

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

SHEFFIELD, Sunbury Co., Aug. 25.—The schools in the several districts have all opened after the summer vacation, with a few changes of teachers. Miss Craswell, who last term had charge of a school in York Co., has taken one at Clark's Corner. Miss Mabel Brown, who last term went through the Normal School, has been engaged by the McQuipit Lake school, and Alice Briggs the French Lake; otherwise the old teachers resume their schools, with the exception of Miss Alward, of whom we have spoken of before, who has the Sheffield Academy school, and Mrs. Sarah Kileen, Lower Tier, Little River.

J. D. Hazen, M. P. P., called upon his constituents in Sheffield last week, and all were glad to see him. It is expected he will have an easy walk of it next election; indeed, he may be elected by acclamation.

Thomas McKelvie, agent for the British and Foreign Bible Society for New Brunswick, spoke in the Congregational church on Sunday morning, at Lakeville in the afternoon, and at the Sheffield Methodist church in the evening in the interests of Bible work.

The Fredericton Church of England Sunday school, held their annual picnic on Tuesday, Aug. 19th, on the beautiful grounds of George T. Taylor at Taylortown, or Upper Sheffield. There was a large attendance. The Baptists and Presbyterians held their picnic on Thursday, the 21st, the former going to Swan Creek by steamer, Aberdeen, and the latter by Victoria to Taylortown. The weather for the Methodist picnic was unfavorable on Friday, so it was held on Saturday at Willow Bank.

A private picnic on Saturday landed at the Cambridge wharf, Willow Bank. It was given by Capt. J. F. Bridges on his barge, and was in honor of his friends and visitors, most of whom were here from Boston and suburbs, also some from St. John, Gagetown and Sheffield.

George Treadwell of Margerville, who has lately returned from a year's travelling in the great Northwest, spent Sunday with friends here.

Miss Lizzie Bridges, third daughter of Mrs. Jonathan Bridges, is home from Boston on a vacation, as is also H. A. Bridges, son of W. J. Bridges, who is doing business in Westvale, Mass.

I. Wallace Bridges by accident cut the end off of one of his fingers on Friday last, and is now in Fredericton undergoing surgical treatment.

Fred Tibbet of Little River, who went to the Sunbury Co. jail a couple of weeks ago for debt, etc., found out was not a very desirable place to live in and arranged to have the debt paid. He is now free.

MILLTOWN, Aug. 25.—The public schools open here next Tuesday, the 26th. There will be no change in the staff of teachers.

McADAM, Aug. 26.—The Catholic Society of McAdam, with commendable energy, held a supper and dance in the J. O. P. Hall to raise funds for the fencing and improving of the Roman Catholic church grounds. An energetic committee, headed by Mr. Planner and Mrs. Snodgrass, undertook the work of preparations. The hall was festooned with bunting and streamers. The platform was converted into a handsome parlor. The ticket office was remodelled and formed an excellent restaurant. The supper table was loaded with viands well calculated to tempt the appetite of the epicure.

The demand for seats was so great that the hungry laborer, an efficient committee of ladies, among whom may be mentioned Miss G. Ward, Miss Humphrey, Miss Sullivan, Miss Burnside, Miss Vickers, saw that all comers were well served. E. LaPlante, assisted by G. Humphrey and G. Lewis attended to the wants at the refreshment stand. C. Evans and J. Sullivan sold supper tickets.

As soon as the supper was over the hall was cleared and all made ready for a dance.

A. Mowatt, violinist, and Miss L. Green, pianist, furnished excellent music. W. Weeks was floor manager, with J. Johnson, C. Evans and O. Grant as aids. A thoroughly good concert was given. The hall was packed with people, and the evening was a most successful one.

The British steam four-masted ship Macbride, Capt. Ernest L. Anderson, of Sackville, N. B., arrived at St. John, N. B., on the 24th July, making the passage from Cardiff, Wales, in 53 days. Capt.
