Hogs—Offerings, 2,300. Market opened active for good hogs and pigs, but closed 10c to 15c lower, and very dull and draggy. Yorkers not quoted above $5 50 at the close; others in proportion; mediums and heavies especially draggy and weak.

Wiman Pleads Not Guilty.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Erastus Wiman was arraigned before Judge Martine today and pleaded not guilty to indictments found against him. He is still at liberty on bail furnished on Saturday.

Corbett Knocked Out.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Champion Corbett complained of feeling ill after his bout with Mitchell in Madison Square Garden Saturday night, and yesterday he was so much worse that he took to his bed with a fever. While his condition is not considered serious, it will probably postpone his departure for Florida for a few days. An attempt will be made to get him there in time to answer in the court.

City Voters' Lists.

FINAL NOTICE.

To-morrow, at 10 a.m., the city assessment commissioner will receive all affidavits by citizens entitled to be on the voters' lists, but whose names have been omitted in the preliminary list.

Voters have only until to-night to hand their names to the secretary of the Liberal Association at the rooms, Oddfellows' Block, and subscribe to the necessary declaration, a process which costs nothing.

Every citizen of Liberal proclivities whether old or young—should examine the lists to-night, and make sure that his name is on the lists. Many citizens of long residence have found that their names have been omitted. Are you sure yours is on? Examine the lists now and make certain.

The only qualifications are:

1. You are a British subject.
2. You are 21 years of age or upwards.
3. You reside in the city.

A little time spent on this important matter now will save a visit before the county judge, or disappointment on election day.

OTHER NAMES OMITTED.

The following well-known citizens find, on examination of the voters' lists, that their names have been dropped from the same:

Jas. Williams, 354 Dundas street.
Wm. H. Hoskins, 161 Grey street.
Wm. D. Mills, Prospect avenue.
Alex. Smith, 346 Wellington street.

This is the second list of prominent citizens who would have been disfranchised at the approaching Provincial elections if they had not examined the lists now on exhibition at the Liberal rooms, Oddfellows' Block. No one can be certain that either he or his neighbor is duly registered unless he personally scrutinizes the list. After to-night the man who wants his name added will have to go before the judge.

LONDON AND ENVIRONS

—Mother Scott died of consumption at an early hour this morning at the convent of the Sacred Heart in this city.

—James Butts appeared before Squire Lacey this afternoon and pleaded guilty to acting disorderly in the London West car. He was given 21 days.

P. P. A. Convention.

A convention of the P. P. A. of East Middlesex was held secretly in the city on Saturday. It was called to consider election matters, and after a good deal of discussion it was decided not to put a candidate in the field at the ensuing Provincial contest, nor to officially indorse any candidate at present or likely to be nominated by other parties.

The Draper Disappearance.

No word has been had of Thomas Draper, the London West market gardener, who left his home on Wednesday last to come to this city. While Mrs. Draper is naturally very much worried over the affair, no suspicion of foul play is entertained. Mr. S. J. Draper, the missing man's brother, thinks that his brother took it into his head to go visiting and went, and that he will be heard from in a few days.

The Cannom Mystery.

Matthias Cannom, the missing South Londoner, has not returned and fear is expressed that he will not return alive. Arrangements were made last night at the home of the family on the Wortley road, to institute a thorough search, commencing this morning. The opinion prevails that Cannom has been drowned in the Thames above Hunt's dam. He was in the habit of taking a short cut to the city across the ice, and as this part of the river is very dangerous it is possible that he might have slipped through an air-hole into deep water. The nervous strain on the family is very severe, and a reward will be offered for information throwing any light on the affair.

SIR WILLIAM MEREDITH DEAD.

The Distinguished Jurist of Quebec—His Career.

QUEBEC, Feb. 26.—Sir William Meredith, ex-chief justice of the Superior Court of the Province of Quebec, died this morning, aged 81.

Sir William Meredith was born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1812. He came to this country in 1824 with his step-father, the Rev. Edward Burton, who settled in Rawdon, near Montreal, where Mr. Burton had a mission under the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel. Young Meredith studied law in the offices of the late S. De Bleury and J. C. Grant, Q.C., Montreal, and was admitted to the bar in 1836 and made Queen's Counsel in 1848. In 1849 he was raised to the Superior Court bench by the Lafontain-Baldwin Government, and retired from one of the largest legal practices in Montreal, which he had conducted with the late Mr. Bethune and Judge Dunkine. He was subsequently appointed to the Queen's Bench, on and the death of Chief Justice Bowen in 1886 Sir William was appointed to that high office which he held until 1884, when he retired owing to failing health. In 1886 the honor of knighthood was conferred upon him by her Majesty. He was a D. C. L. of Lennoxville, and L. L. D. of Laval University.

Skipped His Bail.

Col. Wheate Does Not Appear to Meet the Court.

Col. Meagher to Remain in the Debtor's Cell Until Bailed.

Says He Refused to Leave the City—An Adjournment of the Case—A Legal Dialogue.

For the third time since the instigation of proceedings the case against Col. John R. Wheate and Col. E. J. Meagher came up for trial at the court house this morning. The charge was that of obtaining under false pretenses $150 from Dr. Gray, of Lobo, whom they were treating for the cocaine habit. The court was opened at 11 o'clock by Squire Smyth. Messrs. McEvoy and Wilson appeared for Dr. Gray and Messrs. Graydon and Toothe for the colonels. The constable first called upon Col. Meagher to appear and save his own recognizances. Meagher was present and responded to his name; but when Wheate's name was called what had been rumored for three or four days was proven beyond doubt. He had skipped the country and left his partner in the lurch. After calling on Wheate in vain, N. P. Graydon, his bondman, was called upon "to produce the body of John Rue Wheate and save his recognizances."

