THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1910.

Mr. Monk, M.P., Conservative leader for the Province of Quebec in Federal affairs, accuses Sir Wilfrid Laurier of 'stupid and servile loyalty' and of having betrayed the birthright of our people by the creation of a Canadian navy.

The retirement of Mr. William Rae from the principality of the High School is an event of note in the educational history of the city. This position Mr. Rae held for five years, during which time the school attained and kept a high place among the schools of the province.

Toronto Telegram—The Lemieux act is a convenience, not a cure-all. The method employed under the Lemieux act can bring about peace when employers and employees do not want peace.

Mr. Bonnycastle has resigned the seat for Russell constituency in Manitoba, to which some one elected him by destroying a sufficient number of Liberal votes.

The Ottawa Journal quotes Lieutenant Colonel White as saying that 'the time will come when the redcoats will be confined to the uncivilized parts of the country.'

The Montreal Gazette notes that the exports of butter from Montreal from the opening of navigation to the end of last week were 18,388 packages.

Not a minute should be lost when a child shows symptoms of croup. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even before the croupy cough appears.

The most emphatically protested against the assertion that popular opinion would not endorse such an alteration of the Navy Bill as would admit of a limitation compact with Britain. White-Germany would refuse to be dictated to by any foreign power as to the extent of her naval armaments.

The vast majority of German provincial newspapers would hail with delight any compact that would limit naval armaments. The German government has no right and no reason for desiring that it should refuse any offer of negotiations on this subject because such a step would outrage public opinion.

The city commissioners are trying to rearrange the city bookkeeping methods so as to simplify the annual report. There will be general satisfaction if they are successful.

So the mad carnival goes on. Warships begot warship, and fleet calls call to be built. There seem to be only two western powers today which credit each other with honesty of intention.

Not of course, that the fair was designed as a money-making enterprise or is run with that end in view. If it 'brings even' on the income and outgo it will do all that is expected or should be expected of it.

Western papers have been guessing as to how many members the provinces will send to Ottawa after the census of June next. Some estimates doubled the present representation.

Toronto Globe—The apathy of the people of North America toward the destruction of their forests by the great forest fires is a matter of regret.

There is no doubt at all as to the cause of these fires. The majority of them originate along the lines of railway where by a peculiarly shortsighted policy the brush on the right of way is usually cut and piled up until it becomes as sensitive to a spark as tinder.

Parliament will be in session in a short time, and weeks will be devoted to the consideration of issues scarcely large enough for county council debate. Surely it is not too much to ask that a few days be spent upon the revision of the laws regarding forest protection.

Edmonton's 1910 fair passes into history as a success. As an exhibition of what is being produced on the farms of the country, it was the best yet.

Washington Star—Some folks that get more than their share, said Uncle Eben, is so ridiculous that they ain't invited to congratulations no more.

Exchange—At an evening party a very elderly lady was dancing with a young partner. A stranger approached Douglas Jerrold, who was looking on and said:

Chicago Tribune—Tomorrow will be my birthday, Mr. Crisp. I'm that so, Miss Hamlin? Which one, my? I'm 120.

San Bernardino, Cal., Aug. 27.—With a leg shattered, and otherwise injured as the result of a powder explosion, Gus Phillips, a prospecting miner, dragged himself two miles across the hot desert of Slam, from where he was brought here yesterday.

Prince Albert, August 21.—George Perrott, of Duck Lake, is in jail here, having been committed for trial on a charge preferred by a young Galician girl of assault a week ago Sunday.
