New York, Jan. 27.—Would you be beautiful? Let Mother Nature make you so, is the motto of modern maidens. Not just the old standbys of the beauty-specialist, brisk two-mile walks, sleeping with your windows open, five minutes of setting-up exercises before breakfast, and so on. It's the real thing, this time—sitting right down on Mother Nature's knee and listening to her beauty secrets.

TO CONSOLIDATE BANKS. Joint Control Is Suggested by Finance of Czechoslovakia.

Prague, Czechoslovakia, Jan. 27.—The year 1922 has been notable in the development of banking in Czechoslovakia. Efforts have been made, and successfully, to consolidate the banks under a system of joint control by which it will be possible by mutual agreement to limit the field of activities, thus cutting out waste and duplication of effort and bringing about greater business prosperity for all the institutions concerned.

FULTON AFTER WILLARD. Manager of the Minnesota Boatswain's Proposal to Commission.

New York, Jan. 27.—Jimmy Johnston, new manager of Fred Fulton, the Minnesota heavyweight, fired his first gun yesterday in the attempt to secure a match for Fulton against Jess Willard, former world's heavyweight champion. ## TAKE YOUNG GIRLS IN WET DANCE RAID

Released on Arrival of Parents—Seven Women Committed for Disorderly Conduct—Two Princeton Boys Held.

Twenty patrons, the proprietor and two spectators in Cushman's restaurant, 160 West Fourth street, in the heart of Greenwich Village, were arrested in a raid on the place this week by detectives on the staff of Inspector Thomas Underhill. Later in the day the defendants were arraigned in Jefferson Market Court.

Detectives Albert Adelman, James Connors and John Pooler entered the cabaret about ten o'clock Saturday night. They sat in the place quietly for a couple of hours making observations. Shortly after midnight, upon the arrival of Inspector Underhill and other members of his staff, those who had been seen drinking or otherwise violating the law were placed under arrest. The prisoners included two Princeton students, several high school girls and a student who gave his address as Morristown School, Morristown, N. J.

Eleven girls between the ages of sixteen and eighteen years found in the place were detained at the Charles Street Station pending the arrival of their parents. The parents, when they arrived, said they had no idea where their daughters had been. Some of the mothers said that their daughters had remarked before leaving home that they were going out for a walk. These youngsters were taken home by their parents.

The raid was made as a result of complaints from persons in the neighborhood that the night gaitery of the place was a nuisance. Cushman has a dance hall license. On Jan. 17, Chief Magistrate William McAdoo issued a warrant for the arrest of Cushman and his associates.

Seventy-two men and sixteen women in the place at the time of the raid were allowed to go.

Charges Against Prisoners.
Those arrested were—
David Howell, 609 West 114th street; Charles Benton, 19 years old, and John Anderson, 20 years old, both of 44 Campbell Hill, Princeton, N. J., and Edward Belding, 18 years old, a student of Morristown School, Morristown, N. J., charged with violation of the Mullan-Gage law in possessing liquor; Jack Worrell, 19 years old, a cashier, of 32 Court street, Brooklyn, charged with intoxication; Emil Lefkowitz, 20 years old, an engineer, 168 East Eighty-sixth street, disordered conduct and refusing to leave; Gardner Winkle, 18 years old, 718 East Ninth street, a broker, refusing to leave premises, using loud and abusive language; Herbert Eaton, 22 years old, a clerk, 35 Hillside avenue, Montclair, N. J.; Albert Ruckel, 18 years old, a student of 135 Avenue Poggenberg, 21 years old, of 86 Sixth avenue, disordered conduct; Marvin Lathrop, 21 years old, 19 Chambers street, and his wife, Violet, 21 years old, arrested at the entrance to the place.

Howell, Belding, Anderson and Benton, charged with violating the Mullan-Gage law, were held for the grand jury, under $200 bail each. Worrell and Winkle were given suspended sentences; Ruckel, Eaton, Lefkowitz and Lathrop were each fined $10, and Lathrop and his wife were discharged.

