Townsmen Henry reports that a number of motor car drivers disregard the traffic rules, particularly as regards the warning of the stationary traffic officers to keep to the right at street intersections. Even some of the town fathers said to be negligent in this respect. It is a good rule for drivers to accustom themselves to the traffic rules, even though it may not appear in all instances necessary for safety. By observing the rules carefully at all times it becomes automatically a habit and they are practically assured of doing the right thing in an emergency. It might be well to point out, too, that the lawbreaker is always liable to prosecution and is more likely to be assessed the damages in case of collision or other mishap.

Anniversary services were held in the Presbyterian church on Sunday, conducted by Rev. Mr. Owen of Chatham. The choir was assisted by B. Solos were given by Mr. Sedman of London and little Miss Margaret Dickson, vocal duets by Misses Elizabeth and Mayne Grant and Miss Olive Watts and Ross Lethbridge, reading by Miss Mayne Grant, and piano solo by Mr. Gray, organist of the church. The speakers were Rev. C. H. P. Owen of Tyrone; Rev. A. A. Graham, principal of Moosejaw college, and local ministers. Rev. D. G. Paton was chairman. A special offering on Sunday and Monday evening's proceeds were very gratifying, there being large congregations on Sunday and the social evening was well attended.
