SHOES FOR BOYS' AND GIRLS

Boys and Girls want Style in their Shoes, just as much as the grown up folks-but strength, durability and proper fitting are more essential. Young feet are never still - they subject their Shoes to all sorts of knocks and strains.

> We Believe OUR CHILDREN'S SHOES Excel at Every Point

BOYS' SHOES in Box Calf - Gun Metal Calf, Vici, Valour Calf-Tans, etc., High Cut or Oxfords Lace or Blucher Styles, according to size. $1.00 to

OUR $1.65 BOYS' SHOE IS A BUSTER

GIRLS' SHOES, Vici and Patent Kid, Patent Colt, Gun Metal Calf Lace or Button, Spring Heels in smaller sizes, High Cut College Cut and Oxfords 90c. to $2.00 according to size.

SEE OUR EXCELLENT $1.50 GIRLS SHOE

COADY & CO., 61 Charlotte St.

When Getting the Children Ready for School Send to A. B. WETMORE'S, 59 Garden St. for Boots, Stockings, Hair Ribbons, Ties, etc.; also School Books. Slates, Pencils, etc.

20th CENTURY BRAND

Fine Tailored Garments for Men

You will appreciate our good fortune in having the exclusive right to famous hand-tailored 20th Century Brand Clothing.

THEY FIT SO WELL, and hang so gracefully from the shoulders the moment you put the garment on—you recognize their superiority over the ordinary make of clothes. Any man can afford to be well dressed, as we have priced these suits:

$12.00, 15.00, 16.00, 16.50, 18.00 to $25.00 Other makes, very satisfactory, $10.00 to $16.00.

Gilmour's, 68 King St.

INDIAN TALKS TRIBAL POLITICS

interview:
Among London's interesting visitors is a blue-blooded chief of the Mohawk Indians, the head of the Bear clan, the tribe whose exploits have been immortalized by Fenimore Cooper. His name is Thanakarineh, and he follows the profession of a man of medicine. His fine physique, his swarthy complexion, and his rather striking attire render him a conspicuous figure.

Out of deference to English custom, the Mohawk celebrity had shed his buckskin and feathers for a navy blue suit and white waistcoat when he was interviewed by a Daily Chronical and the control of the suffragist demonstrations in London."

Subject w treat as a tional stat perial control of the suffragist demonstration against the rule of Indian squaws arose there would be seen the counterpart of the suffragist demonstrations in London."

But if the women select and the chiefe was interviewed by a Daily Chronical stat perial control of the suffragist demonstrations in London."

But if the women select and the chiefe was interviewed by a Daily Chronical state perial control of the suffragist demonstrations in London."

ing sketch of the customs of his famous tribe. In response to the usual greeting he remarked: "Devodon hnon, ya nih donh, nyawean," which is Canlengah aka for "Extremely well, thank you."

SQUAWS RULE THE ROOST.

had much to say about the influence and authority of women in the Mohawk Indian of the Turtle clan, who accompanied the chief, added the opinion that the decorum and dignity of the Chieftians' Council would put to the matter at all I my had much to say about the influence and authority of women in the Mo-

An Indian Chief from Ontario talked nate a successor, who seldom is the tribal politics to a Daily Chronicle representative in London the other day, and the pressman thus describes the mentally fittest for the distinction, and so long as he is of the clan he is pro-claimed its chief.

SUFFRAGETTE MOHAWKS!

buckskin and feathers for a navy blue suit and white waistcoat when he was interviewed by a Daily Chronicle representative, to whom he gave an interesting sketch of the customs of his famous tribe. In response to the usual chieftian has the same status among his tribe as an English earl. The council consists, of about nine representatives of each tribe, and meets monthly. There is no President or Speaker. The system is on a purely democratic basis of absolute equality.

Sometimes the legislators assemble n full war paint, and with the pomp Thanakarineh said. "The men are not consulted in the matter at all. I myself was chosen by the women's council—a representative body of the various clans, such as "The Bear," "The Wolf," and "The Turtle."

