Will Discuss Problem at the Tenth Session, To Be Held Here.

Canadian Press Despatch, Toronto, Sept. 7 .- The tenth session of the General Synod of the Church of England in Canada will open on September 24, in Bishop Cronyn Memorial Hall, London. His Grace the Archbishop of Rupert's Land will preside.

Of the business slated, there is a motion from Chancellor Worrell to form a fire insurance company. Criticism is made of the high rates paid, which are not in keeping with losses incurred. A memorial from Toronto Synod asks for pensions for deaconesses.

The general board of religious education points out that the sum of $20,000 a year, which they ask for their work, represents 12 cents per annum per Sunday school scholar.

MUNICIPALITIES FIGHT PLAN ON POWER COST

Carrying Burden of Deep Waterways.

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, Sept. 6.—A general meetong of the Hydro-Electric Municipal Association has been called by President C. A. Maguire for next Wednesday for the purpose of making a pro-test against the circular issued by the Canadian Deep Waterways Association advocating a plan for deep-lening the St. Lawrence River whereby the hydro power users of Ontario would be charged the entire cost. The meeting will be held in the city hall here and a large attendance from all parts of the province is expected.

Mr. Maguire stated today that the proposal of the power association was an outrageous one and would inflict an unparalleled injustice.

BODY OF DETROIT MAN FOUND IN RIVER AT WINDSOR

Windsor, Sept. 7.-The body of man, later identified as that of Paul Evans, 25, of Detroit, was found floating in Detroit River off Queen's Dock today and taken to Janisse Morgue. There was nothing to indicate the manner in which he met death.

THE SHORT CUT.

The way to success
Has been outlined, I guess,
hundreds of thousands of men.
Rise early and work;
Stay late; never shirk! You've heard it again and again.

Now I wouldn't say That way doesn't pay
To get to the top of the heap;
This much I do know, The process is slow; You're old ere the profits you reap.

But here's a short-cut
To get out of the rut,
To cast off the poor work's yoke; With speed you'll advance, And your pay will enhance If you laugh when the boss cracks

The itinerant lecturer-preacher was a staunch prohibitionist and always prefaced his sermon by a story (either true or mythical), showing the curse of drink. The congregation he was addressing listened spell-bound, as he told of a heavy drinker when the state of the who met with a very painful death.
This man was so rum soaked, that, in attempting to blow out a lighted candle, his alcoholic breath was ignited and his head exploded!

There was complete silence as the preacher finished. One sinner, in the front row, suddenly paled, beads of perspiration breaking out upon his
