Alleged To Have Seized Whiskey Wihle Posing As a Provincial Constable.

Although a second arrest has not yet been made in connection with an alleged false seizure of whiskey in Biddulph Township, Provincial Officer Arthur H. Palmer, who is investigating the case, is following clues that will lead to a man being apprehended, it is expected. ce Constable Roy Brammer, of the local police force, the first man arbested and charged with fraud, is bailed sum of $8,000 to appear before Squire W. McCaffrey was in London this morning. On the day following the alleged seizure. Provincial Officer Palmer went to McCaffrey's home to search it and was told that on the evening previous men posing as provincial detectives and calling thmselves "Palmer" and "Kelly" had searched the place and seized the whiskey. They showed badges and tore up the flooring and scattered the grain in the barns in their search for more, McCaffrey told Palmer. They threatened to shoot if any disturbance was made during the search.

It was stated that before entering the afternoon of Monday, June 6, for Quethey arrested and handcuffed a bec, and will lie at the docks here as man who came from the house with a a hotel boat, accommodating the overbottle of whiskey.
