

UNRULY MOB IN BERLIN STORMS FRENCH EMBASSY

BERLIN MOB FAILS IN PLAN TO RUSH FRENCH EMBASSY

Guards Armed With Riot Guns Prevent Damage To Building.

DOWN WITH FRANCE

Angry Crowd Voices Protests of Occupation of Ruhr.

Special Cable to The London Advertiser and The Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Berlin, March 26.—The French embassy was the storm-center of a disorderly anti-French demonstration yesterday, culminating in a spectacular attempt by the mob to force its way into the building.

Guards armed with riot guns posted in the Pariser Platz in front of the embassy were rushed backward to the very doors of the building and an actual entrance prevented only by the timely arrival of cavalry and infantry reinforcements.

The square, which had been closed to traffic in anticipation of a demonstration, was forced in a surprise attack from the flank, the mob moving from Unter den Linden. It was led by several hundred persons of the younger rowdy element, including many university students. The angry crowd, composed of several thousand persons, resisted the efforts of the police to clear the square for more than an hour, singing the while "Deutschland über Alles" and shouting "Down with France." Its vehemence threatened to unroof the embassy.

This spontaneous demonstration followed a prearranged Ruhr song-fest before the Reichstag building.

SOCIALISTS TO DEMAND CUNO DEFINE ATTITUDE

Ask Chairman of Reichstag To Call Special Meeting.

Special Cable to The London Advertiser and The Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Berlin, March 26.—German Socialists tackled a double task yesterday on one hand of convincing a delegation of French, Belgian, Italian and British Socialists that Germany was prepared to do its part toward an acceptable reparations settlement, and on the other hand of forcing Chancellor Cuno to come out with an unequivocal declaration of the cabinet's readiness to negotiate as a rider to his Munich and Stuttgart statements last week.

The Socialists were decidedly vexed by the tone of these speeches, in which all the emphasis was laid on Germany's determination to stand fast and let Poincaré make overtures. They have asked the chairman of the foreign affairs committee of the Reichstag to call a meeting, at which the chancellor will be taken to task for failing to waive the olive branch vigorously enough. The meeting was scheduled for today, but was postponed until tomorrow, or perhaps later.

ADVISES CO-OPERATION OF AMERICAN PEOPLES

President of Chili Plans Visit To Advanced Relations On Continent.

Special Cable to The London Advertiser and The Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Santiago, Chile, March 26.—The inaugural address by Arturo Alessandri, president of Chile, at the opening of Pan-American conference yesterday, was a broad appeal to the friendship of the Americas of the past and the conditions of today demand real friendship and co-operation between the American people. He was positive, logical and hopeful regarding the future of Pan-Americanism and was notably so concerning the friendly spirit of Latin-American toward the United States.

Yet he spoke plainly of Chile's loyal support of the League of Nations and declared forcibly for arbitration, disarmament, anti-alcoholism, social reform and an educational program as necessary for the real development of the American peoples.

President Alessandri evidently desired to make particularly clear two points which he considers necessary for the positive advance of Pan-Americanism, the clearing away of Latin-American suspicions against the United States and the settlement of Chile's relations with Peru.

NEW BASEBALL LEAGUE FOR CENTRAL ONTARIO

Canadian Press Despatch.

Peterboro, Ont., March 24.—A new Central Ontario Baseball League will be formed as a result of Peterboro's dissatisfaction with the schedule proposed by Lindsay and some of the other towns.

The new group will constitute: Peterboro, Kingston, Cobourg and Belleville. A meeting will be held in Belleville on Wednesday next. Teams left in the old league are Lindsay, Bowmanville, Oshawa and Port Hope.

STEAMER ARRIVALS.

St. John, March 25.—S. S. Metagama, Glasgow and Belfast.

Halifax, N. S., March 25.—Regina, Liverpool; Ansonia, Liverpool.

New York, March 25.—Paris, Havre.

OUTLINES PLAN TO BRING ITALIANS INTO CANADA

Signorina Garabaldi Submits Her Scheme To Premier Mussolini.

Associated Press Despatch.

Rome, March 26.—Premier Mussolini yesterday received Signorina Italia Garabaldi, grand-daughter of the Italian Liberator, who is interested in a plan for Italian emigration to Canada, which might absorb the emigrants prevented from entering the United States because the quota for Italy, under the United States immigration law, has been filled.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

Signorina Garabaldi showed Signor Mussolini messages she had received from prominent persons in Canada dealing with her project, and also offers of large tracts of land in Canada for colonization purposes. Signor Mussolini promised personally to study the project in the interest of both Italy and Canada.

