HIGHLY ENTERTAINING PROGRAMME
MAKES BIG HIT AT OPERA HOUSE

ZANITA DANCING VIOLINIST

The expression of opinion heard from the throngs that witnessed the new vaudeville performance in the Opera House last evening was convincing evidence that they thoroughly enjoyed the various acts. The programme was one of real merit and the participants of the different offerings were the recipients of hearty and prolonged applause. It would be hard to pick out the most popular act, but judging from the applause, the "Four Dancing Demons" made the biggest hit. Pedrina's famous baboon and monkeys also made a favorable impression, while Leonard and Whitney in their comedy skit came third. The episode of the popular motion picture serial, "The Black Secret," was exceptionally good and continues to hold interest. It is without doubt one of the best ever shown on a local screen. Following this, Zanita appeared and rendered a number of selections on a violin. She is a very good player and dancer and received considerable applause. Rand and Gould followed. One of the members is a real good singer and his partner, who essayed the role of a tramp, created considerable amusement. Their efforts were well received. Leonard and Whitney then presented their comedy skit entitled "Duffy's Rise." The plot was evidently taken from the popular cartoon series of "Bringing Up Father." It is full of good, wholesome humor and was one of the hits. Both gave clever interpretations and were rewarded by hearty applause. The "Four Dancing Demons" entertained with a number of songs and dances. They are without doubt the cleverest quartette of dancers that ever appeared in this city and their feat evoked prolonged applause. The male members have some of the best steps and eccentric dances ever seen here, and they lived up to their reputation of being the best dancing team at present in vaudeville. Pedrina's famous baboon and monkey actors concluded the programme. They present a comedy playlet entitled "Fun on a Battleship," and it is highly interesting and novel. Pedrina and his baboon give a wonderful performance and the monkeys keep the audience amused with their antics. The act is entirely different from anything seen at the Opera House and is bound to make a big hit. The programme on the whole is one of real merit and will undoubtedly attract capacity houses tonight and tomorrow.

London, Feb. 3.—Debt slavery, in which children are taken in pledge for what their parents owe, still exists in Trengganu, one of the Unfederated Malay States under British protection, but is to be abolished, according to J. ### THE PRINCE OF WALES REMEMBERS WINDSOR.

London, Feb. 4.—(By Canadian Press)—The Prince of Wales when receiving the freedom of the city of Windsor yesterday said it was not long ago since he was being cordially welcomed at another British city of Windsor which lay on the border of Canada and the United States. His wisest suggestion that the mayor send a message to that other Windsor from that gathering and include it in his best wishes to the mayor and people of Windsor, Ont., of whose hospitality he has happy memories.
A telegram was afterwards sent, as follows: "The Prince of Wales is now lunching in the town hall of Windsor, England, after having received the freedom of the borough. The mayor of Windsor sends greetings to the mayor and people of the city of Windsor, Ont., to which His Majesty's Highness heartily joins in grateful remembrance of their kindness and hospitality to him."

That American Invasion.
Copenhagen, Feb. 4.—William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson of the American Anti-Saloon League and the Rev. David Oestlund yesterday inaugurated a prohibition campaign at a public meeting here. They met with a mixed reception but the hostile element preponderated and the heckling received by the speakers was of a severe nature. In an editorial yesterday dealing with the campaign, the National Tidende says that the meeting was by no means "a successful start for the American agitation." The Kobenhavn declares the agitation has been started "for American money" and asks "for what purpose?"
