That the Greatest Ball in Eldor ado's History

Was Oiven by Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stanley and Chas. Worde Their Claim Monday Night.

From Wednesdar's Dailv.
The most notable event that The most notable event that has yet taken place on Eldorado creek was the big ball given by the Kangarou Club the Stanley and Worden claims last Monday night. This club is composed of some 50 members, all employees of of some 50 members, all employees of general good will displayed than among general good will displayed than among the employees on 24,25 and 26 Eldo rado. This is largely due to the exis ence of the Kangaroo clab, of whem the proprietors themselves are members. Sam Stanles's jolly spirit pervades everything; and the boys know that they can always come to their em. ployers and thave any difficulties ployers and have any difficultie amicably adjusted. The large hall which is situated on 26 Eldorado is capable of accommodat ing a huudred guests. On this occasion, St. Patrick's ball, the interior was beautitully decorated with bunting, scription and color, green being largely predominant. The Stars and Stripes and British fla Large fur robes were nung on the sides of the walls for comfort an warmth. Evergreens tastefully decorat ed, were placed clear across the front of the hall.

Almost the first thing that greets the guests eye is the large motto "p guests eye is the large motto "Passa De Bot." Another inscription just over the door reads: "Ced Mele Falta" this is Kangaroo Gaelic, meaning " thousand welcomes." High up on the end wall are seen the large letters K B. (Kangaroo Brotherhood). The colors of the club are red, white and green. With these various preparations, it is not surprising that St. Patrick's ball on 26 Eldorado is the topic of conversation on the creeks, due to the able management of the reception committee composed of the lowing gentlemen: Messrs. R ton, $\mathrm{H} . \mathrm{C}$. Horstman
