CANADA LOSES MUCH OF HER BEST BLOOD

a Lucky Boy

Twelve swift years have come and gone since Frank Cooke's son romped about the house—a lovable, rosy-cheeked baby boy.

Last Summer he passed his Entrance Examinations and en-tered the Collegiate.

Four years more, an ambi-tious, upstanding young fellow, he will be on the threshold of the most important part of his training for the battle of life—a University education.

And Frank Cooke's boy will go to the University: for twelve years ago, Frank Cooke determined that the air castles he had built for a baby boy should some day become a reality—that his boy should have a chance Child's Endowment Plan. It appealed strongly to him because:

(1) It made certain that the boy would have a College Education.

(2) He knew that even if he himself died the North

(3) He learned that should the child die before his fifteenth birthday all the premiums paid plus interest would be returned, while if the boy's death occured after that age, the full payment would be made.

"I'M going to put my money in a home," you say.

A good idea. But don't forget that if death intervenes one payment made on a home will bind your widow to pay the mortgage or lose the home.

One payment made on an Imperial Life policy will bind this Company to pay your widow and save the home.

The proceeds of life assurance policies have paid off many mortgages. We have an interesting booklet about this subject. Just ask for a copy of "That Home of Yours" and we'll send it to you post free.
