been trained since our youth, and in the thought that "my flower has climbed the garden-wall and blossomed on the other side".

Mrs. Stanley and William desire me to thank you sincerely for your kindly sympathy and your gracious expressions.

Sincerely yours

² Our friends know, that if man can love, we loved Muriel. Your very kind sister Annie call tell you that she was a beautiful girl in every sense of the word. She lived a beautiful life, she thought beautiful thoughts, she spoke beautiful words. I never knew her to do an unkind act or to say an unkind word. I am truly proud to have been her father. Her mother and I cherish the happiest memories of her short but useful life. There is a comforting satisfaction in that belief respecting the hereafter, to which we have