There is no such thing as my title being handed down from sire to son. If one of the present chiefs die the ladies assemble in council and nominate the consultation of the present chiefs die the ladies assemble in council and nominate the chieftans' Council would put to shame some of the uproarious proceedings he had witnessed in England. There are no lawyers in his Utopian land. "It is regarded as a contemptible profession, because it causes mischief and trouble over technical matters that a little common-sense will smooth over," he observed, in explanation.

Don't "look for the signature" - Just look for the food in a package of life-giving material. It is the new malted corn food, made of the choicest white corn blended with pure barley-malt. Agrees with everybody and tastes good to young and old. Ready-to-serve hot or cold. Your grocer sells it.

The only Malted Corn Flakes.

FOR

....SHOPPERS....

Great Bargains Ladies' and Misses' Long Gloves.

Ladies' Long Tan Lisle Gloves of finest quality. Regular $1.10. Now 65c Misses' Long Silk Gloves in black or white. Regular 60c. - Sale 45c pair Ladies' Long Silk Gloves in white, champagne, sky, pink, navy or cardinal Reg-ular 75c. - Sale 50c Ladies' Hosiery.

Black Openwork Hose, lace front. - 25c pair Outside sizes in fine black cotton hosiery, 29c pair Infants' Socks. Infants' Lace Socks in pink, white or sky, - 15c pair Infants' White Socks, sizes 4 to 7, - 12c pair Smallwares. Pompadour wire hair rolls, Hair rats-all round size,

Laundry bags-large, 29c | $1.00. Sale price 69c ea MEN'S DEPARTMENT.

Men's Heavy Fall

Tweeds and Suitings; Suit Lengths to clear. Dark Tweeds in mixtures and stripes for making strong winter pants-27 inches wide. Regular 45c, 5oc. Boys' Suitings and short Sale 39c yard

Men's All Wool Tweed Suiting, 54 inches wide. Value 85c, - Sale 65c yard Men's Navy Flannel Shirt-ing Serge. - 29c yard skirts to sell at $2.50 Heatherbloom Taffeta Skirts with gathered stitching and ruffle, black only. - $2.50 Black, navy or brown Moreen Underskirts.

'Heatherbloom' Under-

Special $1.50 Wool Challies. Light ground Wool Challies with colored spots, for dressing jackets &c. Regular 45c.

Boys' Blouse Material Heavy English Galatea in blues, with spots or stripes—absolutely fast color — extra strong. Sale 12 1-2c yd

Linen Damask-— Special. 60 inch Cream Linen Damask. Regular 40c. Special 33c yard Lace Door Panels. Nottingham Lace Door Panels with gathered ruffle at Men's & Boys' Wear. Men's Fancy Regatta Shirts, soft fronts or stiff fronts. Great bargains—shirts worth $1.00 to $1.50.

Sale price 58c

Men's Working Shirts in dark patterns—ducks &c.

49c each Men's Black Cashmere Hose. - 19c pair 3 pairs for 50c.

"Police" braces, 29c pr Boys' Regatta Shirts, soft Boys' Teck Ties, 15c
"Tub" Ties—large assortment. 2 for 25

F. W. Daniel & Co., Ltd.,

Charlotte Street.

