Sidelights On Sport

Citizens in general are looking forward with interest to the first rowing races, which are to be held on August 14.

The West Side Improvement League deserves a lot of credit for the revival of sport in St. John this year. As a result of their efforts grounds were secured for the St. John baseball league and in addition members started in to arouse interest in aquatic sports.

The races at the swimming scows on Saturday attracted a large gathering of people. The sports were keenly contested and proved interesting, Jack Redfern, swimming instructors deserves eredit for his untring efforts: It might be a good suggestion to have a meet between patrons of the West Side swiming scows, under Mark Burns, and those who attend at Kennedy street. SCHOOL CHILDREN,

ATTENTION, PLEASE!

THOSE WHO HAVE BEEN INSTRUCTED

IN SINGING BY MISS ROBINSON

THE MAYOR'S EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENT are pleased to accept the offer of Dr. A. F. Emery, chairman of the Board of School Trustees and also of Dr. H. S. Bridges, superintendent of Schools, to have a large choir of public school children sing welcoming numbers to His Royal Highness the Prince of Wales upon his arrival on this side of the ocean Aug. 15. The event will be an historic one and an extraordinary occasion for all who participate. So, all children who have been trained by Miss Robinson, vocal instructress in the schools, are asked to assemble in the High School auditorium Tuesday morning next at 10 o'clock for organization and rehearsal. Everything will be fully explained at that gathering. Children living in suburban localties for the holidays are asked to come in if at all possible. The whole city is preparing for the event with wonderful enthusiasm and it is very desirous that our school children be honored with a conspicious part in the proceedings.
