To Tramp to Woodstock.

The members of the Y. M. C. A. Gypsy Hikers who last year walked from Saint John to this city, are arranging a similar trip to this city and on as far as Woodstock in July.

Address on Temperance.

A mass temperance meeting addressed by Captain Howland of the Salvation Army was held at the I. O. G. T. hall yesterday afternoon. Mr. Samuel Baxter presided and about one hundred persons were present.

Successful Revival Services.

The revival services which have been going on at the Gibson United Baptist Church was continued again on Sunday and the largest congregation was present that has been in the church since the present pastor took charge.

Left for the West.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Burke and two children of Stanley, who have been spending a week with Mrs. Burke's sister, Mrs. N. J. Golding, Jr., at St. John, left on Saturday night for Vancouver. They will reside in the west.

Palm Sunday.

Yesterday was Palm Sunday, and special services were held in the Roman Catholic churches in this vicinity. At St. Dunstan's church yesterday morning Mr. S. B. Legere, of P. P. for Gloucester county, sang a solo at the offertory.

Returning to Chatham.

Mrs. L. J. Tweedie, wife of Lieut. Governor Tweedie, who has been here during the session, expects to leave for her home at Chatham this evening. As the session of the legislature is about at an end, no more receptions will be held before prorogation.

Going to Cavalry School.

Lieut. D. H. VanWart and Lieut. Anderson who lately joined the new Dragon Regiment will leave for St. John's this evening for a short course at the cavalry school of instruction. Major F. P. Day will leave for St. John's during the week and will spend the Easter vacation at the school.

Fire at Baracks.

The firemen were called out about ten o'clock by an alarm for a fire in the basement of the drill hall. The blaze, which was only a small one, was extinguished without turning on the hose. The fire was around a defective grate in the basement of the drill hall in the same place where it occurred a few days ago.

A Successful Broker.

Mr. G. W. Farrell, who has become a leading stock broker of Montreal, will sail from Halifax on Saturday for Europe. During his absence, Mr. Farrell will establish a branch in Paris—Halifax Recorder. Mr. Farrell is well known here, having spent some time in this city several years ago taking an extended course at the Military School.

Moving to St. John.

Mr. A. E. Massey, who will shortly become provincial manager at Saint John of the Consolidated Rubber Company, will move his family to that city within the next couple of months. Going West.

Mr. Raymond Archibald, who for the past six years has been the representative of the Sherwin-Williams paint people in the Maritime Provinces, leaves the end of the month for Saskatoon where he will be manager of the Enterprise Hardware Company, a wholesale business. Mr. Archibald is now in the city making his last call on the local trade.

Going West.

Mr. Harry Grant and Mr. John Rockwell, both of Lower Southampton, and Mr. Arlo Wright of Upper Southampton, will leave this evening for the West. The young men intend going to Craik, Sask., where they will likely stay for two or three years. Mr. Grant and Mr. Wright spent last winter here, taking a course at the Business College, which proved very successful to them. Their many friends in Fredericton and their home communities wish them much success in the future.

At the Opera House.

Few attractions have been found more pleasing or delightful than Milled and Ronclere in their successful glittering imaginative fantasy, Princess Iris, which will be presented at the Opera House on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, and there are few stars more capable than these sterling young artists in their line of work or more deserving of the success. Among the many novel features of the performance is Mr. Ronclere's latest scenic conception, Azra, showing the actual floating in the air over the stage and part of the auditorium of a living woman. Secure your seats in advance so as to insure against disappointment.

THE LIVE STOCK TO ARRIVE TODAY FOR THE SALE

Ayrshire Cattle Purchased in Ontario Coming on the Intercolonial

WELL BRED HORSES IN CONSIGNMENTS

Horses Recently Imported From Old Country Will Arrive by C. P. R. Tonight

The Ayrshire cattle bought for the Provincial Department of Agriculture by Mr. Geo. E. Fisher of Chatham, will arrive on the I. C. R. this evening, twenty-eight head in all. They will be taken immediately to the exhibition grounds where stalls have been put in readiness for them.

There are fourteen cows and heifers and fourteen bulls in the lot, all of them of families with high records of milk production. Among them are Nellie Osborne, 4th of Blushade, from the herd of A. S. Turner & Sons, Ryckmond Corner, out of a descendant of the great Nellie Osborne of World's Fair fame; Queenie, with a daily record of 50 lbs. of milk, testing 4.6 percent butter fat; Spotty, of Sticky Hill, whose dam won first place in the Guelph Winter Fair, 1910; Forget-me-not, 2nd of the Sticky Hill, whose dam was a winner at the Ontario Milk Fair of 1909, and has a milk record of 60 lbs per day with her second calf. The bulls also are out of the trend of performance cows and brought to New Brunswick not for their good looks but to improve the milking qualities of the stock.

Other Consignments.

Mr. R. A. Snowball of Chatham will send three young Shorthorn bulls to the sale, all excellent individuals, and one of them from a cow with a milk record of 60 lbs of milk per day. He will also offer two young stallions, one a Hackney that has been a winner wherever shown and need only to be seen moving to be acknowledged as one of the handsomest carriage horses for his age ever seen. At last year's exhibition he carried off all first prizes at St. John, Charlottetown and Halifax and as a foal in 1909 won the championship for any carriage horse of any age or breed.

