BOSTON LETTER.

Satisfactory Business Conditions at Start of New Year.

Father Osborne, Who Objected to Unitarian Services in an Episcopal Church, is Well Known in St. John.

Advises Canadians Not to Become Naturalized - Margaret Anglin Scores Another Success - Deaths of Former Provincialists — The

(From our own correspondent.) BOSTON, Jan. 3.—The opening of the new year finds general business conditions throughout this section of the United States much more satisfactory than was the case one year ago. Here in Boston at that time things were in a semi-panicky state, due to a crash among the banks and large business houses, which piled up nearly $20,000,000 of habilities for a score and more receivers and as-signees to settle. The balance sheets when made up this time showed that there had been evidences of more careful management in financial affairs during the year, and thus far no concern of consequence has found itself unable to meet all bills. About one year and a half ago Boston business men realized that they had too many banks, and a general reform movement was set in motion which resulted in the voluntary liquidation of some sixteen of the financial institutions. Two of the lame ducks, however, were not included in the reformation, and later they went to the wall for about $10,000,000. Of late general trade has been satisfactory all over the eastern states with the exception of Baltimore, where three of the banks failed the other day. The only failures in New England of importance of late were in Lawrence, where two woollen mills assigned, because they could not compete with the woolen goods trust This being the off season for street watering carts, and the weather ex-perts failing to provide Boston with any snow this winter, citizens are complaining of the dust nuisance, which seems to be greater than ever. When a high wind blows, life out of doors is very uncomfortable, and indoors feather dusters are unequal to the task of protecting household

The severe criticism of Trinity shurch uttered by Rev. Father Osborne of the Church of St. John the Evangelist because a Unitarian was permitted to hold services over the body of ex-Gov. Welcott in Trinity, has caused quite a stir in Episcopal and Unitarian circles. Ex-Gov. Wolout was a member of King's Chapel (Unitarian), but the Unitarians had no church as large as Trinity, so the rector of the latter, Rev. E. Winchester Donald, tendered them the use of his magnificent edifice. Father Osborne claims that a man who denvs the divinity of the Saviour should not have held a service in a church dedieated to the propogation of the gospe of the trinity, and while many Episco palians support his view, he has been somewhat roughly handled by some of the Boston papers, which of course do not deal with the theological aspect of the case. Rev. Father William B. Frisby, rector of the Church of the Advent, agrees with Father Osborne, while some others of the Episcopal clergy think he was too sewere and still others stand by the rec tor of Trinity, Boston is the headquarters of Unitarianism, which is a development of the old Congregationalism dating back to Puritan days. The Episcopal body and the Unitarians, having little in common, have been far apart, and generally when some such incident as the Wolcott funeral arises there is a clash immediately. The Unitarians are not altogether satisfied with the Trinity shurch affair, and some of them fail to see why it was necessary to go outside of their denomination to bury the ex-governor. The latter was very popular among all creeds, and the reret is general that a church difficulty developed. It is pretty safe to say that the Episcopal church authorities will take no action officially in the premises, as all desire the affair to quietly drop. Father Osborne is an Englishman and head of the Society of St. John the Evangelist (the Cowley fathers) in this country. Several years ago he visited St. John and preached in the Church of St. John

District Attorney Philipin of New York has appointed as assistant district attorney George W. Schurman, native of Prince Edward Island. The new official is a brother of President Schurman of Cornell University. His salary will be $7,500 per annum.

The Boer war, the question of Canadians here becoming naturalized, and other topics, were discussed at a smoke talk held under the auspices of the Canadian Club of Boston at the American House Tuesday night. Among those present were Chas. W. Farmer, formerly one of Lord Roberts' scouts, and who was at the relief of Kimberly; Private B. H. Blunt of the First Canadian contingent, and John M. Lobban, whe was erderly te the late Lieut. Harold Borden, son of the minister of militia. Mr. Lebban paid a tribute to the memory of the epinion of several other speakers, Mr. Lobban advised Canadians residing here not to become naturalized. "The authorities in the province," Mr. Pike informed the Worcester newspapers, are cour-teous and affable, and strangers are welcomed cordially. Miss Margaret Anglin, formerly of St. John, has scored another marked success as an actress. Last Monday she appeared in the Empire theatre, New York, in the leading role in the drama, "Mrs. Dane's Defence." New York papers highly praise her work. An immense quantity of western grain is at this port for shipment to Europe. The Boston and Maine road alone has 2,000,000 bushels in its elevators, and 700 cars are waiting to be unloaded. From reported conditions in the west, it looks as if a large amount of grain would be shipped at once to Atlantic ports.

