Dear Mrs. So-and-So:-

We don't know what color his eyes were, and even you may have forgotten; but he was still in his "short pants" and you still wore your hair down.

And—it's really none of our confounded business, we know-that day when you promised to love each other "forever and ever," just like people in books: Oh, THAT day you will always remember.

Whatever did happen to him? Let's see, he moved from your neighborhood, didn't he? Or was it you who moved? And you wanted to die?

But then you found that that new boy across the street

Captain William Burton who will sail Shamrock IV. in the international series that start, off Sandy Hook, July 15, was at the wheel. At the end of the trip, all aboard said they were pleased with the way the yacht stood up in a breeze that was decidedly stronger than the one that carried away Resolute's mast off New Haven, a week ago Saturday.

London, June 1—Yorkshire completely outplayed Gloucestershire today winning by an innigs and 55 runs. The scores were: Yorkshire, 229; Gloucester, 60 and 114. For the winners Waddington took nine wickets for 80 runs.

A high average of run getting marked the Essex-Surrey match. The totals were: Essex, 248 and 238; Surrey, 383 and 156 for six wickets. Surrey won by four wickets. Rev. Mr. Gillingham, a London clergyman, made 95 for Essex.

In the Notts-Middlesex match rain prevented play for one whole day but the match was finished when Notts scored 218 and 144 for seven wickets, and declared Middlesex scored 98 and 109 and Notts won by 141.

Rain caused much delay also in the Kent-Leicestershire and Northamptonshire-Warwickshire matches. Kent, however, beat Leicestershire by 164 and Lancashire defeated Sussex by ten wiskets. Warwickshire, 181 and 263, beat Northamptonshire, 137 and 68 by 259 runs.
