

"Honorable Gentlemen of the Legislative Council, and Gentlemen of the House of Assembly,

"I am commanded by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor to acquaint you that he doth not think fit to declare the causes for which he has summoned this General Assembly, until there be a Speaker of the House of Assembly: It is therefore His Excellency's pleasure that you, Gentlemen of the House of Assembly, do repair to the place where the sittings of the House of Assembly are usually held, and there choose a fit person to be your Speaker; and that you present the person who shall be so chosen to His Excellency, in this House, forthwith, for his approbation."

The House of Assembly then withdrew, and after some time was again commanded to attend; and being come,

Mr. Simonds said—

"May it please Your Excellency,

"Your Excellency having communicated your pleasure to the Assembly, they returned to the place where they usually deliberate; they immediately proceeded to choose a Speaker, and have elected me to that important office and honorable situation, and they now present me to be approved of by Your Excellency."

The President of this House said—

"Mr. Simonds,

"I am commanded by His Excellency the Lieutenant Governor to assure you, that he is fully sensible of your zeal for the public service, and of your sufficiency to execute the duties of the office to which you have been elected by the House of Assembly, and that he doth most readily approve of their choice, and allow and confirm you to be their Speaker."

Then the Speaker of the Assembly said—

"May it please Your Excellency,

"Your Excellency having been pleased to approve of the choice which the Assembly have made, and to confirm me to be their Speaker, it becomes my duty, in the name of the Assembly, and on their behalf, to claim and demand that they have all their ancient and accustomed privileges; especially that they have freedom of speech—freedom from arrest—access to Your Excellency whenever the public service may require it; and that the most favourable construction be put upon all their proceedings: And for myself I have to intreat that any error of mine may not be imputed to the Assembly."

Then the President of this House said—

"Mr. Speaker,

"His Excellency hath the utmost confidence in the loyalty and attachment of this House of Assembly to Her Majesty's Person and Government, and in the wisdom, temper and prudence which will accompany all their proceedings; and he doth most readily and willingly grant and allow them all their privileges in as full and ample a manner as they have at any time heretofore been granted and allowed.

"With
