint John A. S. A. They were called off early in March.

A RATHER gloomy view on amateur sport is taken by the Hamilton Herald recently, its opinions being prompted by Ex-President Findlay's remarks at the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union recently. The Herald says: "It has been recognized for a long time that amateur athletics in Canada have retrograded to certain of our foremost athletics in possession of amateur cards have retained their 'simon-pure' status only because they have found it more profitable than to turn professional. There is no denying the drastic regulations of the Amateur Union in Canada have invited decent places of residence annually. The Herald favors the suggestion of Mr. Findlay to make the punishment meet the crime."

YOU'D HAVE to dig down several years to find amateur teams battling for the Maritime title as late as this. Baseball has boomed wonderfully this year.

WE BELIEVE the time now is ripe for the formation of a New Brunswick Amateur Baseball Association similar to the governing body in Nova Scotia. Ever since the provincial championship was decided in 1923, there has been a steady but unimpressive growth of the game throughout the province, this year there being no fewer than five senior leagues in operation. Only by placing this game on an sound a footing as is enjoyed by hockey can we expect greater development. There is plenty of sentiment in favor of such a body and all that is needed is to put it over for amateur officials to take the lead. Such a move would be in the right direction and would undoubtedly receive much support from all parts of the province.

ALBION WINS OWN GAME BY TIMELY DOUBLE

Springhill en Fete Saturday Over Winning Title

Special to The Times-Star
SPRINGHILL, N. S., Sept. 21.—Springhill was en fete Saturday at its returning victorious ball team. Hundreds of people and all available automobiles were at the station to welcome them home. A parade headed by the Citizens' Band proceeded to upper Main street, where they were officially welcomed by Mayor A. B. Wilson.

Speeches were made by others, including H. J. Logan, M. P. for Cumberland, and Jim (Hank) O'Rourke, captain of the ball team. Great credit is due Manager Conway for the way he guided his team to victory under great handicaps by the long strike and the loss of five valuable players immediately preceding the play-off series.

Since 1921, when Springhill first won the Nova Scotia title, they have been in the finals every year. In 1922, after Yarmouth had beaten them one and one in the first two games, they had won two more to win the title. In 1923, they had won two more to win the title. In 1924, they had won two more to win the title. In 1925, they had won two more to win the title.

Springhill scored two in the first and one in the sixth, Westville getting one in the first and two in the sixth. In the lucky seventh, with Burden and O'Rourke on the sacks, Albion won his own game by a long double over the Westville left fielder's head, ending the scoring.

The official score and summary follows:
Springhill—A. B. R. H. P. O. A. E.
Burden, 1f, 3b, 4, 1, 1, 2, 0, 0.
Gallagher, 1f, 3b, 4, 1, 1, 1, 0, 0.
