As the details of the highway act, including upon shorefront rights, known widespread indignation. The attempts of the session, to these clauses is regarded as enough in itself to arouse suspicion and the perusal of the bill calculated to increase the same.

Many of the owners of property about the city have expressed to the premier and the legislature their willingness to delay action on the property owners' case until the highway bill is passed.

own defence. One of us is at present paying a fine but guard his beach and guard his property. It is necessary to protect his property from being endangered by others. Another gentleman adjoining a shore where others for recreation go, the beach has been taken away by the amount of money he would not only entire but probably allow away his land. These interests are willing the mercy of the judgment of the supervisors in a matter of the road supervisors. It is not only the fact that this may be a wedge which we to separate the public in the beaches and shore. It is not only the fact that John has been affected every shore on the coast.

Other Clauses Dangerous
There are other clauses which have not been in the legislature and which appear as dangerous. Provisions which would allow supervisors to enter upon lands and "carry away the highway stone, grub out down and carry bushes." It is true made for the appointment of three freeholders to a list of such depredations and to be "paid or tendered" by the owner but Boyd; Vice-president, Chas. Johnson; 1st vice-president, George E. Frauley; 2nd vice-president, Edw. L. McGarrigan; secretary-treasurer, Walter Devereaux; Trustees—J. E. Boyd, A. C. Grant, Capt. James McLeod, Geo. E. Craig, L. W. Murray, C. H. McGee, M. E. Baldwin, E. J. O'Neill and Ira Miller.

Three new members were taken in—Manager Arnold, of the Bank of Nova Scotia; E. A. Grearson and I. E. Gillmor.

The proposed change in the time table of the New Brunswick Southern was taken up. It was the opinion of the board that the change would not be of any benefit to the town, as the same number of the train in St. John would be appreciated.

Communications were read from the St. John board of trade referring to traffic in coal, which had been discussed by Stephen Boyd in reference to the action taken by them a year ago in regard to charters granted for Charlotte county, the St. Stephen board disclaiming any interest in the corporations mentioned. Mr. George and other sections of the county.

The proposed charter for a line to Back Bay was then taken up. After some discussion it was decided to recommend that the corporations mentioned support the bill as it stood at present. Objections had been raised by the committee over a number of sections referred to by Mr. G. E. Baldwin, who stated on the board that no interests would suffer if the charter were granted as asked by the delegation to Fredericton and the members from Charlotte county, James E. G. and M. E. Baldwin; accompanied G. E. Marsh to Fredericton yesterday to appear before the corporations committee in support of the charter asked for by G. E. Marsh.

Lieut. Davies Gillmor, son of Senator Gillmor, has been distinguishing himself at the Hotel Cecil, Spirit Lake, where a large number of Austrians are quartered. In a break for freedom two of the prisoners get forty miles from camp, a trapper brought word of their whereabouts and they returned to camp and went after them. It meant an eighty mile trip behind dogs and the mercury in the neighborhood of 40 below. The friends here thought the feat was hardly known country that the snow had made most difficult to follow. They were obliged to spend several nights in the open, digging a shelter for themselves under the lee of a hill and were forced to travel all day towards the T. N. O. railway. A dispatch of revolvers knocked the fight out of the foreigners, who were at first inclined to resist, but after a hard trip back to camp, but the prisoners were landed. The young men were highly commended by their superiors for their work.

Evening the Ladies' Aid of the Methodist Church, will give a musical entertainment in the new lecture hall in aid of the improvements fund.

The treasurer, J. E. Angeline, made a gratifying report on the financial situation of the association, and the money would be available to meet engagements as they fall due, leaving it necessary to give only a $2,000 mortgage on the hall, which was the same as the money would be cleared off in good time. The gathering was very informal, the social element being prominent, with music, both vocal and instrumental, and a number of other games, and other sources of enjoyment, including a bountiful supply of tea, biscuits, various kinds of cake, and luscious coffee, and a fine entertainment. The "Fighting" was entered by Mr. Sprout, very much enjoyed. A silver collection
