

AFRAID SHE WAS DYING

Suffered Terribly Until She Took "Fruit-a-lives"

St. JEROME, N.B., Jan. 27th, 1914.
"After suffering for a long time with Dyspepsia, I have been cured by 'Fruit-a-lives'. I suffered so much that I would not dare eat for I was afraid of dying. Five years ago, I received samples of 'Fruit-a-lives'. I did not wish to try them for I had little confidence in them but, seeing my husband's anxiety, I decided to do so and at once I felt relief. Then I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was cured. While sick, I lost several pounds, but after taking 'Fruit-a-lives', I quickly regained what I had lost. Now I eat, sleep and digest well—in a word, I am completely cured, thanks to 'Fruit-a-lives'."

Perth Valley

Miss Murial Armstrong of Carleton spent Sunday with her parents.

Mrs. Handy Nevers who has been undergoing treatment at the Woodstock Hospital returned home Friday.

Miss Gertrude Carr who has been visiting relatives at this place returned home Wednesday. Fred Ross of Fredericton was the guest of Faye Armstrong over Sunday.

Miss Grace Jackson of Brighton is visiting Mrs. Vernon McAllister.

Wiley West has returned home after spending a few days with friends in Houlton and Jacksonville.

Mrs. Harley Lunn and daughter, Eleanor, are visiting Mrs. Lunn's brother in Easton.

The members of the Red Cross society of Kilmarnock drove to Perth last week where they were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. Marshall Armstrong.

Miss Faye Armstrong gave a driving party to sixteen of her friends Monday evening. The young folks drove to Rowena where they were entertained at the home of Henry Boone. On arriving at the house a hot supper was served by the Misses Grace Boone and Jennie McClay which was much enjoyed by all. They were chaperoned by Mrs. E. E. Armstrong.

IF YOUR CHILD IS CROSS, FEVERISH, CONSTIPATED

Look Mother! If tongue is coated, cleanse little bowels with "Calomel Syrup of Figs."

Mothers can rest easy after giving "Calomel Syrup of Figs" because in a few hours all the clogged-up waste, sour bile and fermenting food gently moves out of the bowels, and you have a well, playful child again.

Small children need to be coaxed to take this harmless "Fruit Laxative." Millions of mothers keep it handy because they know its action on the stomach, liver and bowels is prompt and sure.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "Calomel Syrup of Figs," which contains directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups.

Mrs. Everett London

The home of Everett London of Easton on March 2 was made extremely sad by the death of his beloved wife Della Pearl at the age of 21 years, seven months and 16 days.

Mrs. London was the daughter of the late Finley Cogswell, and had not enjoyed good health for some time, yet put up a brave fight for life, spending five months at the sanatorium at Hebron.

The deceased in March, 1914, made a profession of faith in Christ, on the 29th day of the same month followed her Lord in the solemn ordinance of baptism at Plaster Rock, N. B., remaining an ardent follower of Christ ever since, and carrying with her that influence which led the many she came in touch with to believe that she "had been with Jesus." Being a sweet singer, Eternity alone will reveal the work she did for her Lord through the power of song, in the short time she had the privilege of working in his vineyard.

While her married life was of only two years and six months duration, her Christian life was even shorter, being a few days less than one year. How loudly this speaks to the living that we should use the days as they come and go to the honor and glory of God.

Mrs. London leaves to mourn her loss, a husband, a mother, Mrs. James Kiggins, one sister, Louise, two brothers, Alva and Charles, with a large number of near relatives. Also a large circle of friends in both New Brunswick and Maine.

The funeral service was held in the Free Baptist church, Spragues Mills, Rev. Archibald Hatfield of Plaster Rock conducting the service, assisted by the pastor of the church, Rev. Mr. Clark. The text was James 4:14. The choir consisted of Mrs. Roy White, organist, Mrs. Eldin White, Mrs. Roy Kneeland, Selton Wheeler and Charles Flewelling.

Friends of the deceased wish to express their appreciation to Dora Stanchfield for the efficient manner in which he acted as funeral director.

May each one who mourns the loss of the departed one be willing to say "Thy will be done, not mine." She cannot come to us, but we can go to her. Glory be to him who has conquered every foe.

TAKE OFF DANDELION, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your hair! Get a 25 cent bottle of Dandelion right now. Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is mute evidence of a neglected scalp, of dandruff—that awful scourge. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a feverishness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Dandelion tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandelion from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dandelion. Save your hair! Try it.

"The March to the Battlefield; or, Canada's Men on the Way"

The above is the title given to a picture that will for many years to come be a highly prized treasure. It is a photographic reproduction showing the 32,000 men of Canada's first contingent breaking camp and on the march to join the Continental forces. It shows miles and miles of the white tents and the marching men. It is a most inspiring sight. The size is 20 x 46 inches, all ready for framing. This picture is sure to be a popular souvenir of the war as far as Canada is concerned, and will be in great demand. It is owned by The Family Herald, of Montreal and Weekly Star, of Montreal, and a copy is being presented to all subscribers to that great national weekly newspaper, The Family Herald, Montreal, whose subscription of one dollar a year is received from this date for a limited period.

C. P. R. Improvements This Year

Andrew Williams, superintendent of the northern sub-division of the Atlantic Division of the C. P. R., left yesterday afternoon for Woodstock after his visit to Fredericton for inspection purposes. While construction work on the C. P. R. has been curtailed for the coming season, there will be twenty-five miles of line ballasted and ten miles of new steel laid on the sub-division

Three Boxes Cured His Rheumatism.

It cost Mr. Moore's father just $1.50 to be cured of chronic Rheumatism from which he had suffered for years. Just three boxes of GIN PILLS at 50c a box, completely cured him and today he has not a sign of Rheumatism.

GIN PILLS

Newbury, Ont., April 29th.
"My father has been troubled with Rheumatism for a number of years, having tried two doctors and getting no relief. He was finally cured by a box of GIN PILLS. He purchased a box and after taking them for a week, found that they gave him relief. He then purchased three more boxes which were the means of curing him. He is now a strong man in good health able to attend to his daily work. For this great change, all the credit is due to GIN PILLS."

ALEX. MOORE.

Mogul Oil Engines

The International Harvester Mogul Oil Engine is the latest development in internal combustion engine of throttle governor type, an engine that will run on either kerosene oil or gasoline. The feature above is great advantage over the ordinary gasoline engine. Furthermore, kerosene has greater explosive power, at considerably less cost and much less danger in handling. The Mogul Engine is constructed with enclosed crank case and mechanically operated valves and has automatic force feed oiler on a H. P. This engine is made in sizes from 1 to 60 horse power, equipped with magneto at the factory. Every Mogul Engine will develop 20% more than its rated horse-power before it leaves the factory. The 1 1/2 H. P. is absolutely frost proof and does not have to be drained off even in the coldest weather. For further information or catalogues apply to the nearest McCormick local agent.
