sider Annexation Question.

ARE BETWEEN

The annexation movement promoted by some of the property holders in Crown Point, Kenilworth and Prospect Place has been under discussion for some weeks. A largely signed petition has been in circulation. When these residents afterwards learned that all improvements asked for by them would have to be provided for by the local improvement plan they became less anxious about joining the city. A coun-anxious about joining the eity. A coun-ter petition has been largely signed by a majority of the owners in this district and adjoining properties. The Board of Health, composed of two members of the Township Council, have forwarded to the Railway Board a petition from some of the ratepayers, asking redress from the unsanitary con-dition and supporting annexation to the eity on account of sewer accommodaeity on account of sewer accommoda-tion and water supply, which the town-ship is unable to give them. The Rail-way Board cannot act on this petition until the city is a party to the ment ment. As the petitioners who have signed opposing annexation, who are in the majority, desire to present their case, a special meeting of the Township Coun-cil has been called for Saturday evening, when the question will be delated by the councillors and their devlated will be councillors, and their decision will be declared.

was handed the names of some of them and instructed to see that they attend ed a little more regularly. As a result of his exertions four parents appeared before Magistrate Jelfs at the Police sending their children to school.

Court this

Court this morning, charged with not sending their children to school. Mrs. Samuel Mulholland, 53 Charlton avenue cast, told a very pitiful story of the circumstances of her little family, and gave such good reason for not send-ing her son to school that the Magis-trate's heart was touched and he agreed to let the charge drop upon condition that the child be sent at once. Mrs. Mulholland said her husband had been unfortunate last winter and was unable to secure work, except at intervals, some-times far apart. Consequently the larder working steadily. She also had been working steadily. She also had been working the days was away from home, as she had three small children, almost as she had three small children, almost beide, her daughter had to stay home-working. On account of the depleted condition of the family coffers the chil-dren could not always be clothed as well as other children, and when they were to school the other members of the class hughed at them. The Kingdon-Smith Company was ac-quicted on a charge of breaking the by-law by depositing soot in an alley in the herer of its premises on King William attect. Mr. Kingdon appeared for the firm, and said that the trouble was caused by flushing out one of the boilers. The water rushed shrough with such force, he said, that some of it was swept into the alley. As it was proved to be imavoidable, the case was dismised. William Cummings was fined $2 for being drunk.

A Noiseless Typewriter. Has not as yet been produced any-where, but Smith Premier No. 10 makes less noise than any other type-writer. Noise on a typewriter can be classified into three parts, namely: 1, noise made by the spa. bar; 2, noise made by the type bars coming in contact with the platen roll; 3, noise made by the shift key. On Smith Premier No. 10 the space bar makes practically no noise; 2, the type bars striking the platen make less noise than on any other a chine; 3, we have no noise. Model No. 10, is the only perfectly visible writing type-writer on the market. A Brickmann, 15 Main street east, "phone 3386.
