Jack Munroe Has Volunteered.

One of the latest to offer his services for the Empire is Jack Munroe, the puglist miner, of the Canadian North West. Munroe was well known in St. John's, having fought a few rounds about here about a decade ago with Mike Shallow in the Prince's Rink.

Born in Boulardarie, N. S., Munroe was the first to defeat (Jeffries) the white champion of the world in an exhibition at Butte, Montana. Though he won great prominence in the ring, Munroe was better known as a miner and a successful one and by his efforts in that direction amassed a large fortune in the West. He was the first Mayor of a town which is now called "Munroe." It is hoped the puglist-miner-volunteer will prove as hard an opponent in the battle field as he did in other engagements.

Ordination at R. C. Cathedral.

The ordination of the Rev. John Enright to the sacred office of the Priesthood took place at the R. C. Cathedral this morning in the presence of a large congregation.

The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Bishop March, who was assisted by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Roche, Adm., and Rev. Dr. Whalen, P.P., North River; Rev. Dr. Greene was Master of Ceremonies, and the other priests in the Sanctuary were Rev. Dr. W. P. Kitchin, Rev. Frs. McCarthy, W. Less Bay, P. Kelly, P. Sheehan and T. Nangle.

Minor Orders had been conferred during last week, and yesterday this young man who has given his life to the service of his Divine Master was made Deacon. To-day he was vested with that power which was given to the Apostles by Our Lord Himself.

Jack Munroe Has Volunteered.

when he said: "Receive ye the Holy Ghost; whose sins you shall forgive they are forgiven them, and whose sins you shall retain they are retained."

Rev. Fr. Enright was born at Abbeylea, County Limerick, the same County which produced the late illustrious Bishop Mullock and the late lamented Monsignor Scott. He was educated at St. Kyran's College, Kilkenny, and is in his 28th year. He has been here for some time past, but his presence in the city was scarcely known, as his time was wholly taken up in preparation for that event which stands out amongst all others in the life of a priest, that event which gives him power to perpetuate the Sacrifice of Calvary.

To Father Enright, who comes from the Island of Saints, Newfoundland extends a hearty welcome, and is the earnest prayer of the Catholics of the Archdiocese that his ministry may be a lengthy one.

Tu es sacerdos in aeternum;
Secundum ordinem Melchisedech.

Doing Business for Himself.

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—On several occasions of late I have heard it casually remarked that my store has some connections with that of J. P. Maher Co., Ltd., and my taking no note whatever of such ridiculous remarks has had the effect of giving encouragement to bolder remarks. Where such remarks came from I have some knowledge, and when I secure more evidence, I shall show such parties up before the public in your paper, with your permission, over my own signature, as well as take other steps, and give notice that a public apology shall be forced from such parties.

Mr. Editor, I wish to state positively that I have no connections with Mr. Warshaw, Mr. Maher, J. P. Maher Co., Ltd., or Mr. P. F. Collins, and publicly defy anybody to say otherwise; I am doing business for myself over my own name.

GEO. KNIGHT,

Kelly and Mack Draw Crowds.

Last night Rossley's was crowded. Kelly and Mack, the best Irish team of all round vaudeville performers ever in St. John's, neatly dressed in stylish suits, with jokes, dances, songs, cornet and violin playing are the fun provoking pair. One would be hard to please if those two could not bring the laughs. They are refreshing, breezy, clean and neat.

Mr. Rossley's little new theatre is making rapid strides, and when finished will be one of the prettiest places seen in a long while. He is sparing no expense to make it what the West End people have already named it, Our Theatre.

McMurdo's Store News.

WEDNESDAY, Nov. 25, 1914.

For the appetite, and especially for those who complain of having no appetite in the morning, our Quinine and Iron Tonic will be found to be the thing needed. It not only stimulates the desire for food, but so strengthens the digestive organs as to make it possible for the stomach to use the food in the proper way. In many cases of simple anemia this tonic is also very valuable. Price 40c a bottle.

In weather when the temperature changes so frequently and so extremely as it often does at this time of year, keep a jar of Cream of Lilies handy; it will often save you sore hands or sprayed face. Price 25c a jar.

Wedding Bells.

The marriage of Mr. Arthur B. Walker (pleasantly of Windsor, England), to Miss Mary J. Winsor, of Wesleyville, was solemnized at Wesley Parsonage, this morning, the ceremony being performed by Rev. H. Boyle. Miss Nellie Walker was bridesmaid and Mr. Isaac B. Hant supported the groom. After the ceremony the party drove around Quidi Vidi Lake and back to a well-known restaurant where the wedding breakfast was partaken of, and the contracting parties' health toasted, after which the happy couple entrained for Placentia where the honeymoon will be spent.

Fads and Fashions.

All finely ribbed fabrics are in vogue.

The collar retires to the back of the neck.

The circular skirt is rapidly finding friends.

The strap slipper has danced itself into fashion.

Some of the new skirts are startlingly full.

The waistcoat fashion still remains in vogue.

Fur coats fastened with a single button are seen.

The short wide skirt is most fashionable this winter.

A purplish red, like raspberry, is said to be coming in.

Yokes are an important feature of the fashionable coat.

Natural blue and dyed blue fox are greatly in vogue.

Opera bags of hand-painted velvet are something new.

Evening gowns are trimmed with beaded and silk tassels.

Lace and net blouses are still worn with tailored suits.

Volles are the favorites among sheer white cotton goods.

Ruglan sleeves are as much used as ever in fur-lined coats.

The new coats have a decided flare and are frequently belted.

Elaborate novelty veils are worn draped loosely over the hats.

Beaver and skunk fur are much seen on the broadcloth suits.

Wedding Bells.

A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the R. C. Cathedral, on Saturday night last, when Mr. Michael Murphy, of the Royal Stores employ, led to the altar Miss Mary Callahan, daughter of Mr. Richard Callahan, of Carbonear. The ceremony was performed by Rt. Rev. Mgr. Roche, V.G.

The bride was prettily attired in amber silk with picture hat and was attended by Mrs. Carrie Hamilton, of this city, while the groom was supported by Mr. James Duffy.

On Sunday night a reception was held at their residence, Cookstown Road, which was attended by the immediate friends of the contracting parties, the festivities being kept up until early morning. The bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents, testifying to the esteem in which she was held.

To Mr. and Mrs. Murphy the Telegram extends congratulations and wishes them a pleasant voyage over the matrimonial sea.

Thanksgiving.

I'm living in plenty, and Heaven I thank; I've eighteen or twenty round plunks in the bank; I've coal in the cellar, and 'taters heaped there; my wife, Isabella, has plenty to wear. No mortgages hateful are bothering me, and so I am grateful as mortal can be. But every such blessing is common, though grand; it's little distressing we know in this land; the kind angels guard us and see we have food, and soothe and reward us with all that is good. With calmness, stupendous and nerve quite a few, we take what they send us, as though it were due. Our roubles are clanking—we've lots of them near; we'll do all our thanking one day in the year. Of grub we've a grateful, stored safely away; we'll show we are grateful on Thanksgiving Day. Our meadow land raises a harvest sublime; we'll put up our praises some day when we've time. We folks who are living in fairness and ease should spend our Thanksgiving this year on our knees; whole nations are starving where war dogs are loose, while we are a-carving a turkey or goose. The paper—just skin! it for news of the fray; if grateful, why limit our thanks to one day?
