1887

It is reported that within the past few days sales of tinned salmon of the 1887 pack have been effected to English parties which aggregate $300,000, at $5 per case. The rivers south of the line show a great falling off in the usual pack and prices for British Columbia salmon may go still higher.—Victoria, B. C., Colonist July 29.

MACON, Georgia, Aug. 7.—Last night, about 12 miles from here, Captain Richard Woolfalk, a well-known farmer, his wife, four children and Mrs. West, aunt of Mrs. Woolfalk, were found murdered in their house, having been knocked in the head and their throats cut. Thomas G. Woolfalk, a son of Capt. Woolfalk by the first wife is suspected of the crime. He has been arrested.

The St. Stephen correspondent of the Calais Times writes to that paper as follows: "The Scott Act is proving itself to be workable after all. The police magistrate has paid the treasurer about $800 in fines from liquor men this month, and there are more to follow. One man refused to pay last week and was sent to jail, but he evidently did not like his lodgings and concluded to pay up, which he did."

The Fredericton Reporter, speaking of the Short Line and Central Railways, says: It is just possible that Fredericton may be made the site of the new railway works in connection with the Short Line Railway. Mr. Hogan says that if the people of Fredericton try hard they may be successful in securing these works. It is expected that the Central Railway will not come to Gibson, but will go directly to Marysville. This will be a good thing for this growing town.

BELFAST, Aug. 7.—A party of the Nationalist members of the order of Foresters went to Port Rush to-day on two special trains. They were met at Port Rush station by a band of Orangemen. A sharp fight ensued; bottles and stones were used. The decent inhabitants and English and American tourists took refuge in houses. The disturbance was finally quelled by the police. While returning to Belfast the Nationalists were stoned all along the line by Orangemen.

The election Tuesday in Bridgetown division, Glasgow, to fill the parliamentary seat vacant by the resignation of E. R. Russell, home rule liberal, who at the last election received 4,364 votes against 3,567 for the conservative, resulted in the return of Sir George Otto Trevelyan. The liberal vote was 4,654; Evelyn Ashley, unionist nominee, receiving 3,353. Trevelyan's victory is felt in conservative circles to be the severest blow that the unionist cause has yet experienced. The home rulers are jubilant.

General Clinton B. Fisk, whom all prohibitionists reckon among the presidents of the future, spoke in Minneapolis a couple of days ago. He said: "The result of the election next year will depend altogether on the labor movement, and if the workingmen should nominate a strong man it would weaken the democratic party more than the prohibition party would weaken the republicans. This would be empathically true in New York I should not be surprised to see an alliance between prohibition and labor in the next twelve months."

In Los Andes, Chili, lived a man who hated a family that resided near him. When smallpox appeared in the province recently he secretly obtained a number of dried postules, and these he placed inside a plug of tobacco, which he threw away in a place where the people he hated were likely to see it. One of the children picked up the tobacco and gave it to her parents, who made cigarettes from it and smoked them. A few days afterwards smallpox broke out in the house, and with such virulence that none of the family escaped. The criminal, however, was attacked with the disease a few days afterwards and died after confessing the crime.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Aug. 5.—Last night Mrs. Owen Hade, living near Etna, Pa., left her four little children in the house while she carried her husband's supper to him. During her absence the oldest child, Eddie, aged eight years, took the oil can and poured the fluid in the stove, as he had often seen his mother do when she started the fire. An explosion followed, and the burning oil was scattered over the room enveloping the four children, who were all terribly burned, and the youngest died in a short time. The others, Eddie, Sophie and Johnny, aged 8, 6 and 3 years respectively, are in the throes of death.

A temperance victory, second only to that of Atlanta, was achieved July 7, when Floyd county, Georgia, containing Rome, voted Prohibition. Prof. Scomp describes the scene at the polls as one never to be forgotten. A thousand people were gathered around the court house door to hear the result. When it was announced, "Prohibition carried by over two hundred majority!" a mighty shout went up; then a leading singer started, "Nearer, my God, to Thee," which was sung with thrilling effect as though all hearts felt that the vote had brought them nearer to God. "Praise God, from whom all blessings flow," followed and the benediction was pronounced. Surely gospel politics is being ushered in.

For the past couple of months seamen have been very scarce in St. John, and much difficulty has been experienced in procuring crews. The jails were resorted to, and it is said "blood" money was freely offered, but notwithstanding the fact that young men who knew more about handling a rake than about splicing a rope found no trouble in shipping, many vessels were obliged to remain waiting at the Island for days for a full compliment of men. The port is now completely bare of sailors and the owners of the bark Hypatia were obliged to send to the United States for men to man the vessel. The reason assigned for the scarcity is the low wages offered in the early spring, when the rates were only $14 per month and $20 for the run to U. K. or continent. Seamen, it is said, became disgusted at such wages, and sought American ports, where higher rates prevailed.—St. John Globe.

