WRIGHT-LOCKRIDGE

Bright and early on Wednesday, September 2nd, an event of more than usual interest occurred in Christ durch Tamworth, when Rev. John De Pencier Wright, M. A., restor of Roalin, was married to Miss Looy Lookridge, Tamworth Rev. Mr. Jones officioted, assisted by Bural Dwan Wright, of Atlenn, father of the bridegroom. The bride, dressed in white cheviot elaborately trimmed with Torebon, was given away by her brother, Dr. Stewart Lookridge, Na panee. Her gown was made of brewn oloth. Mrs. S. Lookridge excellently presided at the organ and the chancel and altar were used profusely de-corated with the choicest white flowers, The wedding service was followed by the Holy Communion, after which the happy couple left on the early train for Kingston, Toronto and the lakes. They will take with them the best-wishen of all the community. Every one of these preparatio is guaranteed and if not fully sat-isfactory to the purchaser the vishes of all the community. Dysentery causes the death of more people than small pox and yellow fever combined. In an army it is dreaded more than a battle. It requires prompt and effective treatment. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has been used in nine epidemics of dysentery in the United States with pefect success, and has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions. Marshal Lord Roberts, Lord Molseley and other generals give various rea-sens for the failures of the war. Lord Roberts considered the initial error of strategy was practically in-retrievable. He criticized the War Office with regard to the general pre-parations and equipment, the first plan of campaign, the under-estimat-ing of the enemy and ignorance as to the geography and extent of the coun-try and the lack of artillery and mounted infantry. General Sir Redvers Buller said he Was hampered by the refusal of the War Office to accept his plans and the failure on the part of the War Office to give him definite instruc-tions and information.