This created considerable laughter. Mr. Gradon asked, as bondsman, for Wheate, that an objection be noted. It was that at the previous sitting the adjournment had been made till 10 o'clock, whereas the court did not commence until 11. He did so for his own security, and claimed that under the form of the bond he was not liable.

Owing to the absence of Wheate Acting Crown Attorney McKillop informed the court that he was not ready to proceed. He said the same charges were preferred against both, and he did not propose to go on until Wheate was brought back.

Mr. Graydon for the defendants, in reply to Mr. McKillop, said that Meagher was in a peculiar position. In the absence of Wheate it would be almost impossible to get bail. It was unfortunate that he should have been associated with Wheate. "Were it not for Dean Innes," said Mr. Graydon, "Meagher would be in jail now."

And so the cross-firing proceeded, Mr. Toothe stating that the contract entered into by Dr. Gray and over which the trouble arose, was not between Wheate, Meagher and Gray, but between Wheate and Gray.

Squire Smyth was inclined to grant the request for an adjournment.

Mr. McEvoy—We say that these two men were here and jointly committed the offense. You (turning to Mr. Graydon) by your argument here this morning have shown that you think the stronger case is against Wheate. You get him out of the country by securing yourself for his bail.

Mr. Graydon, angrily—You are a — liar. When you know that you can say it.

Mr. Wilson—We will not take that expression down.

Mr. Graydon—You two men have acted like bloodhounds in this case from the beginning.

This little set-to, though occurring after the adjournment had been granted, somewhat enlivened things, and after it had finished, the lawyers and Col. Meagher had a conversation in which they discussed the best course to pursue. Meagher finally decided to go to jail until the return to the city of Dean Innes, when it is expected bail will be furnished.

WHERE WHEATE WENT.

Last Tuesday night about 11 o'clock a hack was seen to drive up to the door of the German Remedy Institute on Clarence street. In a few moments a man emerged, carrying only a small hand satchel. He stepped into the carriage and was driven to the C. P. R. station, where he boarded the train for Detroit. Before leaving Wheate informed Meagher that he would be back on Friday, and as he had been to Chicago the previous week nothing was thought of it. Mr. McEvoy heard of Wheate's departure and telephoned to Windsor to the chief of police; but it was too late, and Mr. Wheate is now resting easily under the Stars and Stripes.

MRS. WHEAT ALSO DEPARTS.

The wife of Col. Wheat, who came here with her husband, was a very sociable lady and was highly respected by the patients in the institute. Mrs. Wheate remained in the city after her husband left, and on Wednesday was seen very little around the house. This created no suspicion among the inmates at the house, and in the evening all connected with the house (save Mrs. Wheate) went to the opera. On returning one of the patients met her as she was coming out of the door. All Mrs. Wheate said was "Good-bye, doctor," and she jumped into the carriage, was driven to the C. P. R. station, boarded the train for Detroit and was seen no more. It is believed she was joined in that city by her husband. She took all the latter's baggage with her.

COL. MEAGHER'S POSITION.

Col. Meagher was seen by a reporter before being removed to the debtor's cell. He was in no way downcast over his going to jail, but was greatly disappointed at the course pursued by his partner and said that he was fully convinced he would have returned. He said he had received a telegram from Detroit wiring him $25 and asking him to leave the city. This he declined to do.

Dr. Gray, the cocaine victim, was in the court room. He did not look very bad, but his nerves appeared to be badly shattered.

A FAMOUS WOMAN CRIMINAL

Dies in Hamilton—Now She May Cross the Border.

HAMILTON, Feb. 26.—Mrs. Fredrica Mandelbaum, known in New York city as a notorious "fence," and who did a flourishing business there in this line for a number of years, died here this morning at her residence on Victoria avenue north. Mrs. Mandelbaum was about 65 years of age. She was very wealthy having accumulated considerable fortune as a go-between for thieves and crooks and as receiver of stolen goods in the city of New York. She came to this city about ten years ago when the New York authorities had begun proceedings against her and her conviction was probable. A big legal fight ensued here for her extradition, but with the assistance of Attorney Pummel, the famous criminal lawyer of New York, Mrs. Mandelbaum was enabled to continue her residence in Canada and has resided here with her family ever since. For a time she carried on a small business here, but has lived retired for several years past. During her enforced residence in Canada she never ventured across the border, but her remains will be taken to New York tomorrow afternoon for interment there on Wednesday morning.

Another Bomb Explosion.

PARIS, Feb. 26.—At 10 minutes past midnight a bomb exploded in the Rue St. Denis, almost at the corner of the Boulevard of the same name. No one was injured. The scene of the explosion is a street occupied almost entirely by retail shops. It is pre-eminently a bourgeois quarter of the capital.

CURLING.

A BIG BONSPIEL.

One of the greatest curling events of the season takes place at the Simcoe street rink to-morrow from 4 p.m. until 7:30. The match will be between the eight rinks of the London Club, four being marshaled under President D. B. Dewar, and four under Vice-President G. A. Somerville. The losing club will entertain the winners to a supper. The clubs will line up as follows:

BEWARE

Of Personators and Others Making False and Malicious Statements.

Through exercising every effort to establish a business upon the principle of giving Good Teas and Coffees at moderate prices, it has come to my knowledge that I have been subjected to personation, untruthful and disparaging comments, at the hands of various parties, who apparently wish to damage the good reputation my Delicious Blends of Pure Indian Teas and Finest Blend of Coffees are gaining among a large number of consumers. I hereby warn the public against the practices of those who stoop to such means. My own agents carry with them convincing proofs of representations. I simply invite the public to try my goods and judge for themselves.