Among provincialists visiting in town of late were the following: F. A. Jones and Mrs. Jones, A. D. Carmen, G. W. Merritt, Mrs. C. G. Gulespier, J. M. Johnson, W. J. May, G. H. Vroom, St. John; J. G. Holmes, Parrsboro; Miss Haley, W. A. Black, J. F. Malone and Mrs. Malone, Halifax; E. H. Spinney, Yarmouth. The following deaths of former provincialists are announced: At East Cambridge, Dec. 30, Ida W. Sprague, aged 21 years, formerly of St. John; in Boston, Jan. 2, Mary F., wife of Peter J. Moriggir, and daughter of John Buckley of St. John, aged 20 years; in Cambridge, Dec. 31, Mrs. Margaret Brooks, wife of Daniel Brooks, aged 27 years, native of Yarmouth; in this city, Mrs. Harry Cameron of Monc-

The spruce lumber market here is steady, but there is no special feature apparent. Values are about the same as last quoted, with frames still higher than the posted figures. Ten and 12 inch dimensions are held at $18; 9in. and under at $15, and 10 and 12in. random lengths, 10 feet and up, $17. Eastern hemlock is also steady at $14.50 to 15.50 for stock boards. Laths are fairly firm, but trade is quiet. For 1 5-8-in., $2.80 to 2.35 is wanted, and for 1 1-2-in. laths, $2.60 to 2.70. New Brunswick cedar shingles are freely offered here at $2.75 for extras, but buyers are scarce. The demand is light, and for the present the shingle trade cannot be said to be in Al condition. The fish trade is quiet in all its sranches. Mackerel continue in fair demand at $15.50 to 16 per bbl. at first hands for the best fish. Provincial mackerel are worth from $9 to 14, as to quality. N. S. large split barrel herring are in light demand at $6.25 to 6.50. The cold weather is favoring the N. B. smelt exporters. Smelts are quoted at 10 to 14c. for the best imported, and at 15 to 17c, for native. Live lobsters are firm at 18 to 20c., with boiled two cents higher.

DEATH OF JOSEPH SALTER. on's First Mayor Under Old Incorporation Act.

(Moncton Times, 4th.) Joseph Salter, a former well known and prominent citizen of Moncton passed away at his home in North Sydney on New Year's day. Mr. Salter was well known to the older citizens of Moncton, having been a central figure in the Moncton of fortysix years ago. He was the first mayor of the town under the old incorpora tion act, and from 1849 to 1859 he carried on a flourishing shipbuilding business here, being associated in the enterprise with his brother, George Salter, who did business at that time in St. John. Mr. Salter removed to the "Bend" in 1849 and comme shipbuilding in the old ship yard at the foot of what is now Mechanic street. During the period he carried on this industry, which was the prin-cipal business of the place, he launched some twenty vessels, averaging about a thousand tons each. The vessels were all built of hacmatac and took the highest classification for British North American build. sides vessels built in their own yard, Mr. Salter's firm had built for them by the Messrs. Harris, Cochrane and McKay, several vessels of large tonnage. Mr. Salter's firm, mainly through losses in England, failed, and as shipbuilding was the only labor employing enterprise at that time, the town received a serious set back, from which it did not recover until the extension of the Intercolonial railway began to be pushed.

An incident in Mr. Salters' business career in Monoton worth recalling was the reduction of the hours of labor. In the early days of shipbuilding the hours of labor were from sunrise to sunset in the summer and from daylight till dark during the winter season. Finlly the men asked for a ten hour day. Mr. Salter was approached in the matter, and the concession was at once granted. The event was celebrated by a demonstration in the form of a parade. Mr. Salter removed to Nova Scotia about thirty years ago, where he has lived ever since. He was about 84 years of age, and for some time past had been in failing health. He born in Hants Co., N. S., in June, 1816. Deceased was a brother-in-law of Geo. H. Trueman, I. C. R. station

PRIVATE FAIRWEATHER Tendered a Hearty Reception at Rothesay Last Evening.

