wheat at the principal ports showed some decline; but business was not much affected thereby, and prices of American were lower. At Marseilles the arrivals of wheat for the week ending on the 19th alt amounted to 24,800 quarters, and the stock in the docks has decreased to 188,000 quarters ; trade was active, with 36,000 quarters sold during the was firm. At Berlin trade was quiet and prices were lower ; but the position of wheat was thought to be very tenable, as stocks in the provinces were barely sufficient to meet the demand. At Hamburg wheat sales readily made at former prices. Navigation at St. Peteraburg was expected to be opened by May 10 or 12, from whence considerable shipments of grain were expected to be made immediately after the opeuing. The amount of wheat on passage for the Continent by sailing ves-eis, A-ril 22, was 576,500 quarters, against 633, c00 quarters the previous week. On this Continent
