

Social Notes of Interest

Mr. C. W. Sweet, who was here with Mrs. Sweet from London, Ont., was the occasion for a merry stag party this week when Mr. Harold O. Clark was host for several gentlemen friends at his residence, Orange street. Mrs. Sweet was guest of honor at several small parties with her intimate friends. The hostesses were Mrs. Kenneth I. Campbell, Mrs. Joseph Key and Mrs. Thomas Guy. Mr. Sweet has gone to New York and Mrs. Sweet will leave on Monday, accompanied by her little daughter, Marion, to join Mr. Sweet who will have returned to their home.

The Riverside Golf and Country Club was very gay yesterday, when the Westfield ladies played against the ladies of the Riverside club, the latter winning by a sweeping score. The visitors were entertained at luncheon by their hostesses and later at the tea hour, when several members who did not play were present. Mrs. J. Pope Barnes presided over the tea and was assisted in serving by Mrs. W. H. Shaw and Miss Hilda Shaw. Marigolds and bachelor buttons made a bright decoration in the tea room and for the centres of the several tables at luncheon. Phlox and stocks centred the serving table at the tea hour. The ladies from Westfield who were present were Mrs. David Likely, Miss Christine Crawford, Mrs. H. E. Girvan, Miss Jessie Macdonald, Miss Huiote Dykeman, Mrs. H. L. Abramson, Mrs. Ernest Bowman, Mrs. Kenneth Creighton, Miss Edythe Mitchell, Miss Dorothy Robson, Mrs. A. C. Currie, Mrs. Norman Sanction, Mrs. W. D. Foster, Mrs. Frank Macdonald and Mrs. G. Rex Ginter. The Riverside players were Miss Audrey McLeod, Miss Frances Stetson, Mrs. Campbell Mackay, Miss Helen Sidney Smith, Miss Barbara Jack, Miss Joan Foster, Miss Annette Holly, Mrs. H. Russell, Mrs. Ralph Fowler, Mrs. Fred Mortimer, Miss Elspeth MacLaren, Mrs. A. K. Harvie, Mrs. Stanley B. Smith, Mrs. George Scarborough and Mrs. George W. Noble. Others who played bridge in the afternoon and enjoyed the tea hour were Mrs. Walter E. Foster, Mrs. George K. McLeod, Mrs. J. Busby, Mrs. Hazen Hansard, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones, Mrs. H. C. Schofield, Mrs. R. P. Cowan, Mrs. H. L. Spangler and several private parties. Mrs. James H. Doody, having visitors, took them out to the clubhouse for luncheon, and remained for tea.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. O'Brien and Mrs. F. K. Smith, of Winthrop, Mass., who have been at the Royal Hotel this week, will leave by the Boston boat this evening for their home. The ladies, who were formerly the Misses Gleason, have been enjoying the removal of old associations. Mr. O'Brien is a successful real estate broker in East Boston.

Miss Norah Carter, R. N., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Carter, Barnesville, who has been here from New York for her vacation, will return home on Monday. Miss Carter has spent much time with her uncle, Mr. E. S. Carter, and Mrs. Carter at their pretty home at Fair Vale.

Miss R. Goldman, of Montreal, who is at the Royal Hotel, entertained yesterday at luncheon for her friends, Mrs. C. H. Peters, Mrs. Frank Godsoe and Mrs. Fred Godsoe. In the afternoon they went to tea at the Riverside Golf and Country Club, where Miss Goldman was the guest of Mrs. Peters and later at dinner at the Peters' residence, Leinster street. They spent the evening at the exhibition, which greatly pleased their guest of honor.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce S. Robb and family will leave today for Halifax after a pleasant vacation spent in St. John and vicinity with Mrs. Robb's relatives.

Mr. Reginald Lingley, who won his B. A. last year at Acadia University, will leave Sept. 19 for Cambridge, Mass., to attend Harvard University. Mr. Lingley will take a course in medicine and surgery. He is the grandson

N. B. NURSES WILL MEET NEXT WEEK IN ST. JOHN

The New Brunswick Graduate Nurses' Association meets in annual convention in St. John on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, and will hold its meetings at the Health Centre. A programme of much interest, touching upon subjects of special importance to the profession has been prepared, and the local members will extend hospitality to the visiting delegates at a dinner and a luncheon.