Cushman pleaded not guilty to charges of maintaining a public nuisance and impeding the moral of the community, and for examination, Jan. 31, being fixed at $500 in each case.

Arrest Probationary Policemen.
Adolph A. Schwartz, 30 years old, of 255 West 127th street, a probationary policeman, arrested yesterday and locked up in the Morrisania Police Station on a charge of intoxication and attempted assault. Louis Greco, proprietor of a cigar stand at 648 Broadway, the Bronx, made the complaint, William Warburg of Roslyn, L. I. who was with Schwartz at the time, was arrested on a charge of possessing burglar tools. Warburg, the police said, has served time in the State prison.

Magistrate Peter A. Hatting in Morrisania Court found Schwartz guilty of disorderly conduct and held him without bail for further investigation Wednesday. Warburg was held in $2,000 bail for examination tomorrow.

Charged with operating a 60-gallon still, John Bonabanza, 42 years old, of 246 East Third street, was held in $1,000 bail for examination in Special Sessions when arraigned before Magistrate Harry Goodman in Essex Market Court yesterday.

Joseph Vazac of 267 Avenue A was discharged yesterday in Essex Market Court when arraigned on a charge of violating the Mullan-Gage law. He conducted a saloon at 184 East Third street. Detective Aloysius Seigler testified that he found five gallons of wine and a like amount of whiskey in an apartment over the saloon. He admitted he didn't know who owned the apartment, and the defendant was freed.

William Dawson of 1,172 Linden street, Ridgewood, Queens, was arrested at Freeport, L. I., early yesterday morning while seated in a seven-passenger automobile, which, according to the police, contained sixty bottles of whiskey. In the back seat was an arrangement by which the liquor could be dropped through the bottom of the car into the road, but the police said that Dawson did not get a chance to drop it. He waived examination before Police Justice Alvin Johnson, who held him in $1,000 bail for the Grand Jury on a charge of violating the Mullan-Gage law.

KAISER'S MARRIAGE REPORTED UNHAPPY

Living in One Part of Castle at Doorn While His Wife and Her Children Live in Another Section, Says Correspondent—Another Writer Denies Report.

(Canadian Press Despatch.)
London, Jan. 26.—The correspondent of the Yorkshire Evening News telegraphing to his paper from Doorn, says:

"In spite of elaborate efforts to hide the truth, I have discovered that the second marriage of the former German Emperor has been a complete failure, and that at the present moment he is living in one part of the castle, while his wife and her children are in another. I am told that a very few weeks sufficed to bring about the breakdown."

"Those who are near the former Kaiser have been struck by the grave alteration not only in his mood, but in his character. He is said to have been affected very unfavorably by an operation he underwent before his second marriage. His own children have not forgiven him for his second marriage, and his step-children avoid him."

"His means are reduced and his private expenditure strictly limited. He is living today under most unhappy family conditions. He can command neither service, affection nor companionship and the breakdown in his domestic arrangements is painfully apparent to the very few who visit him."

Reuter's Doorn correspondent, however, denies that there has been any difference between Wilhelm and his bride and adds that they were seen together this morning when the former Kaiser welcomed his brother, Prince Henry, who motored to Doorn from Kiel.

The former Crown Prince also has arrived in Doorn to be present during the observance tomorrow of his father's sixty-fourth birthday.

CHURCH WOMEN BAND TO REFORM BOOTLEGGERS
Boston, Jan. 27.—A group of Cambridge churchwomen have organized for the purpose of making friends with bootleggers. Each woman is to have a bootlegger of her own.

Mrs. William Tilton is the originator of the idea and she outlined the plan at the home of Miss Cordelia Ward, on Prospect street, Cambridge.

Of course, it is not to be taken that just because the churchwomen are going to have bootleggers of their own they are going to patronize them. The idea is just the reverse; they are going to "unrationalize" him. Mrs. Tilton thinks that if they do this they will lead him away from his ways.

Many mothers of the bootleggers have plainly told some of the women of Cambridge that they are distressed at this work of the boys are doing and believe that it would be a great help if social workers organize to meet it.