A Harvey station correspondent of the St. Croix Courier writes: Public attention here of late has been largely occupied with a ghost story, about which I must tell the readers of the Courier. An old man, John Nay by name, departed this life about a year ago. He lived and died with his son George and George's wife, out at Acton. There had been some altercation between the old man, whilst in the body, and his son. He threatened George at that time that, if such a thing were possible, he would haunt the house after his departure, and sure enough he has not forgotten to do so. Not long ago his ghostship appeared to Mrs. Nay. Subsequently he made his appearance to George in the cellar. Both have in consequence left the house and are now with Thomas Nay, a brother who has a house on the lot adjoining. No one will volunteer to stay in the haunted house and risk an encounter with the ghost for less than ten dollars.

BLACKVILLE NOTES.

BLACKVILLE, Aug. 1.—On Thursday last Thos. Rideout, Esq., inspector of railways for the dominion government, accompanied by Mrs. Rideout, J. B. Snowball, Esq., president of the N. & W. railway, Scott Fairley, Esq., and H. E. Balkam, C. E., left Chatham at 8 o'clock on board a special train in charge of A. Alcorn, superintendent of the Chatham branch railroad, for the purpose of inspecting the extension of the Indiantown branch and the N. & W. railway from Blackville to Doaktown. The party arrived at Blackville at 9, and after a short delay proceeded to Indiantown, making a thorough examination of the road-bed and bridges. They then returned to Blackville and proceeded to Doaktown, making a stop at the Doaktown railroad bridge to inspect the recent improvements made on that structure. Dinner was taken at Murray's hotel, and the party returned to Chatham. Inspector Rideout expressed himself as highly pleased with the condition of the road.

Among the visitors who arrived here last week was noticed Mrs. John Fairley and family, Fredericton, Miss Alice Donald, Marysville, and Mr. Grant, buyer of ties, etc., for the M. C. & B. & A. railways.

Mr. Robert Boyce, a former employee of Mr. Scott Fairley, is back again at his old vocation.

E. C. Cole & Co. of Moncton are shipping large quantities of railway ties via. the N. & W. Ry. There are prospects of quite a large business being done in the getting out and shipping of sleepers to the American markets.

Fairley's mill had to suspend operations on Saturday, owing to an accident to his head gang man, who had his foot badly jammed.

Owing to the recent rains there is quite a freshet in the Miramichi and Bartholomew rivers.

The crops in general are looking very well, especially a large field of wheat on the farm of W. A. McLaggan, one of our most "go ahead" farmers. He recently imported two thoroughbred polled Norfolks—a yearling bull and a two year old heifer. Three of the finest colts we know of are to be found in his stable. They are from the famous Theriault mare. One was sired by Island Chief, one by Abdallah Messenger and the other is a Hambletonian.

The Messrs. Doolan and many others, who have been away west for the last few years, have returned with the intention of remaining. This is a noticeable contrast to the exodus from other counties of New Brunswick, and must be owing to the overwhelming majority the liberal candidate received at last general election.

Mr. Bernard McCormick is plowing the famous Doctor's Island, much neglected of late, and expects to have the whole of it under crop next year. It derives its name from an old eccentric bachelor doctor, who at one time long ago owned and resided on it with his seven dogs. He weighed about 300 lbs. avoirdupois.

Although on the completion of the Northern & Western Railway a number of men were thrown out of work, at present there is not an idle man in the place, as Mr. Fairley finds it difficult to get men to raft deals. Blackville is not by any means a "finished town" as the number of new buildings now going up will attest. Among the new buildings we may mention dwelling houses by Messrs. Cooney and Vickers. A new horse barn by B. N. T. Underhill, improvement on barns, etc., by W. A. McLaggan, and extensive improvements by John McConnell on his hotel at Blackville Station.

Mr. Fairley has bought the stock now in the station store, or the "Grab All" so called and will move it over this week. —Gleaner.

ANOTHER FLAG INCIDENT.

[From the N. Y. Tribune.]

That genial and popular actor, W. J. Florence, who was in the Restigouche county killing salmon as usual this summer, had an experience with flags which was for a time quite as exciting to those interested in it as the rebel flag question was to President Cleveland. In front of Florence's camp on the Restigouche two tall flag poles were set up, and English and American flags were kept flying. The poles were cut by the Indian guide without any special attention being paid to their size by Mr. Florence. One day a party of Englishmen and Canadians came down the river in a boat when Mr. Florence was absent from the camp and only an old Indian in charge. On the actor's return the Indian said that he had been warned by a party passing by that the flags must be changed or come down. Mr. Florence was puzzled. He looked at the flags and looked at the Indian. The Indian's face was a blank and Florence might as well have tried to read his answer to the riddle in the stars of the heavens as in the stars and bars of the flying ensigns. "What did you say to them?" asked Mr. Florence. The sturdy old woodsman replied: "Me tell 'em Mr. Florence put 'em up and they not come down unless Mr. Florence say so." Again Mr. Florence looked at the flags, and it suddenly flashed across his mind that the objection lay in the fact that the pole for the American flag was about ten feet higher than the one on which the English banner was displayed, and that in this difference between the poles had lain the objection of his chance visitors. He immediately gave directions to have the poles made of equal length, and when on the following day the party of objectors again floated by the camp it was evident that his perception, had been right from the fact that they cheered for both flags and for both nations with great heartiness.

