Gazette,

FARMERS' JOURNAL, AND COMMERCIAL ADVERTISER.

Established 1823.

Charlottetown, P. E. Island, Wednesday, June 13, 1855.

New Series, No. 248

To the Honorable J. M. Holl.

Sir: We the undersigned inhabitants of Charlottetown and its vicinity, cannot permit you to leave our shores without an expression of our sincere regret at your departure.

Eighteen years have now elapsed since you first became a resident amongst us, the greater part of which period you have, at a great sacrifice of your private time and business, gratuitously devoted to the public service in the several capacities of a Member of the Legislative Council, Member of the Executive Council and Justice of the Peace. The independent, efficient and honorable manner in which you have, at all times, discharged the duties of these responsible offices entitles you to strong claims upon our gratitude.

As the senior member of the Legislative Council you have contributed to the deliberations of that body a soundness of judgment, the result of many years of experience, the being deprived of which will, we doubt not, be felt by it and the public as a serious loss.

Your absence as a private Member of Society will be sincerely regretted, and many Institutions of a religious and charitable nature with which you have been connected, will be deprived of a liberal and valuable supporter.

We would fain indulge the hope, that your absence from the Colony may be only temporary. But in whatever land your future lot may be cast, we pray that the Almighty disposer of events may grant you and your amiable lady many years of happiness within the bosom of your family.

REPLY. Gentlemen: I receive with feelings of much emotion and sincere gratitude the address you have so unexpectedly presented to me on the present occasion. I am indeed deeply sensible of your kind consideration, and though I cannot but think that you have placed too high a value on my public services, it will ever be a source of pleasure and satisfaction, on taking a retrospect of the many years I have passed among you, that the manner in which I have endeavored to discharge the duties imposed upon me by the various public offices I have had the honor to hold in the Colony, has been such as to call forth so flattering an expression of your approbation. With regard to my private conduct, I can say with sincerity, that it has ever been my earnest
