A DAY IN THE SPORTING WORLD

SIDE LIGHTS ON MANY SPORTSWESTERN ONTARIO LOOKS
GOOD FOR AT LEAST ONE
O. H. A. TITLE THIS YEAR

This Section of Province Is Out To Recover Its Lost Laurels and Capture One of the O. H. A. Championships This Winter—Hockey Will Boom as Never Before in This Part of Dominion.

[BY JINX.]

Will Western Ontario get a slice of the O. H. A. honors this coming winter? Judging from the preparations being made in this particular corner of the province at the present time it looks as if Western Ontario will not only get a slice but several more bites besides. If as much hockey enthusiasm is sweeping over the other points of the Dominion as is sweeping over this section at present, Canada, and particularly Ontario, can look forward to one of the biggest hockey seasons in the history of the game this coming winter.

Failed to Cop Last Season.
Western Ontario did not cop an O. H. A. championship last winter. It was the first winter in many seasons that a chest of the O. H. A. silverware was not shipped to a Western Ontario address, and just to get even the "garden of the province" is out to cop it all this winter. If that is possible, London tried hard to bring the intermediate championship in this direction, but Collingwood proved a little too brainy, and as Orillia had copped the junior honors from Woodstock, and Toronto captured the senior silverware, the west went championshipless.

Prospects Great This Season.
But the prospects for this winter are away ahead of what they were this time last year, and with the added benefit of several new rinks, O. H. A. hockey will boom in Western Ontario when the snow flies. Sarnia, Woodstock, St. Thomas, Ingersoll, Paris, Brantford, and London are making elaborate preparations for the coming season without saying anything of the activities in several other towns and cities in this section, Listowel, Berlin, Galt, Stratford, Guelph, Preston, St. Marys, Strathroy, Seaford, Alvin, Tilsonburg, New Hamburg and a dozen other places have already organized, or are talking reorganization, and they are enthusiastic over their prospects.

Sarnia and St. Thomas Strong.
Maybe the success of London last year has had something to do with it, but hockey has become a live issue in Sarnia and St. Thomas, where it has been practically dormant for many years. Last year, the Sarnia team won its district, but was beaten out by London in the first round. The same fate overtook St. Thomas. Since then these two clubs have set to work to gather a strong team for this season, and they are both out to beat London.

Sarnia looks particularly strong this year, and it is likely London will meet them again this winter providing, of course, both teams win their district title.

Woodstock Has New Rink.
Woodstock has a new rink and it will be represented by two teams, intermediate and junior, this winter. The Baby City made a strong fight for the junior championship last season, and its failure has only served to spur it on to greater efforts. The building of a new rink should further serve to put it on the hockey map with vengeance. Ingersoll, with its splendid rink, is also waking up, while Stratford, the town that used to grow hockey players by the bunch, is also stirring. Paris, the team that means London more trouble than any other hockey team, with the possible exception of Collingwood, promises to pace a strong aggregation in the intermediate O. H. A. series, and this means that London and green will be right up there fighting for the district title just like it has been for the past fifteen years.

London Looks Good.
London's prospects are as good as they were this time last year, while some of the more enthusiastic fans who are in touch with the local situation declare that the outlook is much better. The London intermediates will, with a couple of exceptions, be the same as last year. These exceptions are Hall, the brains of Collingwood's intermediate champions last season, and "Dot" Reid, brother of Dave Reid, and one of the most promising hockey players Seaford ever turned out. It is also said that one of the members of the champion P. R. and A. club of Toronto is in this city and has been here all summer. He will likely turn out with the local intermediates if he remains.

Juniors Will Be Strong.
The London junior O. H. A. team will be much stronger than last year. There is more good material available in the city now than ever before and no doubt will be experienced in placing a team on the ice that can give them a battle with splendid chance of winning the group honors and going into the finals. Many of last year's players are still available, but the majority of them will have to hustle for their positions this year, as there will be all kinds of competition.

Western Ontario is out to recover its lost laurels this coming season, and it looks as though London would play an important part in bringing this about.

