TENNIS.

Superiority of Mlle. Lenglen.
(New York Times)
If doubt has existed in the minds of any followers of lawn tennis as to the superiority of Mlle. Lenglen over Mrs. Mallory, that point must have been settled conclusively by the result of the meeting of the pair in the final of the tournament at Nice. When the French girl originally appeared as a candidate for world's championship honors, the stories of her prowess which came out of the Riviera and the French capital were taken on this side of the water with some skepticism. In that first meeting at St. Cloud nearly two years ago the victory of the vivacious Suzanne was decisive enough—straight sets at 6-2, 6-3. There followed that unfortunate debut at Forest Hills a couple of months later in which the French girl, whatever the cause, did not play the tennis of which she was capable, as demonstrated often enough before and since. The rubber meeting was staged on the famous center court at Wimbledon last summer, in which the American champion scored only two games of the fourteen required to settle the question. Back on the Riviera the rivalry—and it has reached bitterness at some stages—was continued last week and not a single game did Mrs. Mallory take, being able to force only two to deuce, in neither of which did she hold advantage. Thus in the four times they have met they have contested seven sets and fifty-one games. Of these Mlle. Lenglen has won six sets to one and thirty-eight games to thirteen—certainly a convincing record. Continental critics are well agreed that the French girl stands supreme in women's tennis, and at present there appears to be no rival capable of challenging her right to the title.

TURF.

Winter Racing Season Over.
(New York Times)
The climax of the winter racing season was reached on Saturday when Amole won the $10,000 Louisiana Derby at New Orleans. Saturday was also getaway day at Jefferson Park, and, except for the short meeting at Mobile, marked the close of the season in the South. Followers of the turf are agreed that the waning season has been one of the best in the history of the winter tracks.

The Louisiana Derby was illustrative and typical of the entire season. The purse was the largest offered in New Orleans since Meek won the Crescent City Derby in 1908. Furthermore, the class of the three-year-olds in training went to the post, and they were high-grade handicaps. There were not just the best of a bad lot, as attested by the fact that six of them have been nominated for the Kentucky Derby. Of the thirteen which competed Saturday, Calcutta, Setting Eam, Shamrock, Edward Gray, Body Guard and Blue Nose have been named for the Churchill Downs classic. Added to these fact the Derby attracted one of the largest crowds which has ever found its way into Jefferson Park. Thus it is really seen that the Derby was a race of some consequence, and it offers a fair example of the increasing importance of winter racing.

In this connection it is interesting to recall the changes recently announced by the officials of the Southern Maryland track. This year, for the first time in the history of the track, there will be three big stake events, with purses of $5,000 in added money. For years it has been the policy of the track to put more money into the overnight purses and avoid stake events, for the simple reason that there were not enough high-class horses in training in early April to lend interest to important stake races.

Thus the decision of the Maryland officials to inaugurate the new purses as a tribute to winter racing, for in announcing the three $5,000 races, the Bowie directors pointed out that there were enough first-flight handicaps horses now competing on the winter tracks to make the holding of stake contests in the early spring worth while.

BASKETBALL.

Byngs Defeat Woodstock.
The St. John's W. C. A. Byngs Girls won their return game with the Woodstock Girls last night on the Y. M. C. A. floor by a score of 15 to 6 in one of the fastest games seen here for some time. There was a big crowd of spectators and the game was thoroughly enjoyed. The referee, Ketchum, refereed the first period and Roy Willard handled the whistle for the second. Miss Canada was present.

A preliminary game between the Y. M. C. A. Harriers and the Y. M. C. I. Intermediates ended in a victory for the latter by a score of 50 to 13. After the game the visitors were entertained with music and refreshments in the gymnasium. Mrs. A. E. Logie was refreshment convener.

The ALTAR STARS

"A GOOD SCOUT"
Mermaid Comedy.
You'll say it's a corker.

"AROUND THE WORLD IN 18-DAYS"
Episode 9.

MR. HARRY THOMPSON WILL SING
"FANCY-NANCY CLANCY"

to stand in the same ring with Dempsey. He was too light, in the first place, and not powerful enough, in the second. Since returning to Ireland McGuire evidently has taken on weight, but, as in the case of Firpo, it is absurd to consider him as an opponent for Dempsey until he has more substantially established himself.

