

THE DANCING GIRLS.

Rev Dr Stone and Rev Manly Benson view them from the Grand Stand at the Forest Fair Grounds.

The preliminary causers of the trotters around the race track at the Forest Fair Grounds yesterday afternoon were making little clouds of dust which the breeze off the lake blew away, and from the grand stand, where the great crowd sat in pleasant shadow, waiting for the show to begin, the immense sodded enclosure seemed baking under the sun.

It certainly was comfortable in the grand stand, and when a short clergyman and a tall clergyman climbed the stand and began a search for good places, it showed good judgment on their part.

Whether or not the stout lady who manages the dancing girls saw the broadcloth coats come into the grand stand does not appear. The girls at any rate wore skirts a trifle heavier than on the opening day, and there were not so many flashes of embroidery and laced-edged linen during the dance.

LEEBOURN.

Misses Louisa and Sarah Hillier, of Goderich, visited here last week.

Miss Bessie Carney visited friends in Lockport last week.

GODERICH TOWNSHIP.

The voters' list for this township contains a total of 854 voters, of whom 426 are qualified as jurors. In one division there are no less than 17 Johnstons, and on the whole there are 114 names commencing with C, the names Cook, Cantelon, C. C. Cole, Curry, Churchill, and Connell occurring most frequently.

DUNLOP.

PERSONAL.—B. K. Allen, our popular horseman, left this week for a trip to the Western States to visit some of the fall shows and exhibitions now being held there.

A. Thompson, one of the rising lawyers of Bay City, Mich., is visiting our burg for several days this week and last, and was the guest of D. Lawson.

The excursion of this week was taken to Detroit by Miss Kate Macdonald to see her husband, R. H. Macdonald. The Misses M. and Grace Allen also went to see friends there and then onward to Pontiac, Mich., to visit Mr and Mrs W. Young, formerly for many years residents of Dunlop.

NEAR US SOON.—Our old townman Geo. Bean, after an absence of some years, being lately a resident of Goderich township and tenant on the Mountain Farm of Alex. Cox, has rented the well-known Somerset Farm formerly owned by the late R. Campbell, from its present owner R. Barkwell, for a term of years, and will shortly reside near us. Our township again gets back one of its rising farmers, as George has been very successful in the Peninsular township.

Hark! the sound of many voices Jubilant in gladdest song, And full many a heart rejoices As the chorus floats along.

Well may it be called woman's best friend, since it does for her what no other remedy has been able to do. It cures all those delicate derangements and weaknesses peculiar to females. Cures them, understand. Other preparations may afford temporary relief, but Dr Pierce's Favorite Prescription effects a permanent cure. It is guaranteed to do this, or the money paid for it will be promptly refunded. It is the greatest remedy of the age.

The worst Nasal Catarrh, no matter of how long standing, is permanently cured by Dr Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

NILE.

From our own correspondent. On Thursday morning a fire broke out on the farm of Jas McDonald and totally destroyed his barn and its contents. Cause of fire unknown.

POPULAR ROW.

From our own correspondent. H. M. Tyler and wife, of Buffalo, are visiting Mr John Morris, of Poplar Row, Colborne.

Mr John Clifford, of Mobile, Ala., and his daughter are the guests of his father-in-law, Patriarch John Morris, of Poplar Row. Mr Clifford is superintendent of the mechanical department of the Louisville and Nashville R. R., and is another of the old Goderich boys who have come to the front in the neighboring republic.

PARAMOUNT.

From our own correspondent. Mrs Towle and her daughter Jennie are up from St. Mary's visiting friends in this vicinity.

Mrs W. K. Dryden, of Galt, and Misses E. Green and M. Kitchen are the guests of Mrs Wm. Murdock.

Mr R. Davis returned to his home after visiting in this neighborhood for two weeks. Rob has learned the tailor trade and is doing well.

Misses Mary Marin and B. Doyle attended the exhibition in London last week.

Misses Flora and M. A. Boston returned to Detroit last week.

Mr Peter Murray lost a dozen sheep by dogs last week. Some measures should be taken to protect the woolly tribe, as over thirty have been killed in this section in the past three weeks.

Mr McMillan, brother of Jno. McMillan, M. P. for South Huron, gave us a friendly call last week.

Dr J. B. Richards, formerly a resident here, now of Plainville, Mich., is in very poor health.

The Methodist church on the 2nd concession of Huron was dedicated Sunday the 15th. A tea meeting was held the evening of the 16th.

DUNGANNON.

From our own correspondent. The weather and general appearance of the country begins to feel autumnal.

Mr Peter McCann, of West Wawanosh, who has been very ill, is well and pleased to be able to state, gradually recovering.

Quite a number from this and surrounding vicinity have gone to see the sights at the Northwestern Exhibition at Goderich.

A large area of fall wheat is being sown in this neighborhood, and farmers here are nearly finished sowing. Some wheat which has been sown early is growing rapidly.

Your comment and explanation on the Niagara affair seems to have given general satisfaction, as also enlightenment on the subject, which will have a beneficial result upon many in this section.

Your humble correspondent, having had occasion recently to visit your editorial sanctum, observed great improvements in the interior which materially add to the business-like appearance of your establishment.

Mr James Walker, retired farmer, of this village, returned home on Friday last, after having visited his son Colville, and family, at Coludon, and also taking in the sights at the Provincial exhibition at London. He enjoyed himself immensely during the trip.

On Sunday last the weather was very fine, the elements being in a disturbed condition, the wind freshening with dust, etc., until between 3 and 4 p.m., when a unanimously welcomed downpour of rain quieted the disturbed elements, and moderated the excessive heat which prevailed throughout the previous part of the day, and cooling the atmosphere, which was appreciated by all and sundry.

AUCTION SALES.

All parties getting their sale bills printed at this office will get a free notice inserted in this list up to the time of sale.

Unreserved sale of farm stock and implements of Alex Campbell, lot 10, con. 10, W.D., Ashfield, on Monday, Sept. 30th. John Griffin, auctioneer.

Auction sale of valuable household furniture, on Saturday, Sept. 21st, 1889, at Story's old stand, Hamilton-st, at 1 p.m. John Knox, auctioneer.

Mr John Wiseman, for many years a prominent merchant of Clinton, and with many friends in Goderich, left this week for the States for the purpose of engaging in business there should matters shape the right way.

SWIFTLY PASSING.—Scarcely has one fully realized that summer is here until the signs of fall begin to appear. Already the hay and grain are cut; straw-berries have come and gone, the last of the raspberries have been gathered, and the fall fairs are now upon us with their perplexing prize lists. Then comes the tax gatherer, and what little he leaves will be required to prepare for winter. With all these changing scenes before his eyes there is still some who forget to pay the printer.

Wingham Times: In the report of the inaugural meeting of the Goderich Turf Association, the HURON SIGNAL makes the following remark respecting our townsmen, Mr A. Roe: "Didn't we have a dandy set of judges, and isn't Old Man Roe a daisy? We do not know if this is intended for a slur on Mr Roe, but we doubt if they have any better men than he in Goderich. He is not only a good judge of horse flesh but thoroughly understands the rules of horse racing. [No slur was intended. Roe is all right.—Ed.]

Messrs. T. and D. Todd, of St. Helen's, recently shipped about forty head of cattle to the Old County markets, but they were compelled to ship them by the C. P. R. from Wingham, as they could not get space on the Allan Line of steamers if they sent them by the G. T. R. from Lockport. Messrs. Hugh Girvin, of Ashfield, and W. & S. Wellwood, of West Wawanosh, also sent a number of fat cattle by the same train.
