WEDDED LAST EVENING.

A very quiet wedding took place last night at the residence of Mrs. A. Patterson, Main street, when her sister, Miss Bertha Brown, was united in marriage to Beecher McLean, son of Duncan M. McLean of this city.

Miss Brown is a daughter of the late W. G. Brown, and was for a number of years postmistress at Indiantown. Owing to the recent death of her father she was dressed in black and white. Rev. Alex. White, of the Main street Baptist church, performed the ceremony, which took place at eleven o'clock. On account of the very short time allowed for preparations, both bride and groom were unattended, and the ceremony was performed in the presence of only a few of the most intimate friends of the parties concerned.

Mr. and Mrs. White leave by the C. P. R. this evening for New York, where they will reside, and where Mr. McLean has obtained a good position.

A resident of Union street was alarmed last night by a noise which he thought betokened the presence of an intruder. Duty informing him of the trouble they started on their search, up two pairs of front stairs, through the house and to the rear entrance. The noise increased as they came to that portion of the house, and on the back stairs they found the intruder, a large, well-developed and home-sick cat, of the male persuasion.

Chief Clark Will Permit No More Brutal Bouts—Other Cases Heard.

As might have been expected, the court room was crowded to the doors this morning with an eager crowd, waiting for the examination of Littlejohn and Critch, arrested last night on a charge of being principals engaged in a prize fight. Both combatants appeared entirely at ease and pleaded not guilty when the charge was read to them. Daniel Mullin appeared for the criminal code, which states that if after hearing the evidence, the person before whom the complaint is made is satisfied that such fight was the result of a quarrel or not an encounter, he may, in his discretion, discharge or impose upon them a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars. This section of the code must, however, be established by evidence, and pending such the examination was conducted under section 94, in which a prize fight is defined as an encounter or fight between two persons who have met for such purpose by previous arrangement made by or for them.

CONFIRMATION AT NEW DENMARK. There is now a Flourishing Colony of some 600 Souls.

On Thursday last the Bishop of Fredericton visited New Denmark. The churchwardens and vestry waited upon the Bishop in the evening, and thanked him for having used his influence to bring back their pastor, Rev. C. E. Mainsann. They pointed out that a clergyman who could not speak Danish would only be able to minister to a small portion of the colonists. On Friday morning the Bishop held a confirmation when twenty young people were confirmed; eight lads and twelve lasses answering to their names. After the confirmation there was a celebration of the holy communion, when six-ty-two communicants, including the newly confirmed. The Bishop returned to Fredericton the same evening. The colony of New Denmark is making rapid advances, the immigrants, who now number about 600, being thrifty and progressive. The most of them are adherents of the Church of England.

CONFIRMATION AT NEW DENMARK.

There were four ordinary drunks on the bench, one of whom was fined four dollars or ten days, and another for using obscene language while drunk was fined six dollars or twenty days. The other two were Spaniards, who did not understand much English. They had come ashore from their ship early last evening and had a few drinks. Went down on Sheffield street and failed a disturbance. Being ordered to move on by Officer Cramford, they went a short distance and again made themselves heard. In court today one of them, Gaspar Gonzalo, who seemed to be a more eloquent speaker than the other two, explained how the affair occurred. He and Pedro Astar had a few drinks and were not making any noise. Went for a walk around town and on one of the streets were arrested by the officer. Gaspar gasped out his words with much difficulty, seemingly laboring under a dryness of the vocal organs. He says Pedro is about twenty-six years of age and gives his own age as thirty-six. Pedro disheveled his own necktie, which he endeavored to explain to the judge by the police, and after swearing in the most solemn manner that he would tell the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth, eloquently remarked "Whoop-o-o-," making his hat dance on by Officer Cramford, they at the same time in imitation of the police officer's actions. Gasp delivered quite an address, in which he stated "Si Senor, Caramba, Adios." They were each fined five dollars or twenty days.

William Clark, of Sheriff street, who was reported for desecrating the Sabbath by selling beer, sent his wife to appear for him. After mature consideration, she pleaded guilty and the usual fine of eight dollars was imposed.

Captain Gateman, of the schooner Carrie Bell, was reported by the harbor master for occupying a berth which was not assigned to him and which had been assigned to another schooner. It appears that the Carrie Bell was towed into the harbor before another one which had arrived at the island some time previous and occupied a berth at the Rolling mill wharf. Capt. Gateman stated that both schooners belonged to Mr. Elkin, that both carried the same loads and were consigned to the same place. He stated that it made no difference which schooner unloaded first, and that the complaint had only been made because the harbor master considered that his authority in the matter had been disregarded. The enquiry was postponed until next Monday.

A man very much under the influence of liquor appeared to enter a complaint about some one who had
