and Smith at the residence of her father, 43 Harrison street. Mrs. Smith was the eldest daughter of John Rubins. For some time she had been suffering from heart rouble, and about five weeks ago was brought home by her mother from Lynn, Mass. Although it was known that recovery was impossible, death came rather unexpectedly. She leaves a husband and six children. Mrs. Smith had a large circle of friends, who will hear of her death with deepest regret. The funeral will take place tomorrow at 2.30 o'clock. The burial service will be read by the Rev. R. P.