DYNAMITERS AT WORK.

AN ATTEMPT TO BLOW UP THE STEAMER QUEEN OF THE NATIONAL LINE.

At 1 o'clock Wednesday, in New York, an attempt was made to blow up the steamer Queen, of the National Line. One of the dynamiters, who says his name is Thomas J. Mooney, jumped in a small boat and attempted to escape. He was captured and taken to police headquarters. The instrument with which he attempted to destroy the ship was also recovered. Mooney is a tall, fierce-looking fellow, and had in his possession a huge dagger and revolver. As yet he has given no cause for his actions. He is in no way indentified with the longshoremen's strike. The damage done to the steamer was trifling.

When Mooney was searched a loaded revolver, a box of cartridges and a dagger were found. In his pockets were also found newspaper clippings, with reference to the Canadian fishery trouble, and the original copy of the incendiary proclamation of warning to the British which was recently found posted on Broadway. Mooney said to the court: "I think that a great injustice has been done to the citizens of the United States. We have as much right to tear down the English flag as the Britishers have to haul down the American banner. The English act as devils and expect us to be saints."

Mooney is slightly bald. His hair is light in color and his eyes blue. He had a blonde mustache and goatee. He wore a suit of gray cloth and carried his coat on his arm. "Last year," he broke out again, "an American flag was hauled down by Capt. Quigley. I say the American flag must be respected." He was committed to await examination so that he could consult counsel. He refused to be interviewed.

DISGUSTED YANKEE FISHERMEN.

A Canso despatch to yesterday's Halifax Herald says: The schooners Charlotte Brown, of Barnstable; Fleetwood of Portland; Carrie G. Crosby, of Wellfleet, from North Bay with 18, 75, and 8 barrels of mackerel respectively, arrived here bound home. The first named is going out this morning, got ashore and failed to get off by to-night's tide. All three captains say they could easily have got full fares if allowed inside the limits, but that the cutters are protecting the coast so strictly that successful poaching is out of the question. They own shares in the vessels and are very anxious to sell out, being heartily sick of the turn affairs have taken since the abrogation of the treaty.

Referring to fishery matters, a Maine paper says: The mackerel are adding insult to injury in aggravating the scurvy trick they played on American fishermen the first of the season with their indecent haste to get into Canadian waters by huddling inside of that Kanuck dead line, the three mile limit. At Souris, P. E. I., the mackerel catch is the largest ever known, one man reeling in 100 bbls with the first dip of a small seine, while the gaunt and hungry New England skipper is feverishly haunting the three mile limit, and gnashing his teeth at the cutters which guard it.

HYPNOTISM TO REPLACE CHLOROFORM.

(London Telegraph).

Dr. Pozzi has made a discovery, the effect of which will be to replace the employment of chloroform by hypnotism in surgical operations. A woman hysterically disposed has been operated upon in this manner with success. Insensibility was produced by hypnotism alone, the patient being what is termed by professors of the art "modified by suggestion." This modification was necessary, as the mere act of hypnotism produced a relative or unilateral insensibility, useful only in cases where an operation has to be performed on one member of the body, and accordingly incomplete and insufficient in its general action.

In the case of the hysterical patient the operation, including the time taken for the hypnotic suggestion, lasted twenty minutes, and when the woman awoke she had not the least recollection of the ordeal through which she had passed.

The intense strain of this torrid temperature is wearing out a great many human systems. In New York the death rate is becoming alarming. One coroner was called upon on Monday to investigate thirty-four cases of sudden death—the largest number of any day this season. Among the deaths in Brooklyn from the heat was Andrew Lefren, managing editor of a Swedish Journal and prominent in the social circles of Brooklyn. The day before Oscar G. Sawyer, a veteran Herald correspondent, was stricken down and died.

WINNIPEG, Man., Aug. 4.—Several American immigration agents are in the city trying to induce recently arrived Icelanders to go to Dakota. Several hundred Icelanders arrived to-day but were sent right through to Brandon by the Canadian Pacific authorities, where they will be out of harms way.

TO AGENTS THE CANADIAN NEEDLE CO., 46 and 48 Front Street East, Toronto, get up the Neatest, most Complete and Best Selling Needle Package in America. Send 25 Cents for Samples of New No. 4, finished in Fine Plush. Particulars sent when stamps are enclosed for reply.

Don't worry if you are out of employment. Write to Mr. KOWDY, 41 Wellington Street East, Toronto. Send stamps for reply.

WORKING CLASSES ATTENTION! We are now prepared to furnish all classes with employment at home, the whole of the time, or for their spare moments. Business new, light and profitable. Persons of either sex easily earn from 50 cents to $5.00 per evening, and a proportional sum by devoting all their time to the business. Boys and girls earn nearly as much as men. That all who see this may send their address, and test the business, we make this offer. To such as are not satisfied we will send one dollar to pay for the trouble of writing. Full particulars and outfit free. Address GEORGE STINSON & Co., Portland, Maine