The advance of these men, however, is promising, and should serve to stimulate interest in the heavyweight division, who brought a broken head from the east with him, is recovering.

VANCOUVER AND OTTAWA TONIGHT
Vancouver, B. C., March 23.—Vancouver Maroons, Pacific Coast League champions, will take the ice tonight against Ottawa Senators, National Hockey League champions, favorites in the betting. It will be the third game in a best three out of five semi-final series in which each team has so far won one game. One of Ottawa substitutes, Harry Helman, who was injured Wednesday during practice, will not be played in this season. The decisive mainline Ottawa subs, Clancy and Hitchenman, are in playing form. Cyril Denney, the Senators' crack wing player, who brought a broken head from the east with him, is recovering.

TORONTO GRANITES RECEIVE TROPHY
Winnipeg, March 23.—The Allan cup, won by the Toronto Grants for the second successive year in the series, was presented to the winners after the game at a dinner given by the Manitoba Hockey Association at the Amphitheatre rink, in honor of both teams, and Allan cup trustees, members of the Canadian A. H. A. and the Canadian Olympic Committee.

GOLFER WINS FROM ANGLER IN NOVEL LINKS COMPETITION
Wellington, England, March 23.—A novel golf match is reported from the links here in which Rupert May, using golf clubs and a ball, contended against an angler, Mr. Mackinlay, who made casts with a 2½ ounce weight. The golfer won with a score of eighty-seven, against the angler's 102. The latter's best cast was 100 yards.

SAYS LUIS FIRPO IS AN APT PUPIL
Sam Langford and Jimmy De Forest Engaged to Train Him—Upset of Siki a Surprise.

(New York Times)
One star was brightened and another dimmed in the boxing world last week. Luis Angel Firpo, who is being groomed for a bout with Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight championship, took a long stride nearer the realization of his ambition when he knocked out the veteran, Bill Brennan. On the other hand, the aspirations of Battling Siki, the Bengalese, who acquired fame overnight by knocking out Georges Carpentier, received a severe jolt when he was out-pointed by Mike McGuire in twenty rounds in Dublin.

It was the first real test to which Firpo had been subjected. That he met it so successfully is much to his credit. He still has much to learn. He is big and powerful. He has a strong punch, and evidently can assimilate defeat of Carpentier, he was regarded as a fighter of natural ability who might develop into a suitable opponent for Dempsey. Although Mike McGuire made a favorable impression while he was in this country, he was a middleweight and never received serious consideration as a likely man to stand in the same ring with Dempsey. He was too light, in the first place, and not powerful enough, in the second. Since returning to Ireland McGuire evidently has taken on weight, but, as in the case of Firpo, it is absurd to consider him as an opponent for Dempsey until he has more substantially established himself.

The advance of these men, however, is promising, and should serve to stimulate interest in the heavyweight division, who brought a broken head from the east with him, is recovering.

"HIS UNCLE'S NIECE"
WELL PRESENTED IN
ST. COLUMBA HALL

Church Dramatic Society
Has Success in Show.

The first performance of "His Uncle's Niece," a three-act drama, was given in the form of verse, composed by Miss M. Long.

Teddy Campbell played the part of Frances Felton and his appearance in female costume was excellent. The clever young lawyer, Richard Tate, saved many difficult situations with his quick wit. This part was well taken by Packer Campbell. Miss Lucy Black as Dora Hale, engaged to Frances, was superb in her acting, and Miss Margaret Long impersonated Alice Malcolm, Richard's fiancée, in a very convincing manner. The difficult role of Uncle Simon, an eccentric individual, was extremely well played by Leonard Cougle, and Miss Marian Black carried off the impersonation of Mrs. Sarah Ann Mullen to perfection. Fred Duff as Philander Filmore, intended husband of Dora Hale, was excellent in his part. Harper Henderson and Melbourne Stonehouse as Timothy and Silas, two rustic gentlemen, were very well received by the audience.

The entire cast are deserving of praise and their excellent make-up was the work of A. Quigg.

Purdy Cougle rendered a solo in a pleasing manner and Miss Betts was heard in a violin selection. For a specialty during the second and third acts, Miss D. Campbell trained three young girls. Little Miss Dorothy Splane sang "In an Old-fashioned Garden" and Misses. Willa Watters and Doris Moore enacted the words of the song to perfection.
