DEMAND FOR STATE INSURANCE OF SOLDIERS IS GROWING

Officers and Men Going on Active Service Protecting Against Rates Quoted For New Policies Which Are Prohibitory.

London, February 5.—Protests continue to be made by officers and others going on active service that the rates for new policies quoted by life offices—that the rates for new policies quoted by life offices—that is, by those which will do business of this kind at all—are so high as to be prohibitory. The offices, basing their action on mature consider ation, are extremely cautious in accepting such risks at any price. The original recommendation of the Life Officers' Association was that £7 7s. per cent. should be charged for new policies on the lives of combatants, but that dation has been withdrawn, and companies re asking all kinds of rates, from £7 7s. upwards some of them frankly stating they do not want the

It is again being suggested that the time is ripe for some scheme under which the State would assume onsibility for special risks of military service, but there are many opponents of that idea.

Evidence continues to be furnished to prove that 1914, whatever reasons there may be for describing as a black year, was quite a favorable period for the acquisition of new business by life assurance in-The latest office to announce a successful satisfaction of intimating a fresh "record" in new usiness, this gratifying result being attributed partof branch officials and agents.

AGENTS HAD TO PAY CLAIM.

A decision of great interest and importance to fire companies and agents was rendered at Sydney, N.S., by His Honor Judge Finlayson, recently. Messrs. Mon Wetmore & Co. are the local agents for the Globe Mon and Rutgers Fire Insurance Company o fNew York, and they accepted a risk without instructions from the underwriters. A policy was issued and a claim for damages amounting to $314 had to be paid by the The company thereupon sued the agents for this amount and won the case,
