

LOCAL LEGISLATURE

Bill to Prevent Profanation of the Lord's Day

Passed By the House Very Much Amended in Some Essential Particulars.

Sunday Excursions Prohibited, But Mal Steamer and Fishing Craft Can Load or Discharge Cargo.

FREDERICTON, N. B., April 27.—Mr. Russell submitted the following report:

The agricultural committee wish to express their hearty approval of the manner in which the government is promoting the agricultural policy.

By the employment of practical men to instruct the people in the different branches of agriculture at institute meetings.

By promoting and encouraging the establishment of butter and cheese factories.

By the establishment of a dairy school where students may learn the art of butter and cheese making.

The encouragement given to flouring mills is having excellent results.

Your committee also ask to have the number of agricultural reports increased from three to five thousand copies per annum.

Mr. Carvill submitted the following report from the special committee in re charges made by Mr. Hazen.

Committee Room, April 27th.—Report of the special committee to whom was referred the investigation of certain charges preferred by Mr. Hazen.

Mr. Hazen requested the right of being represented by counsel, which was granted.

When your committee met on Saturday, the 22nd day of April, instant, Dr. Stockton and Hon. Dr. Pugsley appeared as counsel for the respective parties.

Your committee have incurred certain expenses, which have been ordered paid, as have also certain expenses incurred by Mr. Hazen.

Mr. Johnson committed the bill to continue the act incorporating the St. Louis, Richibucto and Buctouche Railway Co.—Agreed to.

Railway Co.—Agreed to with amendments.

Mr. Thompson committed the bill to amend the collection of rates in the city of St. John.—Agreed to with amendments.

Mr. Barnes committed the bill to authorize the municipal council of Kent to lease the public wharf at Richibucto.—Agreed to with amendments.

Hon. Mr. Dunn committed the bill to amend a by-law of the city of St. John, passed on the 15th day of December, 1898, respecting business licenses.—Agreed to with amendments.

Mr. Todd committed the bill to authorize the Imperial Manufacturing Co. to amend chapter 115 Consolidated Statutes, sewers and marsh lands.

A BILL RE-CONSIDERED.

Hon. Mr. White said with reference to the bill passed the other day to declare and explain the meaning of the covenant for renewal in leases for renewable terms, that he had thought at the time that the legislation was objectionable.

Hon. Mr. White said with reference to the bill passed the other day to declare and explain the meaning of the covenant for renewal in leases for renewable terms, that he had thought at the time that the legislation was objectionable.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

Hon. Mr. White committed the bill to prevent the profanation of the Lord's Day.

Hon. Mr. White said the provisions of the bill were designed to prevent trading, noisy games and bathing on Sunday, and generally to bring about a quiet and orderly observance of the day.

Mr. Robertson concurred in the view of the attorney general that the bill was a very broad and charitable one.

Mr. Hazen requested the right of being represented by counsel, which was granted.

Mr. Hazen requested the right of being represented by counsel, which was granted.

Mr. Hazen requested the right of being represented by counsel, which was granted.

Mr. Hazen requested the right of being represented by counsel, which was granted.

Mr. Hazen requested the right of being represented by counsel, which was granted.

Mr. Hazen requested the right of being represented by counsel, which was granted.

Mr. Pugsley—Our Lord's Day Act has been in the statute book for a hundred years and has not produced any hardships.

Mr. Whitehead thought the bill might interfere quite seriously with log driving operations on the streams in the spring of the year.

Mr. Osman thought the bill bore heavily upon the Seventh Day Adventists.

Dr. Pugsley said the effect of the bill was to allow the rich man to employ his Sunday excursion, while the poor man was leached.

Mr. Todd agreed with the last speaker. On the St. Croix river there were many hot sweltering days in summer, and if the laboring man wished to take his family on boat on Sunday to where bright sunshine and cool breezes could be found, he had a perfect right to do so.

Mr. Russell thought some of the St. Croix river Sunday excursions were noisy and objectionable.

Mr. Todd said in every city there was a certain class of persons who made it a practice to carouse on Sunday.

Mr. Venot claimed that there was more rowdiness by persons driving their boats than on steamers.

Mr. Venot said his objection to the bill was not the lateness of the session, but that many interests had been attacked by the bill for which there was no protection whatever.

Mr. Venot's motion was then put and defeated on the following division: Yeas—Dunn, Venot, Mott, O'Brien, (Charlotte), Porter, McLeod, Gibson, Pugsley, Hazen, Todd, Humphrey, Glasier, Johnson, Gagnon, Legere.—15.

Mr. Speaker explained that he had not voted for this bill from the religious standpoint, but because he felt that laboring men were entitled, as a matter of hygiene, to one day's rest out of seven.

After recess Hon. Mr. Tweedie introduced a bill amending the act relating to annual returns of municipal and civil indebtedness.

Hon. Mr. White recommitted the bill to prevent profanation of the Lord's Day.

Dr. Pugsley moved an amendment to section one: "To strike out sub-section 3, section 1, and insert in lieu thereof the words 'or convention,' which was lost by the same vote.

Mr. Robinson moved in amendment: "Nothing in this act shall apply to the moving of through freight trains at any time stated, and it is necessary to fulfill the said contract that said work should be done."

Mr. Robinson moved in amendment: "Nothing in this act shall apply to the moving of through freight trains at any time stated, and it is necessary to fulfill the said contract that said work should be done."