Mr. C. H. Giles is offering his great Holstein bull, Eke de Kol, Jr., whose family milking records are among the very highest in the world.

Well Bred Horses.

Mr. Snowball is also offering the prize money Clydesdale stallion "Chatham Fame," whose sire and dam were both imported from Scotland, and promises to be one of the best Clydesdales in the province. He was greatly admired at the recent Amateur Horse Show where he was a winner in his class.

A. H. Thomson, who has done such good service to the stock breeders of the province by his previous importations, is offering six young Clydesdale mares of excellent breeding and handled about a month ago at St. John, direct from Scotland. These mares are sired by such noted Scotch stallions as Baron Cedric, Silver Cup, Argosy and Black Sensation, and while they are not fattened up for sale or show purposes, the good horsemen cannot fail to note their splendid quality, constitution and strength of loin and quarters.

Mr. Thomson will also have for private sale at Phair's stables two splendid Clydesdale stallions and two cherchons. His stock will arrive by C. P. R. from St. John this evening and may also offer two young stallions.

Mr. H. C. Jewett is offering his well known French Cosch stallion "Galloway," a very successful producer of good colts, and a number of thoroughbred will also be offered including the Kentucky mare "The Charmer," owned by A. A. Laffin, St. Stephen, a very large and handsome yearling stallion standing 15 hands and weighing 1650 lbs., offered by J. H. Taylor, Rothesay. This colt is out of the great 1350 lbs mare "Splice" for which Mr. Taylor paid $500 at the St. John sale in 1909.

Sheriff Williams of Gagetown is offering a stallion out of Lawson Pink, one of the best of the Kentucky importations, and Mr. M. Scovill is also offering his young stallion, a grandson of the great "Hannover" with some of the strongest blood lines possible to be combined in one animal. The Department of Agriculture has arranged to refund the freight paid by purchasers from Fredericton to the station nearest their homes.

Star Programme at Bijou.

Miss Barclay a very sweet soprano singer. The Vitagraph comedy, "The New Stenograph," is full laughs. The Test, a Lubin drama with Flo Lawrence taking part. Lieut. Scott's Narrow Escape. This is a western picture, filled with the stir and action of the old-time life of the plains. This swell programme is too good to miss.

Confirmation at St. John.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson confirmed eighteen candidates at St. John's Stone church, St. John, on Sunday.

Miss Edith Malloy of Fredericton is visiting friends in St. John West.

YORK COUNTY PEOPLE WILL GET RICH ESTATE

With Mr. Andrew McLeod of Lincoln Others Will Get $13,000 Each

BACHELOR BROTHER DIED IN CALIFORNIA

Letter From San Francisco Lawyer Tells of Estate Gathered in 42 Years

Mr. Andrew McLeod, of Lincoln, has received a letter from an attorney-at-law at San Francisco, California, announcing the death at that place of his brother, Mr. Hugh McLeod, who left here for the Western States about forty-two years ago. The letter also states that the old gentleman, who was a rich bachelor, had been engaged in mining, farming and lumbering, and had left a large estate.

When spoken to today regarding the matter Mr. David McLeod, son of Mr. Alex. McLeod, of Lincoln, another brother, Mr. George McLeod, of Temperance Vale, and a sister, Mrs. J. A. Farnham, of Southampton. It is reported that the fortune left by the deceased gentleman is in the vicinity of $40,000, which would be about $13,000 each, for the brothers and sister residing in this vicinity. Mr. David McLeod says, however, that he is not in a position to make any definite statement regarding the amount, which may exceed that figure, and then again may not be so much. It is probable that arrangements will be made by the heirs to send Mr. David McLeod to San Francisco to wind up matters connected with the estate.

Arrested in Jail.

At the police court this morning one drunk, who was arrested on Sunday while paying a visit to a friend at the county jail, made a deposit. The man called to see a prisoner serving a term for robbery and it is said was so full when he arrived that he was locked up in one of the cells and later taken to the police station. The charge against a young man charged with disturbing a civil meeting was adjourned until Thursday next. The young man was present in the police court and expressed his sorrow at causing the trouble. He also promised if let off to be good in future.

Fractured Her Arm.

Word has been received that Mrs. B. M. Mullin, of St. Marys, who with her husband, Dr. Mullin, has been spending a few days at Boston, fractured her arm in an accident in that city yesterday. No particulars have as yet been received. Dr. Mullin will arrive here from Boston tomorrow at noon, and Miss Ethel Mullin will go to Boston this evening to be with her mother.

BURGLARS ENTER NEW YORK HOME OF WM. C. ROBERTS

Carried Off Articles Valued at Upwards of $300 When Family Were Out

INTRUDERS HAVE NOT BEEN ARRESTED

Fredericton Man is Engaged in Literary Work in New York

Burglars entered the home at New York of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Roberts, formerly of this city, last week, and carried off articles valued at about $300. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were absent from home at the time and when they returned found everything turned upside down and evidences of a complete search for loot on the part of the burglars. Mr. Roberts is a son of the late Rev. Canon Roberts, formerly rector of St. Ann's Church and is engaged in literary work in New York. He lives on 45th street.
