

WILLING TO LEAVE MATTER OF BONUS TO COMMISSION

G. W. V. A. Provincial Secretary Points Out Reasons For Demands on Dominion Government.

The provincial secretary of the G. W. V. A., stated last evening, in relation to the decision of Sir Robert Borden, with reference to the granting of a commission to meet with a committee of the Veterans, that it seemed to the general opinion of the returned men throughout the province that the request submitted to the government was not unreasonable as the men were asking for a commission to investigate the re-establishment of returned soldiers and were not asking for any bonus or grant unless the said commission saw fit to grant it. He said that the returned men only wanted a square deal and did not wish to saddle the country with an enormous debt, but merely asked that the existing conditions in relation to aliens filling the positions which should go to returned men and the necessary hardships resulting from this state of affairs, should be looked into.

He also stated that although these conditions did not exist to any great extent in New Brunswick the returned men of this province were in sympathy with their brothers of the western provinces and wished to place on record their sentiments in regard to the premier's decision.

He said that the members of the association were perfectly willing to leave the matter of further gratuity or a bonus to the commission and would abide by their decision.

SAYS DISPENSARY COULD ACCOMPLISH A GREATER WORK

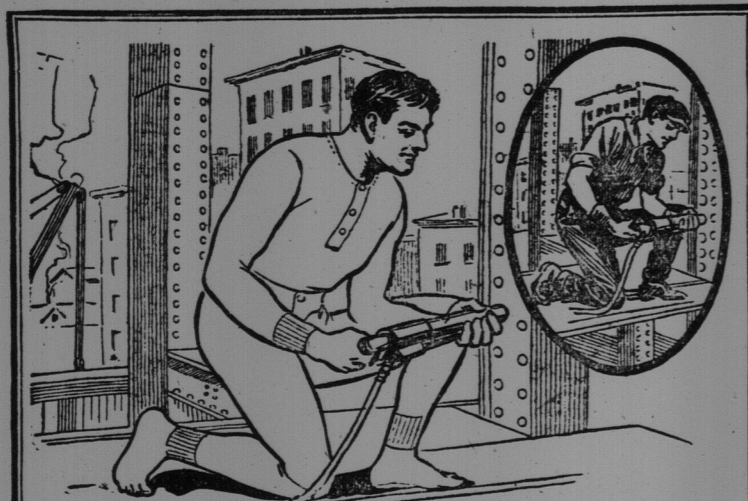

The first meeting of the association for the prevention of tuberculosis since June was held yesterday afternoon at the dispensary with the president, J. A. Likely, in the chair. Reports were submitted by the nurse, Miss Brophy, and by Dr. H. I. Farris and Dr. A. E. Logie. Doctor Farris had examined thirteen cases in July and eight in August. He expressed the opinion that the dispensary was not being used as it should be and said that many more patients should be receiving treatment at it. Doctor Logie reported examining twenty-four cases in June, seventeen in July and eight in August. He considered it an encouraging fact that more cases had been dealt with last spring than ever before.

Dr. Mabel Hanington gave an account of her work as medical inspector of the city schools that was very gratifying. She had under supervision approximately 8,000 children. With hearty thanks two gifts of money were acknowledged. The first from an anonymous friend was for the amount of $25 and was handed in by Dr. A. P. McAvaney. It was added to the milk and egg fund. The second was for the amount of $50 and was from the St. John Ambulance Brigade.

It was decided on motion to procure as many of the pamphlets, "What You Should Know About Tuberculosis" as possible, and have them distributed in the schools.

Doctor Farris was appointed convener of the publicity committee and Mrs. O'Brien was appointed visitor for the month.

ERECTION OF NURSES' HOME IS POSTPONED

Supplementary Report Shows Total Cost Of $161,401 And County Council Balks—County Housing Commission Appointed

The erection of the proposed Nurses' Home will not likely be proceeded with until next year. At a special meeting of the county council yesterday, called for the purpose of considering the Lancaster housing scheme and the Nurses' Home proposition, Councillor Bullock moved that the latter be given a three months' hold. The motion carried with the majority of the city commissioners voting for the resolution. A subsequent amendment by Councillor Hayes that the building be proceeded with following the elimination of certain features which would reduce the cost was defeated. The three months' setback to the proposal came after the hospital commission submitted a report in which it was stated that new tenders had been called for and the total expenditure now amounted to $161,401, an increase of almost $10,000 over the amount appropriated at the last meeting a week ago.

Miles F. Agar addressed the council on behalf of the hospital and despite his assurance that the building could be erected for the stated cost of $151,000, the council turned the proposition down.

Warden Golding presided with the following present: Councillors Hayes, Thornton, Fisher, Bullock, Jones, O'Brien, Bryant, Shillington, Thompson, Bowland, Stedelson, Carson and Howard. By motion the council went into committee to take up the housing problem in Lancaster. Councillor O'Brien submitted a resolution putting into effect a previous one adopted at the July meeting of the council. He moved that the following be appointed members of the housing commission in Lancaster: Alexander Wilson, St. John, Harold Mayes, Lancaster, Dagel Murphy, Lancaster, W. W. Simms, St. John and J. A. Barry, Lancaster. The motion was seconded by Councillor Bryant and Councillor Fisher asked if the proceedings were in order. The county secretary replied in the affirmative, and added that power of attorney would be given each member of the board as it was found that this was the only satisfactory way the act could be worked out. The commission will act for the council under a contract and take out the certificate of indebtedness to the government.