ROTHESAY, N. B., Jan. 3.-This evening the citizens of Rothesay ten-dered Percy Fairweather, who lately returned from South Africa, a very hearty reception in St. Paul's church Sunday school house. The weather being fine, the village turned out en masse, and a very enjoyable evening was spent. The main feature of the programme was the presentation of the following address: To Percy R. L. Fairweather, Company G, Royal Canadian Infantry: We, your friends and neighbors of Rothesay, cordially welcome you home from your South African campaign and rejoice that you have been spared to return to your friends safe and sound. Many Canadian volunteers like yourself, soldiers of the Queen have testified their loyalty to the Queen of England and placed the name of Canada high up on the rol of fame of the empire, the valor of Canada has been upheld and their glo rious deeds of arms will ever remai imperishable and resplendent in th history of Canada. Their prowess i arms has transformed Canada at single bound into a nation capable placing an army in the field second none, and Canada is now no longer colony, but a glorious empire within empire, the greatest empire known history. Canada having produce statesmen who have taken their stand in the foremost ranks of the civilized nations of the world, has now shown it has gallant soldiers ever ready and willing to defend itself and share the destinies of the empire in any emergency that may arise. Canadian soldiers fought side by side with the imperial troops, troops from Australia, New Zealand and other distant parts of the empire, with equal credit to Canada and themselves. We watched you anxiously from afar and hoped for your success, and while you have been thanked in person by Her Gracious Majesty Queen Victoria, you have at home earned the thanks and undying gratitude of your countrymen. Many poor fellows, not so fortunate as yourself, have fallen in the fight. They sleep the sleep of heroes, mourned by a grateful nation, their names indelibly written in England's book of gold. They died fighting for their Queen and country, a noble death, an everlasting monument to Canada. We take pardonable pride in meeting you tonight. Your personal example, behaviour and bravery on the field of battle, and during the many hardships and difficulties you experienced on the line of march, will ever hold you before the eyes of the country as a shining example to the youth of Canada, and it will be your proud duty to maintain in the future such a glorious record. We shall follow your career with pride as one of the many standard bearers of Canada, and we wish you now and always every happiness and prosperity.

Rothesay, N. B., 3rd January, 1901. The address was signed by all the residents of Rothesay and read by

Mr. Fairweather replied feelingly, and short speeches were made by Capt. Kaye, Duncan Robertson and John Ryan, all of whom have recently returned from the South African campaign. Also by the Rev. Mr. Daniel, R. W. Allin, representing the Rothesay College, which claims Mr. Fairweather as an old boy. An excellent musical programme was provided by Messrs. Seeley, T. B. Freeze, Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Miss Gilbert, Mrs. Hall and R. W. Allin. After refreshments had been served, the reception was brought to a close by the singing of the national anthem and cheers for Mr. Fairweather and for the other members of the South African contingents who were present.

A feature of the proceedings of the January sitting of the St. John circuit of the supreme court on Thursday of this week was the presentation of the following congratulatory address to Chief Justice Tuck:

To the Hon. W. H. Tuck, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of New Brunswick: May it please Your Honor-The grand jurors of the city and county of St. John for the January circuit court respectfully beg leave to thank your honor for the kindly worded New Year address that you were pleased to favor them with and for the assurance of your best wishes for their welfare and happiness.

The grand jury would respectfully beg leave to wish your honor a very happy New Year, and to express the hope that you may be spared to see many years of the new century, to which you have so pleasantly referred, and to enjoy in the future, as you have done in the past, in the high, and honorable position to which you have attained, the esteem and confidence of your fellow citizens.

GREAT FARMING INDUSTRY.

GREAT FARMING INDUSTRY.

F. M. Logan, the newly appointed superintendent of the R. W. Kinsman Co., Ltd., the barns of which were burned with such great loss of cattle and effects a short time ago, passed through the city last night on his way to Ontario. To a Sun reporter, who met him at the station, he said he was going first to Ottawa to consult with Hon. Dr. Borden, the minister of militia, concerning the reorganization of the company, after which he will spend the winter taking a special agricultural course in Guelph, Ont. He will also visit and inspect the leading farms in that province to get the latest and most improved methods of stock raising, etc., returning to Nova Scotia the first of May to enter upon his charge.

