LATE LOCAL ITEMS

A sitting of the first division court was heard before Judge Wm. Elliot this morning.

Rev. J. J. Durkin, O. P., of Memphis, Tenn., is visiting his parents on Hill street, city.

H. Marshall Graydon has returned from a year's visit to Great Britain and the continent.

Richard Barnwell, 184 Kent street, is at police headquarters, charged with beating his wife, who is the companion of a woman who has appeared before on a similar charge.

The police would like to find an owner for a dark enameled bicycle, with leather toe-clips, No. 17,344, name and make not known. It was found in the possession of a foreigner arrested on a charge of wife-beating.

While excavating on St. Andrew's manse grounds yesterday some workmen unearthed a skeleton of a human body. Rev. Dr. Johnston had all the bones collected carefully and buried again.

A trolley collided with one of the postoffice department mail wagons on Dundas street, near Maitland street, at about 11 o'clock this morning. The rig was smashed, but the driver and horses escaped injury.

Principal Merchant entertains his staff and students of the Normal School and the Model School at 7 o'clock this evening. The students have arranged a musical and literary programme.

The Twentieth Century Bicycle Club and their friends had a very enjoyable run to Springbank last evening where they were entertained at the home of Mrs. Findlay. A very pleasant time was spent.

A meeting of the natives of Middlesex county, residing in the neighborhood of Hamilton, will be held tonight in that city, to arrange to take part in the London Old Boys' Association reunion, Aug. 6, 7 and 8.

Daniel O'Brien, the Centennial farmer, whose sudden death by lightning yesterday was announced in The Advertiser, was an uncle of W. P. Regan, the city water inspector. Mr. Regan left yesterday to attend the funeral of his deceased relative.

The closing exercises of the Harding Hall pupils will be held at the Western University tonight. The young ladies of the school have been preparing for this event for some time. It is expected that a large number of their friends will attend.

At the juvenile police court this morning a 13-year-old boy, who lives near the York street bridge, was charged with throwing stones at a woman and her children. The case was adjourned till Tuesday. Another lad charged with walking on the grass in the park was discharged.

Mabel, only daughter of Rev. J. H. Moorhouse, of Christ Church, died last night, after four days' illness from diphtheria. She was a bright child, aged 8 years and 7 months, and her early death will be mourned by a large number of friends. The funeral, which was private, took place at 2 p.m. today to Woodland Cemetery. The McClary employees' picnic, which will be held tomorrow at Port Stanley, promises to be a decided success. An energetic committee has completed arrangements, and those who attend will undoubtedly find it one of the most enjoyable picnics of the season. A lengthy programme of races and games, all cash prizes, will be carried out. A fishing contest and boat race are among the novel methods of entertainment that have been provided.

The street railway company had considerable difficulty with their lines last night. When the crowd was going to the tattoo a belt line car went off the track and delayed traffic for some time. When the cars were returning to the center of the city after it was over, the wires broke on Dundas street, and seventeen carloads of people were blocked on Dundas street between Adelaide and Wellington streets.

A garden party that will be given at Napier on Friday, June 29, on the lawn of Mr. W. S. Calvert, M. P. for West Middlesex, is attracting great interest in that district. It will be conducted under the auspices of St. Andrew's Church. The arrangements that have been made are on such an extensive scale that the success of the affair is assured. Supper will be served by the ladies of the congregation, and afterwards an elaborate programme will be rendered. The London harpers, the Alvinston chorus of 20 voices, and male quartets from Glencoe, Alvinston and Kilmarin, will participate, together with many speakers, soloists and electioneers.

TOMORROW

Tomorrow morning the soldiers will leave camp. Fatigue parties will remain behind and prepare the tents for storage. Other parties will be detailed to tidy the grounds again.

AN INQUEST TONIGHT.

INJURED BY A SCORCHER.

Last evening about 10 o'clock, Miss Mabel Cannon, kindergarten directress of Lorne avenue school, was crossing Dufferin avenue, at the corner of Colborne street, when she was run into by a bicyclist, and thrown to the ground, sustaining painful and possibly serious injuries. The accident was witnessed by Mr. Weld, Miss Hyman and others, and Miss Cannon was taken to her home near by in an unconscious state. Miss Hyman remained with the patient until after the arrival of a doctor, rendering timely and valuable assistance. The scorching bicyclist escaped unhurt and hurried off without leaving his name.

POLICE COURT.

At this morning's police court Samuel Perkins, a laborer, pleaded guilty to being drunk and to stealing a Fenian raid medal, the property of Alex. Munro. The latter was sleeping in a chair in a hotel, when Perkins took it from his coat and sold it for 25 cents. Perkins acknowledged being drunk, and was remanded until Wednesday for sentence, and his record will be looked up.