Lynch and McGraw
Favor World Series

National League President and Manager of Giants Are Both Strongly Opposed to Garry Herrmann's Plan of Post Season Games.

[Canadian Press.]
New York, Oct. 17.—President Thos. J. Lynch, of the National League, has lined up with President Ben Johnson, of the American League, in the stand the latter recently took in opposition to the suggestion of abolition of the world's series and substitute an inter-league series, in which all the major league clubs might participate, but President Lynch does not agree with the chairman of the National Commission in this idea.

President Lynch said: "The world series today is the biggest event in American sports and arouses country-wide interest. An inter-club affair would be so long-drawn out that interest would lag and the games would become merely local contests, instead of national importance."

Manager McGraw, of the New York Nationals, defeated contender for this year's title, was even more strongly quoted today in opposition to the Herrmann scheme. He declared that the 22 games played between clubs were sufficient to decide the respective league champions, but the losers always hated to see the winners, and the spoils, and he added: "There isn't a chance of the world series being dropped. It is too great an event in baseball."

TYPHOID CARRIED OFF RALPH ROSE

Champion Shot Putter of the World Died in San Francisco.

HE HELD MANY RECORDS

Was Champion of World for Eight Years—Carried Off Olympic Honors at Sweden.

San Francisco, Cal., Oct. 16.—Ralph Rose, holder of the Olympic and world's records for shot putting, died here today of typhoid fever after a brief illness.

Rose was a big, florid, full-blown man, of the type typhoid finds rich soil. From the first his battle against the disease was not encouraging to his physician.

Ralph Rose was born in Healdsburg, Cal.; graduated from the high school there, and for a time attended the University of Michigan. He returned to California, studied law and was admitted to the bar.

Champion for Eight Years.
For eight years Rose was a champion weight man in amateur athletics. His prowess won him a place on the first American Olympic team that went to Athens in 1906, and he was successively a member of the Americans in London in 1908, and Stockholm in 1912, always bringing home first place, until last year, when he was beaten by McDonald (American), with a put eight inches short of Rose's own world's record of 51 feet flat for the 16-pound shot, made at Travers Island, N. Y., in 1909.

Held All American Records.
In addition to his records with the 16-pound shot right-hand putting, Rose also held all American records with the 8-pound, 12-pound, 18-pound, 21-pound and 28-pound weights, and the world's record in club weight shot for right and left hand, combined. This last mark he made last year on the Stanford University field in the Olympic try-outs. He was 29 years old.

WOODSTOCK COLLEGE WON.
Stratford, Oct. 15.—The first Rugby football game in years was witnessed here this afternoon when the Woodstock Collegiate team trounced the local students by 27 to 6. Lack of practice suited in the homesters giving a very ragged exhibition.

ST. THOMAS C. I. BEATEN.
Woodstock College defeated St. Thomas Collegiate yesterday at Woodstock by the score of 15 to 9.

JACK MAYNARD, captain of the "Varsity team, whose injuries received at Kingston will probably keep him out of the game for a month. In the meantime he is acting as coach. Maynard is in a class by himself as a half-back.

THREE EASTERN GOLFERS LEADING AT MEMPHIS

J. B. Simpson, of Milwaukee, Was Also One of Those in Lead—McDermott Made the Lowest Score.

Memphis, Tenn., Oct. 17.—Three eastern men, J. J. McDermott, Atlantic City; McDonald Smith, New Rochelle, and M. J. Brady, Boston, and one from the west, J. B. Simpson, Milwaukee, were in the lead when play was resumed this morning in the third round of the tournament for the western golf championship. Mr. McDermott, whose 146 for yesterday's 36 holes, was the low score for the day, had a two-stroke advantage over Smith. Brady was next with 149, and Simpson fourth with 150.

The other players started the day within ten strokes of McDermott.

"BOOB" SERIES PLAYERS
GOT $77.22 APIECE

St. Louis Browns and Cardinals Worked Hard for This Amount—Everybody Got a Piece.

