THE MOMIES THE PLAYERS

A Picture for Puzzlers.

Jimmie's letter to Bob is represented by the words on the sheet. See how quickly you can read the words and fill in the blanks on the sheet as represented by some of the...

but at the present time it would hardly do to let you into the secret. Now for the story:

What excitement reigned in the house. Billie, Charlie and their sister, Jessie, could hardly wait to finish their breakfast, before they raced to get their hats, and run down to the depot.

The arrival of the mail-carrier bringing a letter from the children's favorite Uncle had been the cause of all the hurry and pleasure.

They had other relations, the arrival of whom would have been a treat for the sister and brothers, but this Uncle Jack, was their favorite, because he could give them such a time of fun and pleasure. The children called him their actor Uncle, because he was a very prominent actor, had acted for quite a long while now, and in the leading parts in several successful plays, in New York, and other big cities.

After not having paid a visit for nearly three years, he had written to say that he was on his way, and would be in St. John about Thursday morning. That was just the morning the letter arrived, so the children hurried down to meet him.

When the breathless kiddies had been waiting at the depot for quite a while, Charlie said:

"I think that we had better ask that attendant over there when the train will be coming, 'cos we may have to wait a long while," saying which he went over to where one of the station attendants was standing, and having asked him, and received the answer, he returned to the other two children looking very worried.

"What's the matter?" they both asked at once.

"The train arrived last night, and the next one is not until after twelve o'clock to-day," was Charlie's answer.

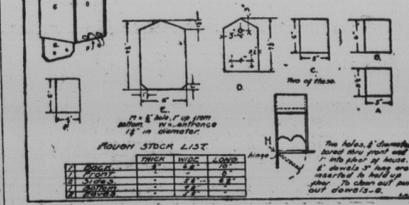

"Well it is no use waiting until then, as it's only nine o'clock now, and perhaps Uncle may have stayed somewhere else and come to our house this morning," was Billie's remark.

So, disappointed, all three wandered homeward. Sometime about eleven o'clock when mother had just given each of them a lovely pear, and told them not to worry, as Uncle was sure to turn up soon, and as they were just going to the door to have another look up the street to see if there was any sign of him, a knock came to the door. Billie made a rush, thinking it was Uncle at last, when opening it, he was confronted by an old man with a long flowing beard, and shaggy hair, protruding from his dusty and worn hat.

His clothes were also shabby, and altogether the poor man looked as if he needed someone to look after him.

RED CROSS SUPPER AT FAIRVIEW

The bean supper held in the hall at Fairview, July 28th, in aid of the Red Cross, was a decided success in every respect. The Red Cross ladies had spared no efforts to put up an appetizing supper. The arrangement was perfect and the whipped cream and jelly dessert completed an ideal luncheon. The sum of $88.40 was realized.

The Red Cross workers are deserving of much praise in making the occasion such a success. Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brown of Boston, who are visiting "down east" friends, also did much to help on the good work. Mrs. Brown's donation was $5.00 while Mr. Brown contributed a box of cigars, which realized $6.40 for the society.

The following is a summary of the work of the Red Cross in this locality since the beginning of the present year: 38 pairs of socks, 5 doz. handkerchiefs, 17 bandages, 6 pillow slips and 1 quilt.

There is now on hand a balance of $34.40. Mrs. Jas. Gamble is president; Mrs. H. Black, Sec.-Treas.

HOPEWELL HILL.

The regular meeting of the Patriotic League was held on Tuesday afternoon at the home of the secretary and was well attended. The president, Miss Russell, read a letter from Capt. Plummer thanking the League for a contribution of $25.

Miss Minnie Newcomb read a paper on the Red Cross work carried on in the rural districts throughout the Empire.

A box containing forty-two pairs of socks was packed, which will be sent to the front. At the close of the meeting the following resolution was moved by Mrs. McAlmon, seconded by Mrs. J. E. Rogers, and carried unanimously.

"Whereas, our Empire has entered upon the fourth year of this terrible war; resolved to make greater efforts than ever to overcome the enemy of civilization, and in those efforts, we nobly seconded by all her allies, we women of this Patriotic League, who have felt the grim tragedies of this war to which mildy is now turning her attention. Black pan velvet with pale peach colored wings is shown in the model picture.

Mrs. Clara Robinson, Mrs. J. E. Rogers and Mrs. McAlmon served ice cream and cake after which the meeting closed with singing the National Anthem.

