Regina, April 23, 1932.

The Right Honourable Arthur Meighen,
The Senate,
Ottawa, Ontario.

Dear Mr. Meighen:

I hasten to assure you of my sincere appreciation of your frank statement contained in your confidential letter of April 19th. Your suggestion is exactly what I expected would come from you.

The way the matter stands at the moment I expect to be approached by the insurgents referred to in my other letter some time during the summer.

I appreciate very much, indeed, your expressed confidence in the Honourable M. A. MacPherson. My opinion of him is the same as yours. I am insisting that he take a holiday very shortly and he will be in Eastern Canada and I am going to ask him to discuss this whole situation with you.

With kindest personal regards.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in dark ink, appearing to be "J. M. MacPherson". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, sweeping initial "J" and "M".