THE BEST FRIEND OF THE KASIER

There is a new power alongside the throne in the Fatherland, a German-Austrian, who owns allegiance to no fewer than four different monarchies and holds hereditary seats in the House of Lords of each of them. His name is Poince Marvillan, Eggen and Functional Process of the season is Prince Maximilian Egon zu Fursten-berg, and the world is destined to hear more of him. Forty-five years old and a Roman Catholic multi-millionaire—a subject whom the Kaiser is reputed to treat as an equal—the unique interna-tional status, gigantic wealth, and imperial connections of this sportsman-courtier-magnate make him one of the A striking mixture of romantic me-sonality and wise counsel so vital a factor in the Emperor's estimation that His Majesty is authoritatively understood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer of the stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood to have singled him out for functional transfer or stood transfer or st ture Chancellor of the Empire. Hitherters euphemistically known as "well informed," Prince Furstenberg has pleaded his inexperience for stellar political honors. Meantime he has remained behind the scenes in the incalculably powerful position of the Kaiser's best friend. No man is said to be as close to William II. at this confidence to even an approximate ex-line died out, and the titles and estates passed to the Austrian branch of the family. Generation after generation of Furstenbergs produced brilliant states- Kaiser was recuperating in England, your age. Life.

Furstenberg passed his early life in Vienna and Prague, and on the family's various estates, gratifying a passion for hunting and other tastes of his caste. Inheriting seats in the Upper Chambers of Austria, Prussia, Wuertembers, and Baden, the prince interested himself in politics before he was thirty. In 1892 he attracted attention to himself by a stirring speech in the Reichsrath, at Vienna, advocating German patternilem. diaevalism and extreme progressive ness, Prince Furstenberg is very much a man after the Kaiser's heart. Unleaders of the monarchy. As the head known to the country at large, the prince, who is still called "Max" by his cronies of former days in Vienna opportunity of espousing the claims of his cronies of former days in Vienna opportunity of espousing the claims of and Prague, has made his blunt per-to be as close to William II. at this moment. Few are believed ever to have enjoyed that strong-willed Severeign's society in both Germany and Austria. His castles at Lana and Prague, in Polymer to even an approximate exconfidence to even an approximate extent.

Bohemia, his town palaces in Vienna and Karlsruhe, and his wondrously magnificent and extensive shooting preserves at Donau-Eschingen, in Baden, became the scenes of sumptuout hospitality, outrivalling the enterattained sovereignity in Prussia, Emperor William is credited with treating Prince Furstenberg on tanner indicates out hospitality, outrivalling the enterattained sovereignity in Prussia, Emgeror William is credited with treating Prince Furstenberg on terms indistinguishable from those of equality, while the prince for his part is said to deal with his august kinsman with frankness and outspokenness no mere subject-counsellor would dare employ.
"Furstenberg tells the Kaiser the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth," was the sentenious observation of a Berlin diplomat in commenting on the relations which have come to subsist between the two men.
His Serene Highness was born at Lana, Bohemia, in 1883, the scion of an ancient noble house which proudly traces its lineage back to the twelfth century, and to one of Emperor Charlemagne's paladins. The Furstenbergs of the early Middle Ages lived in the Black Forest. They received the rank
Black Forest. They received the rank large His rise in power and influmaterial theration of kings and emperors. A lavish host, a captivating conversational ist, annateur litterateur, composer and poet, an inveterate huhtsman, fond of soldiering and student traditions—as local newspaper for a message toy, and a young fellow who under sold the kind of a gentleman who was advertisement inserted in a local newspaper for a message
toy, and a young fellow who under sold the kind of a gentleman who was advertisement inserted
in a local newspaper for a message
toy, and a young fellow who under book a young fellow who under stood the kind of a gentleman who was advertisement inserted
in a local newspaper for a message
toy, and a young fellow who under body, and a young fellow who under the flowers Outside The Cafe, a big and accust the traditions—a grocer who was noted for his care had an advertisement inserted in a local newspaper for a message boy, and a young fellow who under between the king of a gentleman who was a goof sugar and the convert Prince Furstenbergs Black Forest. They received the rank of princes from Emperor Franz I. in 1763. In 1804 the Swabian-German the German newspapers published the laconic announcement that Prince Furstenberg had left for Highcliffe at the Emperor's telegraphic summons. German political life at the moment was electric with fear and trembling as a result of the Moltke-Harden scandals. Prince von Bulow's Chancellorship was tottering under disturbing parliamentary difficulties. Furstenberg was heralded on all sides as the coming man. It was asserted with positiveness that the Kaiser had brought him to Highcliffe to urge him to hurl himself into the breach and take the Cancellorship from which Bulow was threatening to resign. It was related that the prince resisted all entreaties, emphasizing his unripeness for responsibilities so high. But he left Highcliffe an irrevocable factor in German high politics—not Chancellors.