The oft-adjourned brandy chocolate case was given another week's adjournment, and John T. Howell's case was put off until Wednesday.

Three sidewalk wheelmen were fined $2 each.

MIDDLESEX LAW ASSOCIATION.

A meeting of the Middlesex Law Association was held yesterday to consider a request from York Law Association that delegates be sent to a meeting of that association in Toronto on June 30. The matter to be discussed at the Toronto meeting is the question of reducing the annual fees of solicitors to the Law Society of Toronto, by the amount paid to the local association. R. E. Early, C. C. president, and an extended discussion followed. The tenor of the meeting was in favor of the suggestion, but no feasible plan for carrying it out was forthcoming.

Mr. Barton expressed himself as ready to support any measure advocating the abolition of the Law Society at Toronto. It was finally moved by M. D. Fraser, C. C., seconded by W. H. Barton, that no action be taken to appoint delegates. The motion carried.

THIRD ANNUAL LUNCHEON.

The third annual luncheon tendered by Superintendent R. M. Bucke to the members of the local legislature and their friends was held at the asylum yesterday. Among the present were: Hon. J. R. Stratton, provincial secretary; Col. Leys, M.P.P.; W. H. Taylor, M.P.P., North Middlesex; H. J. Petty, M.P.P., North Lambton; J. W. Holmes, M.P.P., Haldimand; J. Dickenson, M.P.P., North Oxford; A. STREET CAR ACCIDENT.—Mr. Thomas Sabin says: "My 11-year-old boy had his foot badly injured by being run over by a car on the street railway. We at once commenced treating the foot with Dr. Thomas' Electric oil, when the discoloration and swelling was removed, and in nine days he could use his foot. We always keep a box in the house ready for any emergency."

ANNUAL EXERCISES

Of Hellmuth Ladies' College—Brilliant Gathering Last Evening.

The annual commencement of the Hellmuth Ladies' College took place last evening before a large gathering of leading citizens. Among those present were Bishop Baldwin, Ven. Archdeacon Davis, Canon Richardson and Rev. Messrs. M. Senborne, W. T. Hill, G. E. Sage and Professor Burgess.

The drawing rooms, halls and class rooms were exquisitely decorated with flags and daisies, and presented a very beautiful appearance, while the fair young students acquitted themselves with the refined ease and gracefulness which has always been a feature of Hellmuth training. The varied and thorough educational work of the institution was shown in the following very excellent programme, all of which was most successfully performed:

Piano duet—(a) Minuet...Saint-Saens

Princess Helene, Miss M. Martin, Countess Adele, Miss H. Richardson, Mme. Longuepine, Miss G. Beddome, Celestine, Miss K. Trevelyan, Young Girls—Misses M. Gibbons, N. Niven, C. Sage, M. Smith.

At the conclusion of the programme, Bishop Baldwin, alluded to a very touching manner to the serious illness of Mrs. Baldwin, and expressed the great gratitude felt by the staff and students that the Bishop of Huron was able to be present. The honors were awarded by the bishop to the following successful competitors:

Honor Roll—Diploma and Governor-General's medal, Miss Maude Martin. Prizes—Bible, 1. Miss Martin; 2. Miss Tara Falls. Group, English literature, rhetoric and history, Miss Martin; piano, Miss Williams; singing, Miss F. Woodard.

Second Division—Bible, Miss H. Richardson; group, reading, writing and spelling, Miss C. Sage; English literature and history, Miss H. Richardson; English grammar and composition, Miss C. Sage; ancient and modern history, Miss H. Richardson; algebra and geography, Miss C. Sage.

Third Division—General proficiency, Miss N. Niven. Honorable mention—Department, Misses T. Falls, M. Ginge, M. Martin, N. Niven, E. Raymond, H. Richardson, and C. Sage.

The bishop then addressed the students, giving them earnest counsel, and wishing them every happiness and success. After which the benediction was pronounced by the bishop and the National Anthem sung. The visitors were then treated to a collection of astronomical charts and geographical maps executed by the young ladies, and some very excellent oil paintings and china, the various departments of work eliciting very enthusiastic and merited praise and admiration.

ELLIOTT NOT GUILTY

Acquitted on the Charge of Stealing—Riley Case In Progress.

The trial of Wm. Elliott, the private from Wolseley Barracks, charged with the theft of a suit of civilian's clothes, from a fellow-soldier, was begun at the sessions yesterday afternoon and concluded this morning. The jury was out within an hour, and returned a verdict of not guilty. Elliott was accordingly released and was taken in hand