SUCCESSFUL KNITTING PARTY. Through the efforts of Mrs. H. D. Burns, of Toronto, and Mrs. J. Royden Thomson of Ithaca, a most successful knitting party was held last Wednesday in the Casino at Smith's Cove, Nova Scotia. The summer guests at Harbor View and several from the neighboring villages were present. Dr. H. N. Broadbridge of Boston read a selection from the book "My Beloved Poland" which was very well received, amounting to forty dollars, which will be sent forward to assist Mrs. Warner in her hospital work in France.

THEATRE NOTES. IMPERIAL THEATRE. The audiences that visited the Imperial Theatre yesterday afternoon and night, were much pleased with the week-end programme. Among those present were many tourists from United States points, who appeared surprised that there was such fine orchestral music, such an excellent programme of picture plays, and last but not least, such an up-to-date theatre as far east, and this alone is one thing that will continue to place St. John on the map as a theatrical centre.

"The Magnificent Meddler" is a Vitaphone picture which is full of thrills from start to finish, and there is not a moment of the long reel that is not full of excitement and the very best of acting. Fights, struggles, escapes, the greatest of horsemanship, bad men and good men, with a very pretty plot, goes to make this picture a winner.

There is that interesting serial story "The Great Secret," featuring Francis X. Bushman and Miss Beverly Bayne. This episode proves better than the previous ones, and the story has certainly taken a grip on the Imperial patrons.

The same programme will be repeated at all performances today.

SOME DRAMA NOTES. Grace George is to return to the playhouse this autumn for a season of repertory, after a year in which she has been seeking new plays suited to her talents.

Jan Forbes-Robertson arrived in New York recently from England. He will appear in Guy Bates Post's support in "The Masquerader," which will be seen early in the fall at the Shubert, says the Dramatic Mirror.

PLAY FOR FAIRBANKS TWINS. The Fairbanks Sisters, who are appearing in Ziegfeld's "Follies," will be presented in the fall in a farce comedy with music, entitled "The Gold Dust Twins."

DREW-DEVEREAUX. Louise Drew, actress and only daughter of John Drew, was married Aug. 11 to Jack Devereaux, an actor, who recently has been appearing in motion pictures. The couple have been engaged for some time and the wedding was hastened because of Mr. Devereaux's departure for the officers' training camp at Plattsburg on Aug. 27.

Miss Drew made her debut on the stage in 1910, playing a maid in her father's company presenting "The Tyranny of Tears." Her last appearance on Broadway was in "The Days of Adversity," three seasons ago, in which she played the part of a French countess with great success.

Mr. Devereaux was born in Ireland 30 years ago. He was educated at Phillips Exeter Academy and Georgetown University. He became a member of William Courtenay's stock company in Albany several years ago. Last season he was seen in "His Majesty Bunker Bean" at the Astor Theatre.

LOGGIEVILLE

Loggieville, Aug. 14.—There was another fire in town last week. On Thursday fire was discovered breaking through the roof of Duncan McDonald's house. A crowd soon congregated and the blaze was extinguished without much damage being done to the building.

Mrs. A. D. Gillis and W. J. C. Scott, delegates to the Maritime Provinces Grand Lodge, I.O.O.F., which held annual session at Sydney last week, have returned home and speak in the highest terms of their trip. Mrs. Gillis was the representative from Starlight Bunkah lodge, and Mr. Scott from Unity lodge.

Dr. Rogers of Antigonish, who, for the past two weeks has been supplying Knox church pulpit, returned home today. During his stay here he made many friends among the old and young. He is a preacher of great ability. His sermon on the evening of the 12th dealt with the problem of suffering and was listened to with great interest by the large congregation present.

CAMPOBELLO.

Campobello, Aug. 14.—A very severe rain and heavy gale raged here Friday between the hours of 11 a. m. and 7 p. m. The rainfall was the heaviest for the season while the wind in its fury tore from their roots many large trees, one well known old willow near the Baptist church, which has stood for over a century, having been a victim. On Wednesday evening the society of the village convened at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Silas McLellan at a donation party for a certain young lady who is to participate at an early date in a very important event. The donation was of a miscellaneous variety and constituted a fine assortment.

Six of the young women of the village who have been enjoying an outing at Bunker Hill, returned home on Monday. Those present were the Misses Olive Mitchell, Gertrude Mitchell, Edith Calder, Georgia Calder, Edith Lank and Mary Vennell.

Rev. F. A. Currier and Rev. J. Stanley Durfee of Massachusetts, departed here today for Little New River where they will spend the next three weeks in fishing. They are expecting to bring back plenty of salmon and trout, both men being skilled anglers.