Since the Highcliffe episode Prince Furstenberg has never been missing from the emperor's entourage on important occasions. He helped the Kaiser christen the new German navy at Wilhelmshaven in March, when Germanny's first Dreadnought, the Nassau, was launched. A week later Furstenberg went with the Emperor to Heligoland to inspect the preparations for converting that crumbling isle into a Teuton Gibraltar. A fortnight afterwards the Prince joined the Kaiser at Corfu, where they were inseparable, and when the Ionian sun had browned the Imperial countenance for five weeks it was at Furstenberg's shooting—box at Donald—Echongen that William II. tarried for a week before returning to his Imperial capital.

The prince's self-denial has un-tionably strengthened the Kaiser's estrained confidence in his counselunrestrained conneence in its counsellor's square dealing and frank traits.
Prince Furstenberg's colossal fortune consists of breweries in Bavaria, coal and iron mines in Silesia, vast timber and farm tracts in Baden, Bohemia and Austria, and huge blocks of buildings to various metropolitan centres in Ings in various metropolitan centres in Germany and Austria. His wife was a Countess von Schonborn-Buchheim, one of a trio of Austrian sisters who were celebrated beauties. The couple have five children.

CAT BITES SCORE

Big Black Beast Attacks Many Persons in

New York-Eight 60 to

NEW YORK, August 26-A large cat, pet black, appeared in Brownsville last night, and in a mad dash through streets and houses, bit eight persons so badly that they had to be taken to hospitals, and inflicted ugly scratches

Those who saw the strange apparition fied to the doorways frightened—all except ten-year-old Yetta Mendelsohn, who heroically stayed to get her sister Rebecca, two years of age, and her brother Harold, four, out of the way. Before she could drag the little sister Rebecca, two years of age, and her brother Harold, four, out of the way. Before she could drag the little ones into the doorway of their home the cat flew at little Rebecca. After giving her a deep scratch on the breast, the cat flew at Harold. Brave Yetta grabbed it by the neck and fought it away. She was bitten half a dozen times on the face and arms.

The cat made its way to the roof and perching on a chimney waited there until the men appeared through the skylight. Then it sprang at them. The cat clawed and bit several, then dashed back down the stairs. On the way it bit Mrs. Frieda Sockawitz on the neck, hands and breast.

The cat then ran into the street, and, screeching, dashed to another house. It rushed upstairs to the roof, where leaders of the monarchy. As the head of the Constitutionalists, or German-Austrian Liberals, he never misses an apportunity of espousing the claims of Austro-Germans, especially the Bohemian element, from which he himself is sprung.

GREAT WEALTH AND VAST ESTATES

In 1896, through the death of his cousin, Karl Egon, Prince Maximilian Egon became the titular head of the House of Furstenberg and the holder of its enormous estates now valued at over $100.000,000. Their possession makes him one of the very wealthiest men in Europe. Comparatively poor before, the prince is now enabled to play a glittering role in the aristocratic the cest. Its holds.

The cat then ran into the street, and, screeching, dashed to another house. It rushed upstairs to the roof, where children were playing.

It rushed upstairs to the roof, where children were playing.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three years old, and bit her fercely. Benjamin Stein rescued her. Then the cat, after running about Blake Avenue, returned and entered No. 276 Watkins Avenue, It bounded on the roof and flew at Michael S. Kofsky, nine years, and Samuel Kishoers, twelve, and screeching, dashed to another house.

It rushed upstairs to the roof, where children were playing.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday, and the Happy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on Pauline Wolff, three thappy Half Hour yesterday.

