TO SUBSCRIBERS.

Our next number will conclude the half-year. We shall be glad to receive the payment of subscriptions. In that number will be concluded the "Tale of Mission Life;" we shall also furnish a number of articles suitable for Christmas time.

With the January number the second half-year will commence. It will contain the beginning of a new Story of thrilling interest, by a popular author. Arrangements are also making for increased literary assistance; and we hope to furnish a series of short and able papers, unsurpassed in interest and talent in any periodical of the day. We desire a large increase in the number of our subscribers. Our object is to make the Magazine worthy a place in every Church family in the Dominion; we shall not be satisfied, indeed, until it is generally received and read. New subscribers can still send in their names either for the whole year, or beginning with the January number for the half-year.
