SITUATION AT WEPENER. MASERU, Basutoland, Saturday, April 14.—Sir Godfrey Lagden, British resident commissioner, returned here vesterday (Friday) from the scene of operations near Wepener. He and the paramount chief have stationed 3,000 armed natives to resist possible Boer encroachments. The orders of the resident commissioner are that the Basuitos are not to be allowed to cross the Free State frontiler on any pretext whatever. Two natives who crossed and looted an abandoned Boer farm are now in custody. Col. Dalgety's position is strong and well chosen, but he is completely surrounded. The Boers have their backs against Basutoland, and if they stay much longer they will be hemmed in. The British operations are keenly watched from the neighboring heights. Shell-ing and sniping have been going on steadily during the last six days. Col. Dalgety's guns are admirably served, and there is no waste of ammunition.' VISITORS NOT WANTED.

LONDON, April 15 .- Joseph Champerlain, secretary of state for the colonies, has received the following despatch from Sir Alfred Milner, British high commissioner in South Africa: "The number of visitors to South Africa is constantly increasing and includes many, especially ladies, who seem to have no particular call of duty or business.

"I am sure this would not be the case if it were realized at home that visitors, who in ordinary times would be most welcome, may under existing conditions become a serious source of inconvenience, interfering with the work of the military and civil officers and putting a strain on our limited means of accommodation, which are urgently required for those who have escape they are hugging the Basutoland border as closely as possible, and will probably pass east of Ladybrand. The Basutos are marching parallel to them along the frontier, watching esgerly for the slightest encroachment on Basutoland territory. It is feared that the Boers' line of march will not bring them within striking distance from Bloemfontein. The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph adds that Rouxville is clear of Boers. A majority of them have undoubtedly retired north except a body of about 6.000, who are still reported to be marching in the direction of Bethulie. It does appear that Gen. Roberts has considered an effort to relieve Major Dulgety from headquarters necessery, and it seems that Gen. Cherm rides' movement to Reddersburg is mainly aimed at guarding the railway from the strong Boer force that is moving to the southwest. It is stated that when Gen. Chermside arrived at Reddersburg he saw the Boers disanrearing to the southeast, and Montmorency's scouts skirmished at long range with Ecers in the neighborhood of the town Sunday. A report from Eethanie asserts that the retreating burghers, who, by the way, have a numberof British prisoners with them.

LONDON, April 17 .- The Daily Mail has the following from Lady Sarah Wilson, dated Mareking April 5: "The pinch of hunger is beginning to be felt and relief seems to be more distant than ever.

"Since March 31 there has been no shelling until today, Commandant Snyman having taken his burghers to bar Col.