It jumped on P

1908---1909

Fur Opening

Visitors and residents of the city are invited to attend our Opening of FUR styles in Jackets, Neckpieces and Muffs for season 1908-9, on Thursday and Friday of this week.

D. Magee's Sons,

63 KING STREET.

AMUSEMENTS.

present time. "Lady Grey's Flight" and "Levitsky's Insurance Policy" are additional pictures, but the great pictorial feature—the one that thrilled yesterday's crowds to the very soul—is the wonderful automobile races over the Dieppe course in France.

THE DYNAMITE MAN AT THE

plosives used in blasting and quarry-ing work and in the oil regions, follow what it is probably the most dangerous vocation in the world. Yet, singularly Bijou last night, it proves conclusively hat the land we live in and the works of its people are the most interesting after all. The management of the Bijou, not knowing that this picture.

bitten severely.

Policeman Joseph Becker then shot the cat. Its body was sent to the Board of Health to be examined.

Police patrol waggons were turned into ambulances, and the eight who were bitten worst hurried to hospitals, four to East New York Dispensary and four to the Bradford Street Hospital.

SHOWING A BAD EXAMPLE.

A grocer who was noted for his carefulness had an advertisement inserted in a local newspaper for a message boy, and a young fellow who understood the kind of a gentleman who was stood the kind of the saddle was originally a woman was originally a woman who was originally a woman that an Echo was originally a woman that an E

Bobbie—That Mrs. Casleton said something nice about you.

Mrs. Von Blummer (purring)—What was it. Bobbie.

Bobbie—She said you didn't show long with the great taining his reputation with the great taining his reputation. This singer has got the cowboy song Sacramento, being repeatedly encored. This singer has got the

5c. as usual. Owing to the shortening nights the first performance will now

AT THE UNIQUE TODAY. the Imperial countenance for New weeks it was at Furstenberg's shooting-box at Donald-Echongen that William II. tarried for a week before returning to his Imperial capital.

A POSSIBLE CHANCELLOR.

It is a subject of continuous talk in court and diplomatic circles that the Kaiser is importuning Prince Furstenberg to become Chancellor when Prince Von Bulow retires. Until now Prince Furstenberg has declined to listen to the alluding suggestion, seeming to prefer a life of society and sport to the burdens of exalted official rank. Meantime he is the object of unceasing flattery and intricate devices upon the part of those who realize the weight of his word with the Emperor, and who would themselves be either Chancellors or the friends of Chancellors Distriction is called the experience of a Dutchman who gets into a lot of trouble in America through his inability to speak English. New songs by the two high class sopranos, Miss Outous is singing "Lovin' Time," and Miss Mae Powers, the new soprano, "Some One Loves You Always." Those who have not heard Miss Powers who have not heard Miss Powers should not let the opportunity pass unheeded. She has been most favorably spoken of by the press of the different cities where she has been heard.

what it is probably the most dangerous vocation in the world. Yet, singularly enough, these very men become so hardened to their constant peril that they are known to handle the deadly stuff like so much lard or axle grease. In the exceptionally fine film which we are about to show you are some scenes in the life of such a man. We tell the heart story of this man, how his beautiful daughter was betrayed by one of those fiends in human form that infest the earth, and how the dynamite man took awful vengeance for the wrong. The whole story is told in six acts. Held by bandits a pretty drama in a royal household, Mr. Newcombe and Madame Denaly will sing.

BIJOU PATRONS GOT A SURPRISE YESTERDAY.

There is no use talking, people love travel views and doings in foreign lands, but when it comes to motion pictures of doings right at their own door such as the picture "Oyster Fishing Off Prince Edward Island," shown at the Bijou last night, it proves conclusively that the land we live in and the works

WOULD EXPERIMENT ON

a debt to the state and surgeons to long have had to depend upon the questionable enthics of experimenta.

Dr. Brown is a spanish war veteran, having been surgeon of the Tenth United States Cavalry, through the Cuban