The R. W. Kinsman Co., Ltd., in which Hon. Dr. Borden is the principal shareholder, is promoted for the purpose of developing scientific and paying farming industry on a large scale in Kings Co., N. S. It owns 150 acres of orchard, 450 acres of fine dyke lands, and 2,000 acres of woodland. It is intended to build a magnificent new barn where the old one was burned, and another near by, with accommodation for 100 cows and 100 head of other stock. As dairying will forms a large part of the industry, a creamery will also be run in connection Mr. Logan, the nem manager, is prominent in dairying, having successfully conducted the Acadia Dairy Ob. in Woltville, N. S., for a number of years, the products of which, under his management, have taken prizes at all the recent exhibitions. After the extensive eourse in general agriculture and stock raising he parposes taking this winter, he should be capable of making a great success of this extensive industry.

EIGHT SUFFOCATED

Terrible Tragedy in the Harvard Hotel at Minneapolis.

Only Nineteen of the Twenty-seven in the Hotel at the Time the Fire Occured Escaped.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Jan. 6.— Daily and Sunday, by mail, $8 a year Eight men lost their lives in a fire at 115 Washington avenue at 3 o'clock this morning. The fire had its origin in the rear of the Standard Furniture Co. The men were overtaken by an intense volume of smoke in the Harvard hotel, which occupies the second, third and fourth floors of the building, and death in every instance was due to suffocation. When the men were found in various parts of the house a man named Erickson was dead and the seven others were unconscious. The fire was discovered by Chas. Hanson, who immediately apprised Geo. O'Connor, the night clerk, and the two men set about to awaken the lodgers. Hanson devoted his attention to the second floor, while O'Connor rushed up stairs. The men were all sound asleep and in several instances it was necessary for O'Connor to break in the doors. In the meantime he gave the alarm and the warning soon spread. What took place in the dingy rooms and narrow dark hallways will never be known. It was a case of every man rushing for his own life. Nineteen of the twenty-seven lodgers were successful, but the others were unable to beat their way through the oil smoke, and fell in their tracks, where they were found by the firemen. Many of those who escaped came staggering out on the snowy sidewalk like drunken men, barely making their way through the deadly smoke and heat and only partially clad.

The loss on building and contents will not exceed $3,000. The dead are: Nathaniel Perley, 60 years old; C. J. Skidmore, 45 years old; J. S. Bently, 55 years old; D. Schofield, 45 years old; Geo. Rudri, 45 years old; Michael Mon ahan, 75 years old; J. N. Erickson of Alexandria, Minn., 27 years old; -Jacobson, laborer, about 50 years old. The injured: Harry Cotton, badly cut

LOVE AT SIGHT.

Londan Army and Navy Illustrated, Dec. 15th.)

It is a trite saying that "the course of true love never doth run smooth," and we have now to explain how this paper has become involved in Cupid's wiles. We learn from our Canadian contemporary, the Empire, that a copy of the Navy and Army Illustrated, of July or August last, was found by a gallant Johannesburger lying on an armored train wrecked by the Boers. There is no report as to what befel its owner, but, for good or ill, it came into the hands of one whose fate it promises to modify profoundly. We published in two issues, of the months named, pictures of two companies of those fair Canadians who formed the "Lady Fusiliers" of St. John, New Brunswick. Many a letter have we received extolling their charms, but the Johannesburger was stirred to deeper feeling by the portrait of one of them, and wrote to the divinity, in terms which have not been disclosed though the Empire says they were extremely complimentary, and expressed the opinion that, if the Canadian girls were as good as the Canadian boys, they were "all right!" He was anxious that the young lady should corres-pond with him. But here comes in the best part of the story. It is alleged—though we will not plead guilty to the impeachment—that the names had got mixed up under the pictures, so that his letter did not reach the fair one whose picture had attracted him. But he was not left quite disconsolate, for the lady answered his letter, explained the mistake, and offered to help him to locate the right one. A very interesting situation that may be commended to the attention of novelists in quest of ideas. We await the sequel.