KILLS DAUGHTER WORRIED TO SAVE HER FROM DISEASE

Walter Hubbard of Saginaw Makes Confession To Warden.

CLEAR UP CRIME

Former Clubman Considered For Long Time Before Acting.

Special to The Advertiser.

Jackson, Mich., March 26.—Walter T. Hubbard, former Saginaw clubman, now a lifer at Jackson Prison, killed his only child to save her from a hereditary disease, which he believed threatened her happiness, he declared in a confession Saturday before Warden Hurlburt.

It was the first time the convicted man has essayed to explain the part he took in what is considered one of the most cold-blooded and deliberate murders in the annals of Michigan's history.

Hubbard told of his decision to kill his daughter, Margaret, 11 years old, and then sacrifice himself, was told after he had spent weeks of mental torture, he said. His mind was resting easier, he felt happier after the confession, he said.

The disease which threatened the child's life has made her a target for cold, childish fancies and sicknesses almost continually during her life. One other child of the Hubbard family had died from malnutrition, and a blood test revealed the disease.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Hubbard told of having taken the little girl downtown the day of the slaying, of having bought her candy, "to show her father was a real pal." That evening in his home he played with her, then took her up to her room, where he cut her throat with a razor. He attempted his own life, but hospital authorities saved him.

Says When Women Gather Anywhere Old Love Songs Fill the Balm Air

Colorado Springs, March 26.—"Community songs" are peculiar things, says E. O. Mitchell, leader of community songs, the Pike's Peak region. For instance, lots of people go to these songs and then don't warble a note, he says.

And at luncheons given by various clubs "stunt" songs are in demand rather than old-time melodies or the popular airs. When the women get together for a sing, and there are no men present, the favorite airs are the old love songs of long ago.

But the mixed songs where both men and women are present are made up almost entirely of the very latest popular airs.

CHRISTIANS WARNED TO LEAVE TURK CITY

Near East Relief Asks Allies to Prevent Deportation Risking Many Lives.

Associated Press Despatch.

Athens, March 26.—The Near East relief representative in Asia Minor sent the following message to this city Saturday:

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

"There are ships in the harbor now that can take the refugees off if anyone will receive them."

"The Turkish police announced this morning that Christian refugees who do not leave Mersina within four days will be deported to the interior. The refugees here now number 4,500. The allies should make strong representations to prevent such a deportation, for if these people are marched to the interior more than 5,000 will die."

WILL TAKE STUMP IN THE BY-ELECTION AT MOOSE JAW

Forke, Hoey, Motherwell and Davies To Journey West.

BIG WEEK AHEAD

Hon. Charles Stewart Will Submit Statement of Expenditures.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Ottawa, March 26.—With the approach of the Easter recess, members of all parties in the Commons are looking forward to the short respite from their parliamentary duties, and the majority of those from outside of Ottawa with the exception of the British Columbia members, will seize the opportunity of visiting their homes for a few days. Representatives from the Liberal and Progressive parties are expected to take part in the Moosejaw by-election fight during Easter week. Robert Forke, R. A. Hoey and C. C. Davies are expected to take the stump in the riding in support of the Progressive candidate, while Hon. W. R. Motherwell, minister of agriculture, is likely to speak on behalf of the Liberal nominee.

Has Busy Week Ahead.

In the House a fairly busy few days are in prospect. Today will be private members' day, one of the few remaining this season, when members will be able to launch debates in support of bills and resolutions standing in their names on the order paper. If the private members' business is disposed of the minister of finance, Hon. W. S. Fielding, is expected to ask for unanimous consent of the passage of an interim supply bill, granting to the government sufficient funds to carry on the work of the various departments for two months. The fiscal year begins on Friday night that supplies were not in a condition to warrant government making anything like an extensive appropriation.

Will Present Statement.

The immigration department estimates will be taken up again on Tuesday, it is expected, when Charles Stewart has promised the House a statement regarding expenditures under the vote for grants to associations.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue its examination of witnesses concerning steamship rates and space.

Several committees will meet during the early part of the week, seeking to make further progress in their various investigations. A royal commission is called for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, while on Tuesday morning the standing committee on banking and commerce and mines and minerals are to meet. The special committee on agricultural conditions is also to meet on Tuesday, when it will continue