St. Louis, Oct. 16.—The Browns and Cardinals are willing workers, and labor cheaply, too, when pitted against each other. For today's game, the Browns, in the eighth game of the "booby" series that they have all season, braving the condemnation of the sporting press and the public, too, each set of players split less than what Larry McLean, the former Cardinal, got in his bit of the world series sport. The players of each club received less than $1,700 to divide any way they desired.

JOE KEANAN HAS PULLED SOME FOXY TRICKS IN HIS DAY, BUT
READ THESE LOUIS TELLS ABOUT

Canadian League's "Grand Old Man" Nearly Caused a Riot at Hamilton When the Umpire Wasn't Looking—Johnny Coash Stole Second Base in Rubber Boots.

[BY LOUIS BIERBAUER.]

There have been many humorous incidents in the Canadian League during my experience, but the one which was pulled off by Joe Keenan at Hamilton, when Joe was managing the London club, occurred during a Saturday game, and a big crowd was present. The game was close, and the fans were on edge with excitement.

Joe Keenan was on second and Harry Brant was on first. They pulled a double steal, Joe going to third and Brant to second. The catcher threw to third base, but the baseman dropped the ball and started to look around for it. Umpire Canella was officiating at the time, and he turned his back on the play when he saw Joe had reached the bag safely. The ball was lying at Joe's feet, and he glanced over and saw Canella was not looking. He then stooped down, picked up the ball and threw it out into left field and started for the plate, calling to Brant to follow. Both of them scored safely.

By this time, however, the crowd was wild. Every person present but the umpire had seen the trick, and the fans were coming out of the stands for us and yelling protests at Canella at the same time. Canella was bewildered for a moment, but seeing Joe and Harry on the bench, and hearing the threats of the crowd, he told Keenan and Brant to go back. Joe asked him what for, and he said: "I don't know what for, but go back anyway; you did something." Both players went back. We lost that game in the tenth inning, and it was lucky we did. If we had won we would have been mobbed. That crowd was in an ugly humor after Joe's little performance.

In that same game Pancratz, the Detroit boy, was playing centre field, and a fly ball was hit at him. He turned and started running for the fence, as it appeared as if the ball were going over his head. He kept on running without looking around, and the ball fell square on his "bean," knocking him down and dragging him for a time. He was "kidded" a lot by the players of both teams after that, and such expressions as "Take the mask off there," "Cover up your dome," and "Put some grass in your cap, or you will get killed," were hurled at him for the remainder of the afternoon.

Another foxy trick pulled by Jo-Jo Keenan was when he was playing for Hamilton. Oskee Neale was on third at the time, and there was one out. A foul fly was hit back of third, and Jo-Jo went

WILMINGTON MATCHES ARE INTO SEMI-FINALS

Match Between Miss Hollins and Miss Curtis Attracting Considerable Attention Today.

[Canadian Press.]
Wilmington, Del., Oct. 17.—One of the largest galleries of the week looked for the women's national golf championship over the course of the Wilmington Country Club. Patriotism drew many to follow the match between Miss Marion Hollins, of New York, the 1912 metropolitan champion, and Miss Harriet Curtis, of Boston, former national title-holder, the only Americans to struggle for the national prize.

Others who have had no opportunity to see two of the foremost women golfers of Great Britain play watched the contest between Miss Mabel Dodd and Miss Gladys Haverford. The former this year won both the British and Canadian championships, while the latter is a former English title-holder.

Most of the experts picked Miss Dodd to win from Miss Haverford, as she is at the top of her game. All the golfers here are agreed on one point, and that is that the American who wins today will be the English representative in tomorrow's final.

Semi-ready — the Premier Clothes of the British Empire. So say the London-England clothiers—and they want to know why we do not establish shops in England.

The Old Bachelor says: A cloth fabric should be suited to the needs of the customer, to his vocation or calling.

The colours should be those which best accord with his complexion.

The pattern should be in harmony with the style of the moment and the wearer's physique.

A stripe makes a tall man look taller; a check makes a stout man look stocky.

Every fact should be taken into consideration—and Semi-ready Clothes are tailored for those who know.