Asked directly if the houses to be built in Lancaster were to be rented or sold the councillor assured the council that in every instance the act was being adhered to. The financing, particularly, was according to the regulations.

Councillor Bullock went over the workings of the act in St. John. He said the city was now accepting the burden and responsibility for the county that necessarily went with the act. So far as the city of St. John was concerned it owned lots, but under the act they must confine their activities to the city proper. Legislation might be asked at the next session to have this feature changed.

Mostly all the applicants had asked for loans to construct houses on their own lots. This could not be done with the exception of two applicants, all were for two flat houses. He believed that nothing had been done to change the original spirit of the housing act.

It was here moved by Councillor Fisher that the council rise from committee and go back into council to take up the matter of appointment of the board. This was done.

Councillor Bullock then moved that the Lancaster Housing Commission submit a written report to the council at each of its quarterly meetings. Councillor Fisher seconded the motion.

Councillor O'Brien took strong objection, claiming that it would place a hardship on the members of the board.

who were working without remuneration. He asked Mr. Bullock to stay the motion until the details had been worked out. The motion carried.

The county secretary then read the contract in which the county was entering with the government in regard to the housing scheme and after motions by Councillor Bullock that the warden and secretary be authorized to sign the agreement and that the secretary of the new commission supply each councillor with a copy of the housing regulations the council adjourned.

CONNOLLY TO PRESS CHARGE

(Buffalo Commercial.)
Capt. Michael Connolly, Montreal millionaire, who was robbed of $125,000 on a fake race track deal, arrived in Buffalo yesterday from New York and immediately went into conference with Thomas G. O'Grady over the trial of James W. Ryan, alias "The Postal Kid," who is accused of being the brains of the gang that fled him.

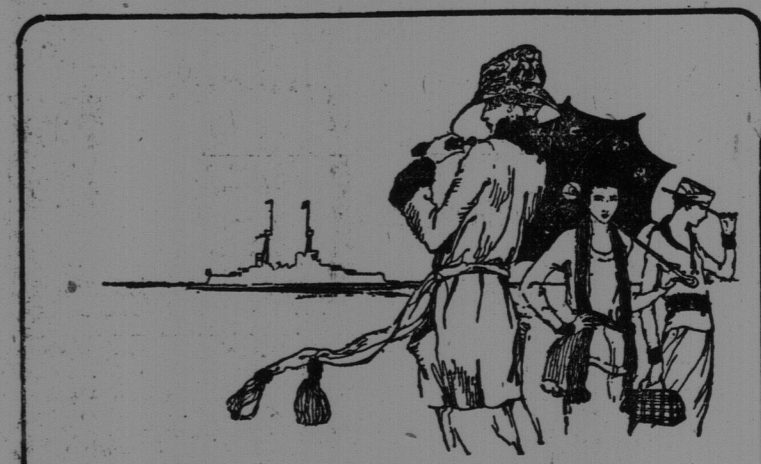

It is expected that the trial will be held about Sept. 18th.

Detective O'Grady expects that Ryan will have an array of counsel to defend him, including John B. Stanchfield, one of the foremost criminal lawyers in the country. Mr. Stanchfield appeared for Harry Thaw in his fight for freedom from Matteawan.

When asked whether he would drop the charges against the gang that murdered him if they would offer to return the money, Capt. Connolly said: "I want them sent to jail for the benefit of the public."

Capt. Connolly denied that he had said that the Buffalo police were a lot of crooks.

At a meeting of the county executive of the W. C. T. U. yesterday in Orange Hall, German street, plans for the coming convention of the order in this city were furthered. Mrs. R. D. Christie,

Webster on "Morale"

MORALE (Mō-rāl) n. (F. See Moral, in the sense of condition, or the condition in other respects, so far as it is affected by, or dependent upon, moral considerations, such as zeal, spirit, hope and confidence; mental state, as of a body of men, an army, and like.

HAT is Dr. Webster's definition. Many of us know the word only in its war-time application.

Webster dwells firstly on the usage of the word "morale" as applied to the commonplace happenings of every-day life. His allusion to its reference to an army comes later. And Webster is correct—meticulously so.

It was their private-life morale that made such splendid soldiers of our boys when the time came for them to don the khaki. It was that, and that alone, that made them take the first step, and it was that which carried them through to victory. If their every-day morale had been neglected, the Army could have done little with them and success would not have crowned their efforts.

It is the many little incidents of your daily routine that make up your morale—the morning shave, your clean linen, polished shoes, brushed clothes. Webster speaks of zeal, spirit, hope and confidence. It is by attention to the small details of your personal appearance that these may be attained.

The Gillette Safety Razor enters as much into the morale of every-day life as it did into that of the trenches. It helped our soldiers to maintain their confidence and bearing. It will do the same for you. The Gillette Safety Razor makes the daily shave come easy—there is no pulling or scraping—no honing, or stropping—just five minutes of perfect shaving comfort. And, afterwards, a chin that tells of morale and self-respect.

Sold at most stores catering to men's needs.
