

The Evening Wines & Star

VOL. X, No. 8

ST. JOHN N. B. FRIDAY, OCTOBER 9, 1914

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

Battle Continues With No Change Today Is Report From Paris

Cavalry Fighting North Of Lille and of Labasse Only Minor Actions in The Centre—That Pace Tells on Germans is Paris Reading of Determined Attack Made on Antwerp

Paris, Oct. 9.—The following official announcement was given out this afternoon:—The general situation has undergone no change. On our left wing the two opposing bodies of cavalry are still operating to the north of Lille and of Labasse, and the battle continues along the line marked by the regions of Lens, Arras, Bray-Somme, Chaulnes, Roye and Laishay.

Paris, Oct. 9.—The suggestion made in Paris this morning, by some observers, that the Germans are holding out with the idea of taking Antwerp first, and then settling a line of defence prepared in Belgium, as it is not possible for them to find reinforcements to counterbalance the fresh troops constantly coming to strengthen the allies. Even the fall of Antwerp will scarcely shake French confidence in the success of the efforts of the allies to push the Germans back over the frontier.

ANTWERP AFIRE IN FOUR PLACES

Germans Carry on a Terrific Bombardment—King Said to Have Left

London, Oct. 9.—The bombardment of Antwerp has been reported as a steady dispatch to Reuters under date of Thursday. "The Germans threw incendiary bombs," the dispatch adds, "with the result that many parts of the town between the railway station and the south and Palace of Justice are in flames. It is rumored here that the Germans have been repulsed on the left bank of the River Scheldt."

London, Oct. 9.—The bombardment of Antwerp, the Belgian port on the left bank of the Scheldt, is reported as a steady dispatch to Reuters under date of Thursday. "The Germans threw incendiary bombs," the dispatch adds, "with the result that many parts of the town between the railway station and the south and Palace of Justice are in flames. It is rumored here that the Germans have been repulsed on the left bank of the River Scheldt."

Allies' Airmen Again Raid Cologne and Dusseldorf

London, Oct. 9.—According to a Central News despatch from Amsterdam, another aerial raid has been made by the allies on Cologne and Dusseldorf, both important German Zeppelin airship bases. The telegram follows: "A despatch from Cologne states that hostile aeroplanes threw bombs at the Zeppelin hangers at Cologne and Dusseldorf on Thursday afternoon. The former was uninjured but damage was inflicted at Dusseldorf."

Philadelphia, Pa. Oct. 9.—Weather conditions this morning were favorable for the opening game between the Boston Nationals and the Philadelphia Athletics for the baseball championship of the world. The day was partly cloudy with occasional bursts of sunshine. The temperature was just right for baseball.

Philadelphia, Pa. Oct. 9.—Weather conditions this morning were favorable for the opening game between the Boston Nationals and the Philadelphia Athletics for the baseball championship of the world. The day was partly cloudy with occasional bursts of sunshine. The temperature was just right for baseball.

BRITISH VICTORY ON THE AISNE IS COMPLETE, SAYS LONDON CORRESPONDENT

London, Oct. 9.—The Times correspondent south of the Aisne says: "At one centre—and that the most important—the British victory on the river Aisne is now complete. The Germans have evacuated their trenches, leaving in some of them many soldiers who died from a severe visitation of typhoid. They left two of their heaviest guns in the quagmire, heavily camouflaged in place."

London, Oct. 9.—The Times correspondent south of the Aisne says: "At one centre—and that the most important—the British victory on the river Aisne is now complete. The Germans have evacuated their trenches, leaving in some of them many soldiers who died from a severe visitation of typhoid. They left two of their heaviest guns in the quagmire, heavily camouflaged in place."

London, Oct. 9.—The Times correspondent south of the Aisne says: "At one centre—and that the most important—the British victory on the river Aisne is now complete. The Germans have evacuated their trenches, leaving in some of them many soldiers who died from a severe visitation of typhoid. They left two of their heaviest guns in the quagmire, heavily camouflaged in place."

WEATHER BULLETIN Issued by authority of the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stewart, director of meteorological service.

BOUGHT FACTORY The Bank of Nova Scotia has purchased the big Canadian saddle factory at St. Andrews, which cost originally more than half a million dollars.

RUNAWAY WIFE IS SAID TO HAVE COME HERE Moncton, N.B., Oct. 9.—A resident of Springfield Mines arrived here yesterday looking for his wife who, he says, ran away from home.

NEW TURNABLE A fine, up-to-date turntable has been installed in the I.C.R. yard here and is proving an improvement to the working crew.

DEATH OF BERLIN HISTORIAN Berlin, Oct. 9.—Professor Richard Thurnwald, a well known historian, died on Thursday.

CITY LABORERS' PAY The total of $2,292.23 was paid out today at city hall to the city laborers for their wages for the last fortnight.

CASE SETTLED

The suit of Burpee et al vs. Ashburn Fishing Club, which has been pending in the attention of the Chancery Court, has been settled.

ENLISTED AS SINGLE MEN, LEFT WIVES

It appears that cases of wife desertion were not infrequent among the volunteers with the first contingent.

POLICE COURT

The Douglas Avenue Case and Other Matters Taken Up Police Sergeant Smith gave evidence this morning in the police court in the case against Michael Burns.

REAL ESTATE NEWS

Transfers of real estate have been recorded as follows: St. John County, H. A. Bruce to J. M. Robinson, property in Simons.

BRIDE'S RECEPTION At her home, 122 1/2 Duke street, yesterday afternoon and evening, Mrs. W. E. Ward, (nee McCarthy) received a great number of her friends who called upon her for the first time since her marriage.

DELAYED BY FOG The steamer Oncoone was delayed this morning by a heavy fog on the river and did not arrive at Indianstown until noon, being nearly two hours late.

BY-LAW MATTER Luther B. Smith, reported for not sounding the horn of his automobile while passing the corner of Mill and Dock streets was today fined $8.