Let your Elders feel that their affice is not a sinecure; honor them for works' sake if there is any possibility getting work out of them, and teach deed, to give them honour. If in the past Elders have, in many cases, been no more than nominal church officers, officers in name, let it be so no longer. Urge it upon them that they have work to do, that at least a partial New Year's will be to their sanctification, and it will be a means of grace to all. Let them be able to give a definite answer to the question which may be put'to them-"What do as I am convinced it will, to administer it so as to lead erring ones to repentance and newness of life. Others have laboured and we have entered into their labours. We carry on the succession, United Kingdom. The Deals, Scantwe labour and those that will come after us will reap the harvest. But even in our ling, Boards, etc., were distributed as own time it is given us more or less to see the pleasure of the Lord prospering in our hands. Let us look for this and we will not be altogether disappointed. But whether or not there be visible results it is for us to be loyal to our master. our own consciences we stand and fall in God's sight. We are permitted to console ourselves with the thought that there will come a day when the Judge of all will set right the wrongs done here. The people of the flock may prove capricious, may turn away their affections, may refuse to listen to what is said for their good, or may neglect to put in practice the virture gospel; Jesus Christ does not change, he is the same yesterday, to-day and for ever unreasonable men may expect more of us than it is possible for us to give and when we do not give it they may defame us and make little of the gospel that we ch. Of course, all the people are not like what I say some may be. Many are considerate enough, may they be richly rewarded for all the consideration that they shew. Jesus Christ is never unreasonable, He is always considerate, while He would have us to be on the stretch all the time, He says come ye apart into the desert and rest awhile. What a blessed Master we serve! Let us then magnify our office and think of the reward that is before us, if we be faithful in a few things here we will at length be put in possession of many things, when we enter into the joy of our Lord. When the chief Shephard shall appear we, the under Shephard shall appear we then the shall appear we shall appear to the shall a ard shall appear, we, the under Shepherds shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.