On Tuesday afternoon Mayor Potts will give the address of welcome, and the two professional addresses will be given by Hon. Dr. W. F. Roberts, Minister of Health, who will speak on public health and other matters, and Dr. H. A. Farris, superintendent of the St. John County Hospital, who will speak on tuberculosis.

On Wednesday there will be morning and afternoon business sessions. In the morning Dr. W. E. Rowley will address the meeting on child welfare, and Miss H. Melkjohn, director of public health nursing, will speak on some new phases of public health work. On Wednesday afternoon it is hoped to have Miss Jean Brown, president of the Canadian Nurses' Association and director of the Junior Red Cross in Canada, give an address, but no definite word has been received as to whether Miss Brown will be able to be in St. John at that time.

On Wednesday afternoon the chief speaker so far arranged for is Miss R. E. Hamilton, organizer of home nursing classes for the Red Cross Society in Canada. At that meeting also Miss Mabel McMullin, of St. Stephen, will lead a discussion on private duty nursing, which is one of the most important of the discussions that will take place during the convention.

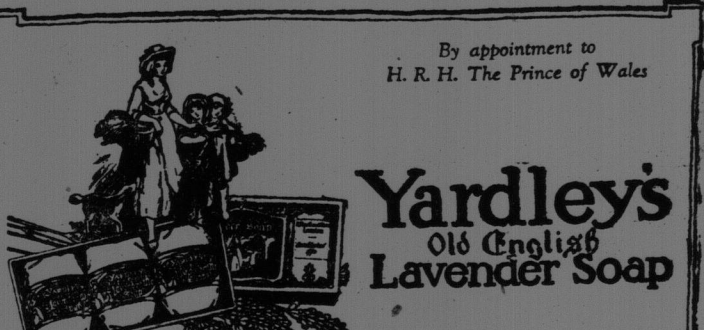

Expected to Be Representative.

It is expected that all parts of the province will be represented in the attendance at the meeting, but the demands of their profession make it impossible for nurses to give any notification of attendance any great length of time before hand.

Miss Margaret Murdoch, superintendent of nurses at the General Public Hospital, St. John, is the president of the provincial association, and will preside at the convention. The other officers are: First vice-president, Miss E. Mitchell, matron of the General Public Hospital; second vice-president, Miss A. Brancome, superintendent of nurses of the Chipman Hospital, St. Stephen, and secretary-treasurer, Miss Maud Retallick, St. John. The additional members of the executive are as follows: St. John, Miss Sarah Brophy and Miss Melkjohn; St. Stephen, Miss Maud McMullin; Fredericton, Miss Victoria Winslow and Mrs. C. D. Richards; Moncton, Mrs. L. D. Wadman and Miss A. J. McMaster; Woodstock, Miss Bessie Budd; Newcastle, Miss Lena Campbell; Campbellton, Miss Mary F. Bliss and Sister Carol.

GIVES UP POST IN CHILDREN'S WORK

Miss Alice M. Harrison, B. A., daughter of the late Rev. Dr. William Harrison and Mrs. Harrison, of Moncton, who had been the efficient children's work secretary of the Maritime Religious Education Council, has resigned from this position and will take up her musical profession again in Moncton, where she and her mother reside. In the course of her work, which took Miss Harrison to all parts of the Maritime Provinces, many kind friends were said of her and may be summarized.

Bright Walls—Sunny Temperament

It is a fact that your disposition is very often a reflection of the appearance of your home. Dull surroundings make dull mentalities—dingy walls give you a dingy outlook on life. There's laughter in colours—contentment in their harmonious blending—a song in a pleasing pattern. Make your walls bright and attractive, and you yourself will be happier, healthier and more efficient. Let wallpaper make your home cheerful and gay. You will find in the Staunton line of wallpapers, designs and colour effects that will make your home a house of eternal gladness. Personally chosen in the studios of the great centres of the world, London, Paris and New York, these designs are the last word in decorative art. The Semi-Trimmed feature eliminates muss and trouble and ensures a quick, economical job.
